Morning Star and Catholic Messenger. NEW ORLEANS, SUNDAY, JUNE 3, 1877.

LETTER FROM OUR TRAVELING AGENT.

JACKSON, MISS., May 30, 1877. The duties of traveling agent, which I had supposed, owing to the depression of business and scarcity of money, would have been very arduous, have, in my recent trip from New O leans to this city, proved a pleasure, owing to the co-operation and assistance which I rem subscribers and on account of the opinion entertained of the STAR, as one of the leading family Catholic papers in the United States The first place I called at, after leaving New Orleans, was Chatawa, which is ninety-two miles from the city. It is one of the healthiest ations on the road, offering advantages to health-seekers which cannot be surpassed in any part of the State. The air is cool and bracing, so much so as to make blankets feel comfortable at night. A variety of cool springs, some of which have medicinal properties, abound, and there is good fishing, boating and bathing. Some remarkable ourse have been effected by a month's residence here, especially in long compleints. Board can be had on rea sonable terms by applying to Mrs Turner, who is now receiving a few guests as boarders at her house, where can be had all the comforts of a home with the luxuries that the city and country afford. The Redemptorist Fathers have a fine building here, which is called St. Theresa's Retreat. where a number of young men are being edu-cated for the priesthood. Adjoining this building is St. Theresa's Church, a large and handsome building, which would be an ornament to any large city. The walls of the church are with some fine old paintings, and the altar is dressed every morning by ladies with a variety of fresh flowers. Three masses are offered up here every morning. Quite near the church is located the Sisters' Academy. where a large number of young ladies are being educated, terms for board and tuition very reasonable. I am indebted to Mr J. Balfe for courteous and polite attentions shown to me here. I next visited McComb City, where the railroad machine and car shops give employment to a large number of persons. Everything and every one here presented a healthy, lively cheerful appearance. The Catholics, of whom a large number are residing here, live in as much harmony and are as united as one family, giving freely to every charity that has appealed to them. Father Neithart, of your city, is re-membered by all with affectionate gratitude. The new church, of which he is one of the founders, is nearly completed. It will present a fine appearance when finished. To assist in completing the building an acre lot in one of the most eligible locations in the city will post tively be raffled on the 21 of July. Persons in the city desirons of a chance of securing a good lot can do so by sending one dollar to Mr. Geo.

At Brookhaven I received a great deal of courteous attention. To Mr. T. McGrath, a prominent young lawyer, I am indebted for any favors. The Catholics here can boast of a very fine church and choir. Father Dutto is the resident olergyman, and is very much be loved by his congregation. Business is not very bright at present, but the merchants anti-cipate a good fall trade, as the indications point to having a good crop.

Will report Jackson to you in my next. JOHN M. TOUBEY.

(Communicated) TAKING THE VEIL -A notice of one of the most beautiful and impressive ceremonies of our church, viz, reception into religious lifeis always interesting to Catholics. Therefore we call the attention of our readers to the profession of a young lady in Little Rock, Ark. Sunday, April 22ad, 1877. This announcement will more particularly interest the people of this city, when we write that the young lady, Miss Margaret Slattery, was educated in New Orleans, where she won the love and esteem of a large circle of friends and acquaintances. At the early age of fourteen she graduated in the Normal School, and thence returned to Little Rock, her native city, where she assumed the arduous task of an educator. For eight years she taught in the public schools—two years of which she was principal of the Peabody School. It must have been a most edifying sight to witness the ceremonies of her reception. Beautiful in person, mind and heart, Miss Slattery is a lady to impress every be In religion she is known as Sister Mary Paulo. Wearing the babit of the Sister of Mercy, and discharging the duties of that order, she will conclusively prove to the world that she "has chosen the better part."

NEW AND RAPID SYSTEM OF TANNING HIDES We have seen samples of leather of deer, sheep and calf skin, tanned in from twenty to seventy. two hours by Holleman's system. Though not competent curselves to pass judgment, we have the unqualified endorsement of representative leather dealers, boot and shoe manufacturers and harness makers of this and other cities, as to the superior excellence of this leather. As promising to aid, to some extent at least, in bringing back the departed prosperity of this city, we commend the new system to the attention of our capitalists and others interested. With comparatively little capital a tannery could be started here which would give employment to a number of persons and would keep among us in circulation ge sums of money now sent to the North. Mr. Lewis V. Reed, the gentleman now here rating the value and practicability of the new system, will be pleased to receive Gentlem calls, from all who desire to see the work in Ev order progress, at No. 9 Front street, between Customhouse and Crossman streets. The demonstra-tions will be made daily for the next three weeks between the hours of 7 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Capt. Bart Able, the great steamboatman and one of the leading citizens of St. Louis, shortly before his death, was received into the Church by Father Meredith, C.SS.R.

THE CRIMINAL WASTE OF MEAT ON THE PLAINS OF TEXAS.—Fort Cancho is situated on the brow of a plateau, just above the junction of the middle, or main Concho and the North Concho rivers. The post commands an extensive view of the country, and at a distance it presents the appearance of a ministure city. Within a few bundred yards of the post, on the opposite side of the North Concho, is the village of San Argela.

Besides the trade from the post, much of opposite side of the North Concie, is the village of San Angela.

Besides the trade from the post, much of which is done by the merchants of San Angela, here is headquarters for the army of bufalo hunters during the winter months, and acres of ground are covered, even up to this time, with buffalo hides, some in piles like large hay stacks, while great numbers are spread out to dry, preparatory to being shipped to San Antonio. It is estimated that over one thousand men were engaged last winter in killing buffalo for their hides in Tom Green county alone, and that at least 50,000 buffalo hides have been shipped during the winter and spring from Fort Griffin. Two hundred thousand is probably an under estimate of the number of buffalo destroyed annually in Texas, only for their hides. The fiesh of these antimate, which is superior to beed, and which is thus left to rot or to feed the wolves and buzzards, could it have been availed of, would have farnished an ample supply of food to the starving poor of our cities during the past winter.—Galceston

Texas. of this road is essential to the commercial existent of this city. We have tried voluntary subscription and have succeeded up to date in securing over $300 000-with which we have graded about fif y five miles-work acknowledged by competent judges to be well worth one-half a million of dollars. In view o the failure to persuade the people to tax thems we must promptly raise by private subscription a sum sufficient to carry forward the work at once, o seriously delay its ultimate completion. No one familiar with the immense resources of the country in Texas and Arkansas to be tapped by this road car Soubt that its construction in the early future is certainty; the only open question is whether it shall be controlled by the people of this city and State, o by strangers. The solution of this question turns entirely upon the liberality which shall be shown by our own citizens. Let it be understood that this Direction propose under no circumstances to abanden the work they have undertaken until the people shall absolutely sbandon them

We will not allow ourselves to doubt the success of this appeal, and therefore confidently make it with a full r. liance upon the enterprise of our fellow citizens
