

MISCELLANEOUS IRISH NEWS.

At a meeting of the Dublin Corporation the other day, the Hon. Mr. Verelst declared that no matter what tenant right bill might be passed, Ireland would fail to reap the prosperity she desired, whilst the absentee landlords swept from £10,000,000 to £20,000,000 a year of the country, a penny of which never returned.

Orange Rowdiness.—Lurgan, Sept. 27.—A number of Orangemen were returned for trial at Portadown Petty Sessions this day, and large bodies of the brotherhood from the surrounding districts assembled in that town with fife and drums, and kept up such a din and clamor outside the courthouse door that the court had to adjourn, and the cases to be heard were necessarily postponed. They then proceeded to the further end of the town, and, as if disappointed in their first attempt to provoke the Catholics, they marched back again into their quarter drumming and singing, and apparently determined by their insolent conduct and bearing to force the Catholics into conflict with them, and when the police interfered to prevent their further attempt to get up a riot, they turned on them and pelted them with stones in a most unmerciful manner, considering the paucity of their number and the overwhelming force of Orangemen who attacked them. The police were not more than about several hundred. Several of the people were severely hurt, but fortunately none of them dangerously.

The Murder of Mr. Hunter.—Castlebar, Sept. 23.—A. R. Stritch, Esq., B. M., attended at the jail for the purpose of ordering the discharge of the four men who were arrested about a fortnight ago, on suspicion of being connected in the murder of Mr. Hunter, of Newfield, near Newport, when the following four men, Michael Kane, Sen., Michael Kane, Jun., Thos. Gamon, and John Grady were ordered to be discharged, there being no proof to sustain the charge preferred against them.

The Galway Special Commission.—The special commission for the County Galway was opened on Sept. 27th by the Right Hon. the Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench and the Right Hon. Mr. Justice Keogh, of the three or four cases that are to be disposed of during the commission, that of Peter Barrett, who is charged with shooting at Capt. Thos. Lambert, is the most important.

Serious Outrage in Galway.—Galway, Sept. 24.—The dissatisfaction felt here by a not inconsiderable portion of the people when they found that Barrett was not acquitted, was expressed in a rather violent manner immediately after the adjournment of the special commission. The court house remained crowded up to the time the jury were discharged, so anxious were all classes to ascertain, at the earliest moment, the result of an inquiry which has been designated a State trial. But outside the court an immense crowd of the people of humbler class, and of the most impatient temper, gathered in front of the court house, and it was understood to have stood out for a conviction, was assailed by a mob on his way home from court. He took refuge in the barracks, and one of the stones thrown at him struck the sentry. The judges, on leaving the court in their carriage for their lodgings, were assailed with stinging abuse, and the rioters were thrown, and one of the carriage windows broken.

Death of Captain John Wolfe Flanagan.—We deeply regret having to announce the death of Captain John Wolfe Flanagan, J. P., D. L., which took place on Tuesday at his residence Drumroe, near Boyle, after an illness of several weeks' duration. Captain Wolfe Flanagan was a grand juror of the counties of Roscommon and Sligo, of which latter county he had also been high sheriff.

The Land Question.—Cashel, Sept. 27.—On yesterday a monster demonstration of the tenant farmers of this division of the county Tipperary was held at Marshallow, within about three miles of here. The weather was fine and the attendance of the owners and occupiers of land was much larger than was expected. A large and influential meeting was held, and a flag floated over it with the words, "Hurrah for tenant rights!"

Death of R. D'Arcy, Esq., J. P., D. L.—We sincerely regret to have to record the death of Richard D'Arcy, Esq., J. P., D. L., of Newforest, in this county, which sad event took place after a brief illness in fever, on Thursday last, the 23rd ult.

Great Meeting at Inchicore.—The demonstration which took place on Sunday at Inchicore, in honor of the late Rev. Fr. O'Connell, has been favored with the presence of people, not inferior to any of the immense gatherings which in Cork, Tipperary, Limerick, Kilkenny, Drogheda, Dundalk, Longford, Wicklow, and other counties expressed, the wish of the country that those who have for years endured all the horrors of English prisons should be restored to their homes and to their families. At 2 o'clock on Sunday it would have been out of all calculation, owing to the threatening character of the weather, that within a few hours later so immense a multitude would have assembled within the vicinity of the place of meeting. Those who at the Bank of Ireland College-green, and at the other principal places of the city to go for Inchicore were favored with a heavy shower on their way, and it was thought very probable that no open air demonstration could take place under such unimproving circumstances. Yet the clouds cleared off, the sun shone brilliantly, the people gathered in many thousands from all quarters, the various bands of music, the military bands, followed by their respective trade bodies, within a wonderfully short time not less than 30,000 people had congregated within the neighborhood of Inchicore.

Great Meeting in Tipperary.—Tipperary, Sept. 29.—A large and influential meeting was held here to-day for the purpose of discussing the question of the fixity of tenure in Ireland, and of adopting the rules, address, etc., of the tenants' leagues. The popular nature of the proceedings, and the announcement that the Very Rev. Dean O'Brien and Mr. Butt, Q. C., would address the meeting, combined to bring together over ten thousand of the tenant farmers of this and the adjoining counties, who congregated in the Market-place. As a display of feeling, nothing could be more satisfactory than the meeting generally, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

Cardinal Cullen has proceeded to Johnstown Castle on a visit to the Earl of Granard. At Enniscorthy and Wexford his eminence was received with the greatest honors, and on his way to an address at Wexford, His Eminence touched upon the land question. He said by remaining united, by so moderating their demands, that founded on justice, and not interfering with the legitimate rights of any class, they may tend to the well-being of the State, and may be assured that the day is not far distant when the industrious tenant may enjoy in undisturbed tranquility the honest earnings of his labor, and the Catholic parent have the means of educating his children according to the teaching of his own Church, without sending them to model schools or Queen's Colleges, and exposing them to the dangers of imbibing pernicious doctrines.

A numerously attended meeting was held in Kanturk on the 20th ult. The venerable Archbishop of Dublin, who presided, and in which was resolved, "That an open-air monster meeting, to represent the barony of Duballow, be held in Kanturk on the 10th of October, to discuss 'The question of tenant right.'"

Dingle, Sept. 27.—The Lord Bishop of Kerry has appointed the Rev. Michael O'Sullivan, CO.,

YOUNG LADIES' ACADEMY.

Under THE DIRECTION OF THE URSULINES, Two Miles below New Orleans. This Institution, which the inhabitants of Louisiana and the adjacent States have kindly favored with their patronage for more than a century, has the honor to be introduced to public notice, it will therefore suffice to give an outline of the plan of instruction pursued by the Ursulines of this Establishment.

Moral Education.—The object constantly kept in view by the Ladies in the adorning of their pupils' minds with knowledge and the forming of their characters is to give them a habit of order, neatness, and politeness. They are never suffered to go beyond the reach of a watchful and maternal superintendence, whose vigilance secures the preservation of morals and the willing observance of the rules. Though the members of this community are exclusively Catholics, pupils of all denominations are admitted, and no interference is used upon the score of religion, but for the sake of order all are required to assist with propriety at the exercises of Divine Worship.

Physical Education.—The health of the scholars is an object of unintermitted solicitude for the Ladies; they are particularly attentive to the food given to the pupils, and are careful that none be given but such as is wholesome and nutritious. The hours of relaxation are so distributed throughout the day, that neither the mind nor the body of the students suffers from their application to their studies. When sick, they are attended by one of the Ladies, and timely notice is given to their parents or guardians, when the distance allows of it, a physician is always on hand and immediately called.

Tuition.—The system of instruction embraces the following objects: The English and French languages, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, Use of the Globes, History (ancient and modern), Mythology, Chronology, English and French literature, the Elements of Astronomy, Plain and Fancy Needle work, the Elements of Natural Philosophy, of Botany and Chemistry will be taught to those young ladies whose parents desire it; as also Music and Drawing.

ACADEMY OF THE VISITATION.

The Thirty-seventh Session of this Institution closed successfully on the 31st of July, and will reopen according to Prospectus on the 12th of September. During the past Session competent and experienced teachers have been obtained from France and Germany for the Music, Drawing and French Departments. The location of the institution is proverbial for healthfulness; no epidemic has ever entered its precincts, and serious diseases are seldom known. Large additions are about to be made for the advantage and comfort of the pupils: a fine Observatory and Music Hall are among the improvements, also a large addition to the grounds, and a large hall will be added in the summer season. The grounds surrounding the Academy are extensive and shady—the pupils can ramble over an area of sixty acres in their evening walks, which are permitted frequently, for health and exercise.

Board and Tuition in English, French, Washing and Mending, and ordinary Doctor's Fee, per Session of Five Months, $125 00 Entrance Fee for the first year only, 10 00 Medicines and Stationery at cost. Bedding, Fuel and Lights furnished by the Institution. Music on the Harp, with use of instrument, $40 00 Piano—three lessons per week, 35 00 Vocal Music, 40 00 Drawing and Painting—all kinds, 25 00 Latin, Italian and German Languages, each, 15 00 Embroidery, Tapestry, German and English needlework, 10 00 Plain Needlework, gratis. N. B.—Terms have been reduced to render the above advantages available. $11 2 1/2

SAINT VINCENT'S COLLEGE, CAPE GIRARDEAU, MISSOURI. This institution, conducted by the Priests of the Congregation of the Mission of St. Vincent of Paul, is located on the banks of the Mississippi, forty miles above Cairo, and one hundred and fifty miles below St. Louis.
