

Morning Star and Catholic Messenger. NEW ORLEANS, SUNDAY, JANUARY 5 1879. LOCAL NOTES.

The Democrat was last Tuesday re-elected official journal of the city of New Orleans. In our advertising columns Mr. John G. Deveraux, the popular cashier of the Hibernal Bank, announces a dividend of 4 per cent. Among the deaths recorded last week were those of Samuel E. Moore, for years a leading dealer in crockery, and Arthur Farge, secretary of the Police Board.

Captain B. Galvin, commanding 2d Precinct, was last Wednesday evening presented with a splendid stem-winding gold watch by the men under his command.

In the raffia for the handsome piano and writing desk for the benefit of the Dominican Convent, which took place last Wednesday, No. 6 went the piano and No. 19 the writing desk.

Next Sunday evening, January 12th, at 7 o'clock, Rev. J. Moynihan, Jr. will preach a Charity Sermon in the Church of St. John the Baptist for the benefit of the poor of the parish.

Wednesday night, the two-story frame building corner Rampart and Felicite, owned and occupied by Mrs. A. M. Jenkins, was destroyed by fire. The two adjoining buildings, occupied by Mrs. Mendez and Mr. Meunier, were partially burned.

The Budget of Expenditures for 1879 will probably be adopted at the next meeting of the Council. As presented last Tuesday, it reduces the appropriation for Schools from $225,000 to $200,000, and for Police from $325,000 to $350,000.

In a letter to the New York Times, Mr. Southmayd, Secretary of the Howard Association, says that $350,000 were received by the organization during the epidemic. The report of the Association is now in the hands of the printers and will be ready for distribution shortly.

In the Third District Court, the city has sued ten of our leading banks for license tax at the rate of $1000 a year. The banks hold that the tax is illegal, and will carry the case to the United States Supreme Court if the decision is against them.

On New Year's night our whole-souled friend Robert Bell, Esq., Foreman of Lafayette Hook and Ladder Fire Co. No. 1, was presented by the members of his company with a magnificent gold fire badge as a testimonial of their appreciation of his activity and promptitude in not missing a single fire, day or night, during the whole year 1878.

On New Year's day, W. A. Langley, aged 30, residing at 181 Customhouse street, and Eugene Montford, aged 28 years, residing at the corner of Thalia and Magnolia streets, committed suicide. A few days before Mr. A. Elmer Bader, a well-known cotton broker and for years Austrian Consul at this place, committed suicide by drowning himself in the river.

Last Tuesday the City Council adopted the following: Resolved, That the Administrator of Finance be and is hereby authorized to receive from prompt payers of licenses for 1879 the following, viz: For the month of January, 1879, 10 per cent in city liabilities of 1876, '77 and '78, 30 per cent in cash. For the month of February, 1879, 5 per cent in city liabilities of 1876, '77 and '78, 95 per cent in cash.

That Messrs. Moffatt and Johnson, U. S. inspectors of steam vessels, were in earnest when they last week notified engineers that the penalties provided by statute for intoxication would be stringently enforced, is proved by the fact that they have already suspended second assistant engineer who was found drunk while on duty.

Last Monday the Funding Board adopted the following: Resolved, That the Governor of the State of Louisiana be directed and requested to publish the following notice: "In view of the fact that under existing laws tax collectors are not allowed upon to settle their accounts with the State until the 20th of January, 1879, and, as result of this fact, only the small amount of $494 77 is now to the credit of the interest fund of 1878; therefore notice is hereby given to holders of State bonds and coupons on January 1, 1879, that this important subject will be submitted to the legislature for action and remedy immediately upon its assembling.

St. George's Y. M. B. Association.—Next Tuesday evening, Jan. 7th, 1879, in St. Mary's hall, this Association will give a grand amateur and musical entertainment for the benefit of its relief fund and of St. Joseph's orphan Asylum. The objects to which the proceeds will be devoted are sufficiently meritorious to ensure a very large attendance. Independent thereof, the programme, consisting of plays and tableaux, is attractive enough to draw every one able to do so to purchase a ticket of admittance. An outlay of fifty cents will be amply compensated.

On Sunday, December 22d, at 3 o'clock p. m. His Grace, the Most Rev. Archbishop, administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to fifty children and three adults at the Church of St. Andrew (German), Rev. Jos. Koegerl, pastor. There were present on the occasion Mgr. Min, Rev. Fathers Hoste, Thevis and Aitor, and a large congregation, who were addressed in English by His Grace, the Most Rev. Archbishop. The ceremonies were closed with recitation of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

On Sunday, 29th of December, His Grace administered thirty-two persons in St. Joseph's church, Gretna, of which Rev. Father Fraering pastor.

The mortuary report for the week ending Sunday, December 29th, shows the total number of interments to have been 97; whites colored 29—41 were natives of Louisiana.

France 4. Twenty-seven were between 60 and 80 years of age, and 4 between 80 and 100. There was only one death from fever (malaria), 13 deaths from consumption, 2 from diphtheria, 3 from apoplexy, 5 from heart disease, 7 from pneumonia, 5 from debility, etc. With the exception of a few cases of diphtheria there are no cases of any infectious disease in the city, nor any contagious disease.

The Government has done a handsome thing by the poor widows and orphans who lost their protectors when the dredge boat McAlister was lost a year ago. The amounts distributed were as follows:

Table listing names and amounts: Emma Swift $1500, Margaret Warren 1500, Job and Cash Beaver 723, Margaret Hepp 134, Eliza Collins 1300, Emily Brooks 960, Elizabeth Gish 680, Mary Ann Groussin 600, Mary Kennedy 600, Emma Carline 480, H. C. Brooks and wife 400, Julia Rogette 600, Eliza Pongis 360, Sarah E. Weston 400, Mary A. Burke 400.

CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST. On Sunday last it was officially announced in this church that the parish debt had been brought to such a state of settlement as resulted in the removal of any further embarrassment, and was almost tantamount to ultimate cancellation. The payment of upwards of eighty-seven thousand dollars previously made had reduced the amount of the church's indebtedness to thirty thousand dollars. The Pastor, Rev. Thos. J. Kenny, has concluded an arrangement by which he is given fifteen years' time for the payment of this sum at the largely reduced rate of seven per cent interest.

When it is considered that in little better than a four years' occupancy of their present positions, the Clergy of St. John's have paid more than forty thousand dollars from the revenues of the church itself, the inference is self-evident that in the course of fifteen years there may be expected from the same source enough to satisfy what yet remains to be settled on this claim.

The Rev. Pastor and his zealous assistant, Father Foots, are eminently deserving of the people's gratitude, and the people of the parish themselves are to be felicitated upon this fortunate ending of their financial difficulties.

DURABLE DENTISTRY. Dr. J. H. MALONEY, corner of Josephine and Camp streets, near Magazine Market, respectfully informs his patients and the public in general that he is performing all operations pertaining to his profession in the most scientific manner. Artificial teeth inserted, with or without extracting the roots, on a new plan. Old sets of teeth remodeled, and a perfect adaptation secured. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of gas or chloroform. Charges within the reach of all. Jan 2 to 1879.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC ORPHAN BOYS' ASYLUM, (THIRD DISTRICT). NEW ORLEANS, December 18, 1878. The gloomy days of winter have already come. For the poor and the orphan, this season is always accompanied with its dismal attendants: cold, want, privation and destitution. In St. Mary's Catholic Orphan Boys' Asylum, the average number of children yearly sheltered, fed, clothed and educated is THREE HUNDRED. Last summer's epidemic has largely increased that number, and many whose ages vary from first infancy to twelve years flock to the hospitable roof of that charitable institution. They come from all quarters. Who will provide for them? The Administrators of the Asylum spare no effort to minister unto the necessities of its parentless inmates; but, alas! means are often unequal to the different task. The State Legislature has not, for many years, granted any allowance for the support of charitable establishments; the financial condition of the City prevents her from affording much help or assistance, and the generous people of New Orleans, always so charitable, have been stricken by poverty. Mean while, the poor Orphan Boys have to depend for food, clothing, fuel, etc., mostly on public charity.

We make an appeal to your hearts, in behalf of those who have no father to work for them, no mother to care for them, no relations, and hardly a few friends to take care of them. What you give to the Orphans is lent to our Heavenly Father; Providence will refund it to you a hundred fold. Any gift will prove acceptable, whether MONEY, RICE, POTATOES, FLOUR, SUGAR, VEGETABLES, PROVISIONS OF ANY KIND, CLOTHING, BEDDING, WOOD, COAL, COTTON, MOSS,—in a word, any thing which can save the poor and helpless little ones from hunger and cold.

Any article consigned to the Priest of your parish, Messrs. R. Carey & Co., Postoffice Box 1178, or Warehouse, corner Bienville and Front streets, or to the undersigned Treasurer, will be gratefully received. The innocent prayers of the grateful Orphan Children, as well as the fervent applications of the pious and devoted Sisters Marianites, who have charge over them, cannot fail to obtain for you the choicest favors of Jesus, Mary, Joseph. Any gift will prove acceptable. Very respectfully,

THOS. LAYTON, Chairman. E. BERMUDEZ, M. E. GARVEY, G. SPORL, T. W. COLLINS, C. E. GIRARDAY, Committee.

All communications should be addressed to the undersigned, Treasurer, Postoffice Box No. 1178, who will promptly answer the same. VICTOR SERE

THE LOQUET-LEROY INSTITUTE, FOR YOUNG LADIES. The seventh scholastic year of this well-known Institute and the second of the Kindergarten, will open January 1st, 1879, under the control of the Misses Moore and Mrs. Baum, Daughters of the late Judge K. Warren Moore, and successors of Mrs. Loquet-Leroy, whose good will and right to conduct the School never have been purchased. No charge will be made in the management of the School. Special attention will be given to the tuition of the "Christian Doctrine" and to preparing children for their First Communion. A Priest designated by the Most Rev. Archbishop will give the necessary instruction. These ladies solicit a cordial patronage for their Institute, heretofore so liberally extended to the Institution, promoting strict devotion to every interest of their pupils. G. W. MOISE, Principal.

Referring to the above, Madame LOQUET-LEROY announces to her friends and former persons the entire confidence she has in her success in every way suited to the high trust they have assumed. She speaks for them a continuance of the patronage so liberally accorded her, and she trusts that she will be able to give satisfaction to all who patronize the Institute. Forfeited and forfeited.
