

MORNING STAR AND CATHOLIC MESSENGER.

NEW ORLEANS, SUNDAY, JULY 11, 1869.

MISCELLANEOUS IRISH NEWS.

ANTEM.—The Belfast correspondent of the Dublin Freeman, under date of June 11th, says: The meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge, held in Dublin last week, did not pass over without recording the usual "pains and penalties" which the members who dared to assert their independence in the exercise of the franchise. Upwards of 200 of the brethren who voted for Mr. Thomas McClure, M. P., were brought before the Grand Lodge by Brother C. M. Arundell, for exercising the franchise in favor of the Liberal candidate. The chairman (Bro. Edward Waller) refused to entertain the question, and sent the report back to the Grand Lodge of Belfast for consideration. A member in Derry, who refused to vote for Lord Claude Hamilton, was expelled; and a member in Brandon, who voted for the Liberal candidate, was subjected to the same fate. The chairman of the Northern Ward, on the 10th ult., gives instances of late Orange intolerance in Belfast—during which the police were repeatedly assailed by stone-throwing mobs, headed by drummers and fifeers, playing party tunes, and shouting, "To hell with the Pope, and the traitors Gladstone and Bright!" On one of these occasions the police, who had been drawn there by the usual "pains and penalties" of the riotous gang; Robert Turner, S. Montgomery, David Crawford, Thomas Maxwell, Robert Fryers, John Taggart, Wm. Mitchell, Jas. King, John Fleming, Thomas Fleming, Robert Young, Robert Rice and Thomas Hudd. On the following evening a large drumming party also paraded the Cranial road to the great annoyance of the inhabitants of that neighborhood.

CAVAN.—George Robert Gallogly, Esq., Governor of the jail of Cavan, died on the 10th ult. It is said that he was very popular among the inhabitants of Cavan. In proof of which they, without exception, placed shutters on all the windows of their houses of business on his death being announced. He was unmarried.

CLARE.—A telegram was received in Killaloe on the 13th ult., saying that the great fishery case between John McKee, Wm. Spaight, of Derry Castle, and Mr. George Twiss, of Bird Hill, the former claiming "a several fishery" in the Shannon under an old document and lease, from Dromineer Point to a place called Parteen-croona, has been disposed of by Judge Lynch, much to the satisfaction of the people, by dismissing the claim set up by Mr. McKee, but really by Mr. William Spaight. The public are gainers by the result.

Denis Roughtan, a member of the Confraternity of the Holy Family, a religious order established by the Redemptorist Fathers, died at Enniskillen, and was interred on Tuesday, June 10th, with all the honors of the church. The members walked two and two, with handkerchiefs and scarfs, and the procession made a strong impression on all who witnessed it. He was interred in the old churchyard of Kilmacphoen.

CORK.—A man named William Johnson, a printer, out of work, stated to have come from Dublin, was recently arrested in Cork for distributing seditious placards and letters to soldiers in the streets. The documents are with rhapsoodies, exhorting soldiers to seize their arms, plunder gunshops; seize provisions, gold, silver, arms, and the best horses everywhere, lead the people against the government.

The Dublin Freeman, of June 8, says: A special telegram from our correspondent in Cork, reports that a Nationalist demonstration took place in the Athenaeum of that city yesterday evening, in connection with the readings of Mr. O'Connor, "Cain Thierens." The audience in the course of the evening sang "God Save Ireland," the entire crowd standing. Some detectives who were present were seriously threatened, and considerable excitement prevailed throughout the evening.

The Dublin Freeman, of the 8th ult., says: A special telegram from our Cork correspondent announces that an extraordinary riot took place in that city yesterday. It appears that a house in Cumberland street having acquired a bad repute, a Catholic clergyman went to the proprietress to request her to leave. The report got abroad that the clergyman had been expelled, and an immense crowd assembled and completely wrecked the house. The proprietress was removed under a police escort, but she was roughly handled in the transit.

Richard Beamish, Esq., Abbey Mount Leap, has been appointed by the Lord Chancellor to the commission of the peace for the county of Cork, on the recommendation of Lord Fermoy.

DERRY.—The new Catholic church of Fernyoo was solemnly dedicated to the crown of God on the 6th ult., in the presence of a numerous and respectable congregation, which embraced a number of the Catholics of Dundalk, Newry and the adjoining parishes. The altar of the church is very beautiful, and is the princely gift of Mr. Andrew McDonald, a native of the parish, who has been in Dublin. The ceremony of dedication having concluded, High Mass commenced, the Rev. B. Daly, C. C., Druminate, celebrant; Rev. P. Curtis, C. C., Dundalk, deacon; and Rev. T. Hardy, C. C., Dundalk, master of ceremonies. At the conclusion of the Gospel, the Most Rev. Dr. Derry, Bishop of Clonfert, preached an eloquent sermon. High Mass was celebrated, when a collection was taken, and we are glad to state that the proceeds, including the sale of tickets, amounted to £305. Father McCullagh returned his grateful thanks to his friends for their kind assistance, and said he owed them a debt of gratitude which he could not hope to repay.

DUBLIN.—Several of the English papers announce that the Countess of Spencer has become a Catholic, which, one correspondent avers, is the first instance of a noble lady admitted into the Church of Rome. The latter, however, is not probable. In the Court of Exchequer, Dublin, on June 10th, an ancient ceremony, which is not likely to be repeated, was performed on the table of the court, in the presence of the Judges. The Rev. Mr. Kinross, Vicar-Choral of Christ Church Cathedral, and several chorists, attended in their surplices and sang a hymn. The clergyman then read in a distinct voice the concluding prayers of the morning service, and having bowed to the court, the party withdrew. This is intended as homage for lands held by the Law Church in what is called "Eran Aingne." Before the Revolution it was customary on the first and last days of all the terms in the year, to have High Mass celebrated in the courts, as homage for the lands. After the change of faith which then occurred the service of the Church of England was adopted, and continued as witnessed now. The court gave a certificate of the performance of the ceremony.

Mr. Frederick D. Gratton Guinness, of Beaumont House, Drumcondra, nephew of the late Sir Benjamin Lee Guinness, died on the 5th ult. from the effects of poison, compounded for him by mistake.

Recently, in Parliament, notice was given by Mr. C. Bezzant, the member for East Surrey, that he would move for a copy of the correspondence between the Rev. Michael Cody, Roman Catholic Chaplain to Mountjoy Prison, with the Directors of Convict Prisons in Ireland on the subject of separate confinement.

KILDARE.—The Dublin Freeman says: A highly respectable deputation recently waited on the Rev. Dr. Doyle, P. P., at the Parochial House, Maynooth, to present an address and a well-furnished purse, with a most appropriate intimation, expressive of the sentiments of the united parishes of Maynooth and Taghaddo.

LOUTH.—The Dundalk Democrat says as to the weather: This is the 12th of June, and strange to say, we have not as yet got clear of winter weather. The past week has been very cold and parching, and vegetation has been much retarded.

LIMERICK.—The Limerick Reporter, of the 4th ult., says: The Annual Diocesan Synod was held at St. John's, Limerick, yesterday, and was attended by the Lord Bishop and all the clergy of the diocese, with scarcely an exception.

MEATH.—A mission was recently conducted at Curarus, in the County Meath, by the Most Rev. Dr. Nulty, Lord Bishop of Meath, with six of his own diocesan priests, Rev. Messrs. Allen, O'Brien, O'Reilly, Gavan, Gogarty and Behan. The good Bishop, seeing the immense crowds that were anxious to avail themselves of the many graces and blessings of the mission, brought several priests to assist his staff, so that for a fortnight there were twenty priests in the confessional from early morning until late at night. The numbers attending were so great that his lordship, on the last evening, thought it best to have the holy exercises in the open air. There could get less than seven thousand people present, who were edited and well-bound by the thrilling eloquence of that truly gifted priest, Father Gogarty, administrator of Mullingar.

MONAGHAN.—The new lunatic asylum for the counties of Monaghan and Cavan, erected at Monaghan, was opened by order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, on Monday, the 17th of May, under the management of Dr. Robertson, the resident medical superintendent. It contains accommodations for 300 patients.

TIPPERARY.—The death of Rev. Thomas H. Hely, C.C., Whitegate, is regretfully announced in the Dublin Irishman, which says: The Rev. Thomas Henry Hely was a native of gallant Tipperary, but his missionary labor as a priest was chiefly in the Curacy of the Diocese of Killaloe. After his ordination, he was appointed to the curacy of Corohin, where he endeavored himself to all classes. Next he was ordered to Shinrone, where he was equally popular, as he also was in Whitegate, where he died on the 1st of June. In him the country has lost a patriot who would have freely given the drop of his heart's blood to secure her freedom.

On the 7th ult., at the Presentation Convent, Thries, Miss M. A. Carroll—in religion Sister Mary Alphonsus—third daughter of John Carroll, Esq., Killinure House, received the black veil at the hands of his Grace, the venerated Archbishop of the Diocese—the Most Rev. Dr. Leahy.

WESTMOUTH.—The following changes were recently made in the Diocese of Ferns, by the Most Rev. Dr. Farlow: Rev. John Farlow, C. C., Monomolin, to be P. V., Cloughbawn, vice Very Rev. John Doyle, P. V., deceased; Rev. Richard Kavanagh, C. C., Litter, to be C. C., Monomolin; Rev. Henry Williams, C. C., Cloughbawn, to be C. C., Monogary.

WESTMOUTH.—The Westmeath Independent says: On Friday, June 4, at midday, three men, with their faces blackened, entered the house of Mr. Dixon, farmer, near Drumahaire, and took away a gun. Dixon's wife expostulated with the men for this open act of robbery, but the leader said they wanted all the arms they could get, and on leaving the house fired a shot.

The logical consequences of Orange tactics has been developed in Belfast. If clerics and magistrates will pervert their intelligence, misuse their position, and take advantage of their practical impunity, by haranguing fanatical mobs, exciting passions, and giving their words and basest tendencies a definite shape and purpose, it is the idliest folly to hope for civil peace. On Wednesday night, 10th ult., a crowd of Orangemen, led by fife and drums, disturbed the quiet of Belfast. Three constables came up and took the names of the musicians, and were walking away, when a volley of stones came from the crowd. Accompanied by six others, the constables returned and took thirteen men into custody. Stones were thrown and swords were drawn while the arrests were being made, but no personal injury of a serious kind are noted in the report. The fact is plain, though the mention of the riot is not so many, that the administrators of the law are among the most prominent agents of these remaining Orange nuisances.

Lecture of Mr. Butt, Q. C.—On Tuesday evening, 15th ult., Mr. Butt, Q. C., delivered a highly interesting lecture on "The Early History of the Republic of Venice" in the lecture-room of the Catholic University. The Very Rev. Mr. Woodlock, rector, presided. The room was completely filled, and many more than were fortunate enough to obtain admission were compelled to go away.

At the Cork Municipal Council meeting, on Monday, 14th ult., a letter was read from Mr. Maguire, M. P., resigning his seat in that assembly. No doubt the more serious duties of his Parliamentary position leave Mr. Maguire scant time for attention to civil affairs; and he may well claim some exemption now after nearly a quarter of a century of public life, which can never be forgotten by the citizens of Cork. He has written his name indelibly on the civic annals of the Southern capital, and the Municipality may well mourn his retirement as the loss of their most active, useful and distinguished member. In his civic career he was pre-eminently a man of work.

The Remonstrant Synod of Ulster, before concluding its annual deliberations, recently, passed a resolution stating that, while strongly objecting to some of the clauses of Mr. Chisholm's bill, they approved of the principles of religious equality, and believe it to be the only measure practicable in the present state of public opinion to abate sectarian animosity.

RUSSIA AND THE GENERAL COUNCIL.—I must not conceal from you that they look especially to the Bishops of England and Germany as more familiar with the prejudices of the heterodox to secure a victory in the future Council to the idea of ecclesiastical decentralization. You must keep in mind that I am only an echo. It must be remembered, they say, that there is no hope of bringing back the Orientals to unity, unless the Council carries out to a certain extent the principle of decentralization. It is a delicate question, but one may always give an account of the state of opinion among the schismatics without pronouncing any one's self. By insisting on their own opinions, and excluding the schismatics from children who need the greatest care, by calling attention to those seventy millions of souls exposed to the greatest dangers, unless a helping hand is extended to make them see the indispensable necessity of communion with the Holy See, and the toleration with which the Holy See would regard secondary matters, much may be done to advance the cause. It would not do to propose submission to the Russian Church without some concessions to make them see that union would be desirable and advantageous; and I only say this from the deepest and most intense desire that this union may be accomplished. Numbers really desire it, although the newspapers would lead you to think so. It is just published, to be the only measure practicable in the present state of public opinion to abate sectarian animosity.

There are eight of PAGE & CO'S ROOFS at the New Orleans Gas Works, and all perfect. These, set up three years ago are apparently intact. During the late severe storm, when the best of slate roofs failed to keep out the water, the slate roofs could be found in the roof reserved by Page & Co. During the last three years, employees of these works have had some twenty of these Page & Co's Roofs, and, without exception, all have stood as high as the roof, and, in fact, with this roofing has been so perfectly satisfactory, that I am convinced that no one has only to give them a trial to become satisfied of their merits. WM. McCULLOCH, Manager.

I fully concur in the above, and recommend Messrs. Page & Co. to persons desiring work in their line. The Gas Light Company has had extensive dealings with this firm, and has found them prompt and reliable. (262 1/2) N. G. J. ELDON, Gen'l Supr.

YOUNG LADIES' ACADEMY, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE URSULINES, TWO MILES BELOW NEW ORLEANS.

This Institution, which the inhabitants of Louisiana and adjacent States have kindly favored with their patronage, is the only one of the kind in the South, and is recommended to be introduced to public notice; it will therefore suffice to give an outline of the plan of education pursued by the Ursulines of this Establishment.

MORAL EDUCATION.—The object constantly kept in view is the forming of the young ladies' minds with knowledge and the forming of their hearts to virtue. The young ladies are also accustomed to habits of order, cleanliness and polite manners. They are required to go to bed at a regular hour, and to maintain a watchful but maternal superintendence, whose vigilance secures the preservation of morals and the willing observance of the rules. The members of this Community are exclusively Catholics, pupils of all denominations are admitted, and no interference is used upon the score of religion; but for the sake of order, all are equal, and required to assist with propriety at the exercise Divine worship.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION.—The health of the scholar is an object of uninterrupted solicitude for the Ladies; they are peculiarly attentive to the food given to the pupils, and to the exercise to be given, such as is wholesome, although abundant. The hours of relaxation are so distributed throughout the day, that neither the mind nor the body of the students suffer from their application to classical studies.

When sick they are attended by one of the Ladies, and timely notice is given to their parents or guardians if the distance from the school to the physician is always on hand, and immediately called for.

TUITION.—The system of instruction embraces the French and English Languages, Latin, Reading, Writing, French and English Grammar, Arithmetic, Ancient and Modern Geography, the use of the Globes, French and English Compositions, History, French and English Literature, Mythology, Rhetoric, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Astronomy, Botany, Book keeping, in every branch, in French, Spanish, Plain and Ornamental Needle-work, Tapestry, Embroidery, Artificial Flowers, etc. The course of the annual course, above the end of July, the distribution of premiums takes place. Letters of invitation are sent to the parents, guardians and relatives of the pupils, and to the friends of the Institution, who alone are permitted to attend. Studies are resumed on the first of October. Candidates for quarterly prizes are made, every extra charge, unless in case of illness, or the expulsion of the pupil. Pupils are received at any time during the year, and the charge is estimated from the date of entrance. Board and Washing during vacation..... $48 00

Particular attention is paid to Music. TERMS: Board and Tuition per annum $300, payable quarterly. Day Scholars, per annum $150, payable quarterly. Entrance for the Boarders, in advance..... 38 00 Entrance for the Day Scholars..... 2 00 No deduction is made for those who are withdrawn before the expiration of the term.

EXTRA CHARGES: Stationery and the Use of Maps and Globes per quarter..... 2 00 Music, per month..... 12 00 For the Use of Musical Instruments, per month..... 3 00 Drawing, including paper and pencils, per month..... 5 00 Washing for the bathing season..... 4 00 Books necessary for the different classes may be furnished by the parents themselves, or procured at the Establishment at moderate prices.

There is a yearly vacation, which commences the last day of September, and lasts 20 days. Young Ladies wishing to make their first communion in the Establishment must enter in November. (262 1/2)

EDUCATIONAL.

YOUNG LADIES' ACADEMY, OF THE HOLY ANGELS. Under the Direction of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, Corner of Rampart and Congress streets, Third District, NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA.

Prospectus.—This magnificent Institution is situated in a quiet and healthy locality, on the suburbs of the city, and at a short distance from the river. The very commodious, thoroughly ventilated, and affords all the advantages which contribute to the health and security of its pupils.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: The aim of the Institution being to fit young ladies, by a course of instruction, intellectual, moral, and religious, for the duties of life, in social life, care is taken to select for this purpose the most efficient teachers. The most unremitting pains are also taken to secure the preservation of morals by a vigilant but maternal superintendence, leaving no room for those murmurs and discontents so natural to youth. The hours of relaxation are so distributed that neither mind nor body should suffer from too continued an application to study. In sickness, they are constantly attended by one of the Sisters, and when necessary the Physician is in immediate attendance. When possible, timely notice is given to parents and guardians.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION: To secure and preserve the health of the pupils, the Sisters pay particular attention to the quality of the diet, assuring themselves that it is both wholesome and nutritious. This abundance leaves no room for those murmurs and discontents so natural to youth.
