

MORNING STAR AND CATHOLIC MESSENGER. NEW ORLEANS, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1893.

MISCELLANEOUS TERRI NEWS. On the 18th ult., the nomination of candidates for the Parliamentary representation of Belfast opened amidst the most disgraceful scenes ever witnessed, even in that stronghold of Orange fanaticism.

At the election in Carrickfergus, the Tory, Torrens, was well beat by the Liberal, Dalway. The poll stood 660 to 491.

Mr. Vernon, Tory, has been re-elected to represent the town of Lisburn in Parliament.

ARMAGH.—Mr. Vance, Tory, was re-elected to Parliament from Armagh.

CORK.—Cork city has returned John Francis Maguire and Nicholas Dan Murphy to Parliament.

MOSSA.—Smith Barry and McCarthy Downing have been elected for Cork county.

IF Bandon (heretofore a Tory stronghold), Mr. Shaw, Liberal, beat Mr. Bernard, Tory.

The Youngham election has most probably resulted in the election of Mr. Weguelin over Sir J. N. McKenna.

In Malloy Mr. Sullivan, Q. C., Liberal, was re-elected to Parliament without opposition.

Sir George Colthurst, Liberal, was re-elected in the borough of Kinsale.

CAVAN.—Lord Annesley and Mr. Sanderson have been elected to Parliament from the county Cavan.

DUBLIN.—In our issue of last week we briefly announced that Guinness and Pim—a Tory and a Liberal—were elected once more to represent the city of Dublin in the British Parliament.

Between the number of votes cast for Guinness, who headed the poll list, and Corrigan, who got the lowest vote cast, there was but 500 difference. The Dublin Freeman says: The Liberals fought gallantly, but what could avail against those ready instruments—the freemen—who voted, to the number of 2100, in the usual way, while only some three hundred voted for Pim and Sir Dominic.

About 11,000 voted altogether. If we deduct the 2100 freemen, 9000 legitimate electors would remain. Of these only 3470 voted for Sir E. Guinness, and 2350 for Mr. Plunket, while 5272 voted for Mr. Pim, and 5000 for Sir Dominic Corrigan.

Of the fifteen wards the Liberals had a majority in thirteen, the exceptions being the South Dock and Fitzwilliam. In the North Dock they had nearly four to one, Arran quay and Inns quay more than two to one.

But the freemen rendered all efforts unavailing.

Major General Sir Thomas Larcom has resigned the office of Under Secretary for Ireland. In all probability he will be succeeded in that office by Colonel Sir Edward Wetherall, K. C. S. I. and C. B., who is now Assistant Quartermaster General at headquarters.

The Irishman says: Information is wanted of James Murphy, clerk, and John Murphy, carpenter, formerly of Bolton street, in the city of Dublin. When last heard of (February, 1893) both resided at the corner of Smyth and Wyck-off streets, South Brooklyn, United States.

The slightest particulars will be gratefully received by their mother, Julia Murphy, at Mr. John Piggott's, 112 Grafton street, Dublin.

The Rev. F. P. Conway, Dungeny, lately presented to the Catholic Missionary College of All-Hallows, Drumcondra, an Irish Bible, and a magnificent copy of O'Reilly's Irish Dictionary, which he received as "Irish Solus" under Professor Tully, Maynooth; also a Hebrew Bible, Lexicon, etc., received as "Hebrew Solus," the second year he studied that language under the saintly Dr. Dixon, late Primate of Armagh.

Down.—The English papers lately published a notice of the death of one who was called the oldest man in the world. His age was 112 years. The London Daily Sentinel records in its obituary column the death of a man in that part of the county aged 115 years.

Orange ascendancy was trumped on in Newry at the late election, when Mr. Kirk, Liberal, beat Lord Newry by a majority of four votes.

Mr. Keown, Tory, has been elected to represent Downpatrick in Parliament.

Wm. Law and Samuel Law, of Hazlebank, Banbridge, County Down, flax-spinners, trading under the name, style, and firm of Samuel Law & Son, have been gazetted as bankrupts.

DERRY.—In Coleraine, Mr. Bruce, Tory, was elected to Parliament without opposition.

Sir F. W. Heygate and Mr. R. P. Dawson have been returned without opposition to represent the County Derry in Parliament. They are Tories.

Mr. Dowse, Q. C., the Liberal candidate for the Parliamentary representation of the city of Derry, beat Viscount Hamilton, Tory, by a majority of 101 votes. Dowse polled 700; Hamilton 599.

DONEGAL.—The Parliamentary representation of the County Donegal remains still Tory, the members elected being the Marquis of Hamilton and Mr. Thomas Connolly.

FERMANAGH.—At the close of the polls at the election for the Parliamentary representation of the borough of Eniskillen, the voting stood thus: Crichton, Tory, 171; Collum, Liberal, 141; Cole, Tory, 1.

Wa (Kilkenny Journal) are happy to learn that the Rev. Thomas Heald, the esteemed pastor of Wexford, County, United States, formerly of the Triangle, Dunmore, and born in the parish of St. Mary's, in this city, has received from His Holiness, Pope Pius IX., as a special mark of favor, the degree of Doctor of Divinity. This esteemed clergyman was educated in St. Kieran's College.

The same paper adds: We have much pleasure in announcing that the mansion of the Smyth family, in Callan, known as "The Lodge," has been taken by a community of nuns of the Order of the Sacred Heart of Mary, from Beiers, in the South of France, for the purposes of a boarding and day school. There are fourteen nuns from the diocese of Oseory in the convent at Beiers, including two from the city of Kilkenny—the Misses Hennessy, nieces of the late John Brennan, Esq., Woodview. One of these ladies is mistress of novices in the present house, and is expected at Callan as the first Superioress of the Convent there.

KILDARE.—Messrs. Cogan and Fitzgerald were elected to represent the County Kildare in Parliament.

KERRY.—The O'Donoghue was unopposed in his election to Parliament from Tralee.

On the 20th ult., the nomination of candidates for the representation of the County Kerry took place. Lord Castlerose and Mr. Herbert were proposed and seconded.

The Rev. Mr. O'Donoghue coming forward to oppose Mr. Herbert, was hoisted down by that gentleman's supporters, and this led to a scene of uproar, in which both candidates were unable to obtain a hearing. There being no opposition, they were declared duly elected.

LIMERICK.—On the 20th ult., the County Limerick election took place, and resulted in the unopposed return of Colonel Mousell and Mr. E. J. Synan.

The returns at the close of the polling at the city of Limerick election were: Gavlin, 1032; Russell, 800; Tait, 726; Pigott, 186.

The Reporter adds: We call this the crowning victory of all—and one on which the priests and people—and every liberal and enlightened Protestant—have every reason to congratulate themselves. Thus Orangeism and false Nationalism are settled by the same blow!

Citizens of Limerick, remember the majority of 74! For F. W. Russell and freedom over the fiercest Orange conspiracy! As to the gallant Major, he was quite secure.

Sir Colman O'Loughlin and Col. Vandeleur were re-elected to Parliament, without opposition, from the County Clare.

Col. Stackpole was re-elected without opposition for the borough of Ennis. He is a Liberal.

LOUTH.—At the election for the representation in Parliament of Dundalk, Sir George Bowyer (an English Catholic Tory) was defeated by Mr. Callan, a local solicitor, Mr. Russell being second on the poll. Fortescue and Dease have been returned without opposition to represent the county.

LONGFORD.—Colonel Greville Nugent and Major Myles O'Reilly have been unanimously re-elected to represent the County Longford in Parliament.

MEATH.—The following names have been returned by the Judges of Assize for the election of High Sheriff for the County Meath, for the coming year: The Hon. Jenico J. W. Preston, Gormanstown Castle, Balbagan; the Hon. Gustavus Hamilton Russell, Stackallen, Navan; Col. Henry P. DeBaths, Knightstown, Navan.

MAYO.—George Henry Moore (Liberal) and Hon. Mr. Bingham, (Tory), have been returned without opposition to represent the County Mayo in Parliament. Mr. Valentine O'C. Blake, the second Liberal candidate, withdrew on the eve of the election.

MONAGHAN.—Messrs. Leslie and Shirley have been elected to Parliament from the County Monaghan. They are Tories.

QUEEN'S COUNTY.—Mr. Lawson, Q. C., the Liberal candidate for the Parliamentary representation of the borough of Portllington, was beaten by Capt. Damer, the Tory candidate. Messrs. Fitzpatrick and Digby were elected without opposition to represent the county.

Mr. Peter McMahon, son of Mr. Bryan McMahon, of Abbeyleix, has been sworn an attorney of her Majesty's law courts in Ireland, and solicitor of the Court of Chancery.

ROSCOMMON.—The O'Connor Don and Mr. French, (both Liberals), were returned to Parliament from the County Roscommon without opposition.

Mr. Michael A. Boyd, son of H. Boyd, Esq., Lakeview, County Roscommon, having been examined recently, received his qualifications authorizing him to practice as a surgeon.

Sligo.—U. A. Knox, Esq., D.L., having resigned the office of Clerk of the Peace for Sligo, Col. Knox Gore, the Lord Lieutenant of that county, has conferred the appointment upon Mr. Randle Peyton, A.M., solicitor after many a bitter personal election has ended, after many a bitter personal election has ended, after many a bitter personal election has ended.

The Sligo borough election has ended, after many a bitter personal election has ended, after many a bitter personal election has ended, after many a bitter personal election has ended.

Cashel has re-elected Mr. O'Boime to Parliament. At the close of the poll he had received 100 votes of Mr. Munster's 84.

The Advocate, of a late date, announces the death of the Rev. Father Cahill, and adds: He was a native of Ballyboy, Upperchurch, and related to most of the old families in that district. Father Cahill was a speaker of the first order, and a sterling patriot. His brilliant arguments in a favor of the poor, down-trodden tenant farmers, will long be remembered in Cashel and Emly. He worked earnestly in the ranks of the Tenant League, until they were broken and scattered by the perfidy of the Whigs. After Sadlerism, and the suppression of the County Club, he retired in disgust from politics, stating that the clergy could be no longer independent were to rule over the minority, while one of the latter might have more brains than the former.

The death of Rev. William Hogan, P. P., of the united parishes of Kilkenny and Anglecaboro, is also announced. It occurred at his residence, Kilkenny, on the 13th ult.

WEXFORD.—At the New Ross election, Mr. McMahon, Liberal, as returned without opposition, Col. Pottenham having withdrawn. In the city of Wexford Mr. Devereux was re-elected.

At a banquet given in Wexford, on the evening of the 26th ult., by Messrs. Power and D'Arcy, who had just been elected to represent the county in Parliament, there were some two hundred electors present. After the Queen's health had been honored, a gentleman commenced singing "God Save the Queen," and was well hissed. When the "Health of the Lord Lieutenant, and prosperity to Ireland" was proposed, there was renewed hissing, and cries of "No, no;" "Prosperity to Ireland, but not to the Lord Lieutenant." The greater number of the company refused to drink the toast.

WATERFORD.—The election for the Parliamentary representation of the County Waterford took place on the 19th ult., when Capt. John Emond and Mr. E. De La Poer were returned without opposition.

The city election ended in the return of Messrs. John Aloysius Blake and James Delahunty. Sir Henry Winston Barron being defeated. The votes polled were: Blake, 766; Delahunty, 582; Barron, 439.

In Dungarvan, Sergeant Barry was beaten by Mr. Mathews, who got 151 votes to Barry's 103. A petition against Mr. Mathews' return is spoken of.

WESTMEATH.—Messrs. Pollard-Urquhart and Greville Nugent have been chosen members of Parliament for the County Westmeath. In the borough of Athlone, at the close of the poll, it was found that 167 votes had been cast for John Ennis, Liberal, 108 for Bayley, Tory, and one for Stanforth.

FATHER DE SMET AND THE INDIANS.—The St. Louis Republics of a late date thus refers to this self-denying missionary, who left this country lately for Europe; but who contemplates returning next March, to resume his labor of love among his beloved Indians: It is his purpose to join Gen. Harney, who is now engaged in concentrating the Upper Missouri River Indians on the new reservation, selected by the government above the river Niobrari, which extends north to the 10th parallel, westward from the Missouri River to the 104th meridian, in the Black Hill region.

Gen. Harney has commenced the nucleus of a colony on the Grand River, near the old Kee Village, and he writes that matters are progressing quite favorably. Already several bands of Sioux, including a portion of the Upper Yanktonais, have come in with their families, and are being fed, with a view of getting them comfortably housed, and eventually initiated into the mysteries of agriculture.

Gen. Stanly, in command of Fort Sully, also writes that the Indians are peaceable, and but very little stock has been stolen the present season. The willingness of many of the Northern bands to forsake their nomadic habits and come into the Reservation, when taken in connection with the statement by telegraph, that Red Cloud, the leader of the hostile Powder River Indians, has come in and signed a treaty, may be looked upon as auspicious for the continuance of peace in the Sioux country. Every precaution should therefore be taken to prevent the Cheyennes, Arapahoes and other Arkansas River Indians, who are now being chased by Gen. Sheridan and ex-Governor Crawford, from sending emissaries among the Northern tribes to excite them to hostilities.

Gen. Harney is urgent in his request to Father De Smet to come immediately and commence his missionary operations. He says the chiefs, who have been told that the "Black Gown" is coming, are anxious to learn when he will arrive. Father De Smet has returned an answer that it would be impossible to alter his present arrangements, but that, God sparing his life, he will be among the Indians in March next. He intends taking up with him a number of artisans and farmers, to assist in carrying out the plan for civilizing the Indians and rendering them self-supporting.

The number of Indians embraced in the Northern tribes, which it is hoped will be induced to settle on the Reservation, is about forty thousand. From this number it will be seen that a great amount of missionary and other work will be required to bring them into subjection and good conduct.

With the ability, tact, vast experience, and consummate knowledge of Indian character possessed by Father De Smet, and acquired by him since he first set out as a missionary from Tremoude, in Belgium, in 1821, it will be conceded that Gen. Harney will have a most useful auxiliary in the work that Government expects him to accomplish in inaugurating and putting in operation the civilization of the Indians.

Father De Smet has crossed the ocean seventeen times, and the Pacific three times. During the course of his peregrinations he traveled by land and water over two hundred thousand miles, encountering privations and dangers, and now, at the age of about sixty-eight, he seems as zealous as when in his prime, in performing the special work that Providence seems to have designed for him. May he have a prosperous voyage and safe return.

THE JESUITS IN CHINA.—In a letter sent from Canton, mention is made of the Cathedral going up there, which is to cost three millions of dollars. We learn that another, quite as magnificent and costly, is being erected at Peking; also that, in nearly every important city of the Empire, churches are being erected. The Jesuits are in China in great force. Here comes one of their priests, a Frenchman, wearing Chinese clothing, with a pig-tail hanging down his back. He has become a Chinaman, following to the letter the Apostolic example and precept—becoming all things to all men, to accomplish the end in view. The Jesuits throughout the Empire have adopted the dress, the habits and customs of the Chinese—eating as they eat, sleeping as they sleep, shaving the forehead and not the crown, just as the Chinese have theirs.

Your readers will remember that two hundred years ago the Jesuits were numerous throughout the Empire, but upon the accession of a new dynasty they were driven from the kingdom, and their property confiscated. But through all these long years Rome had her eyes open. When the French brought forward the treaty lately signed between France and China, one article stipulated that all the property confiscated two hundred years ago should be restored to the Jesuits.

"It is impossible," said the Emperor's ministers. "It must be done," was the reply of the French commission.

"Who can tell where it was situated? How can it be identified? There have been great commotions—a great many changes since then. We cannot find it," said the ministers.

"Of course, there may be some difficulty; but if the Fathers of the Church can identify the property, your Highnesses will restore it," said the bland commissioners.

"O, yes; if they can show that it was once owned by the Church," and the article went into the law.

A few months later the Fathers appeared at Peking with a great bundle of title-deeds and documents, yellowed by time, and mostly from their long repose in the archives of the Propaganda at Rome.

The Emperor's ministers were confounded, but there was no help for it, and so the Church to-day is in possession of immense estates in nearly every city of the Empire.

The other day, while walking through the streets of the old city of Shanghai, Rev. Mr. Yates pointed out long ranges of buildings which had been restored to the Jesuits under that article of the treaty. The income from these estates is enormous. No estimate can be made of the amount, which is known only to the Fathers, who keep their own counsel.

A Scotch candidate for Parliament was taken to task for running races on Sunday. They excused him when he informed them that he ran his horses in France.

NEW ORLEANS GAS WORKS, October 16, 1893. There are eight of PAGE & CO.'S ROOFS at the New Orleans Gas Works, and all perfectly tight. Those put up three years ago are apparently perfect. During the late severe storm, when the best of slate roofs failed to keep out the rain, not a single leak could be found in those covered by Page & Co. During the last three years, employees of these Works have had some twenty of these Page & Co.'s Roofs, and, without exception, speak of them in the highest terms. My experience with the works of the most approved manufacturers, that I am convinced that any one has only to give them a trial to become satisfied of their merits. W. M. GUGLIONE, Manager.

I fully concur in the above, and recommend Messrs. Page & Co. to persons desiring work in their line. The Gas Light Company have had extensive dealings with this firm, and have always had the prompt and reliable. N. O. J. TISDALE, Gen'l Supt.
