

Morning Star and Catholic Messenger. NEW ORLEANS, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2 1879. LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. Albert Zerega was waylaid on Magazine near Poydras street, robbed of his watch and severely beaten on the head.

The ladies who are to assist at St. Michael's Fair are requested to meet at the parochial residence, at 10 o'clock next Monday morning, for the purpose of completing arrangements.

The Secretary of the School Board authorizes the statement that to-day, Saturday, February 1st, the teachers will be paid their September salaries, and that next Saturday, February 8th, they will get their salaries for January.

The last two Sunday evenings, 15th and 26th of January, St. George's Association gave excellent performances in Gretna, for the benefit of the Church in that village.

During the week ending Sunday last, January 25th, there were, in this city, 128 deaths, 129 births and 34 marriages. Of the deceased 71 were males and 57 females; 61 were natives of Louisiana, 19 of other States and 48 foreigners.

Official figures show that the exports from this port, during November, amounted to $5,777,032, of which Russia is credited with $3,080,244; England ranking second with $1,694,903 and France third, having received $910,179.

The Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church last Thursday elected Bishop J. H. Wingfield, of California, to succeed Bishop Wilmer, deceased, as Bishop of the Diocese of Louisiana.

Mr. P. P. Carroll proposes to tramp from this city to Albany, New York, carrying a United States flag bearing the names of Generals McClellan and Hampton, as his candidates for President and Vice President.

To-night and to-morrow night are the last occasions on which people can attend the Festival for the benefit of St. Francis Church.

Last Sunday the draymen of this city met and organized an association to be known as the Draymen's Benevolent and Protective Association.

Michael Egan tramped here from St. Louis in search of work. He had $120 in cash, but did not wish to spend it in extravagant living.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH. Editor Morning Star: I will regard it as a great favor, if you kindly insert these few lines in your very useful and interesting STAR.

formed their parts well, we were told, by critics who were present, that Messrs. Pfister and Holzenthal and Mr. V. F. specially distinguished themselves. Master Frank, the boy wonder, fairly took one's breath away by his daring feats on the flying trapeze, and Rinaldo, the great contortionist, proved himself an indiarubber man by putting himself inside a box only 17 by 32 inches, and doing other feats that have to be seen to be believed.

In justice to one of the most zealous and liberal Catholics of this city, we feel called upon to state that the beautiful scenery, which was so much admired on the occasion, was painted by Mr. Philip Antoni.

On the 21st of February St. Joseph's Association will give an entertainment in St. Alphonsus Hall for the benefit of St. Alphonsus Aylum. The Black Diamonds and Killharmonics will assist.

APPENDIX. In addition to the regular work of the Society, as enumerated above, we were enabled to aid many distressed families during the epidemic of the past summer, by visiting the sick and providing for many of the wants of the poor.

We were thus enabled to obtain relief for the following: Families relieved from "Peabody's" 94 Families relieved from "Orleans Relief" 27

Our Society is also under obligations to the New Orleans Gas Company and its generous officers for a donation of one hundred and fifty barrels of coke for the poor under our immediate care, which, with the clothing above mentioned, has tended to greatly alleviate the sufferings of the beneficiaries during the severe cold of the present winter.

Donations of money were received from the Catholic Relief Association and from Hon. J. Pierrepont Morgan, of New York, much of which was used in the purchase of wearing apparel and bed clothing for the poor, and by which eighty-six families were supplied—underwear, shoes and blankets being the principal articles distributed—at a cost of $303 55; besides which the Society distributed in cash for relief of the fever sufferers, through its members and the Conference of St. Vincent de Paul, $526 50.

The total number of families relieved by this means was over two hundred, and relief was continued to them for six weeks consecutively; all the families being visited regularly at their homes, where their wants were fully ascertained before relief in money or clothing was granted them.

Looking back over our year's work, we cannot but feel thankful to Almighty God for being made the instruments in His hands in alleviating some of the distress and suffering visited upon our community during the past year. The result should serve to stimulate our members to even greater efforts in the future.

The Liverpool Catholic Times, of January 19th, announces the serious illness of the great Dominican, Father Thos. Burke. It says that one of the Fathers at the Dominican House, Dublin, writes: "There are two doctors attending him, and at present their anticipations are very gloomy."

DAWN ON THE MOON. THE LUNAR WONDERS REVEALED BY THE ADVANCING SUNLIGHT.

Rochester Express. A Rochester journalist who visited Prof. Swift the other evening and had a view of the moon, says: "The telescope with power of thirty-six diameters, was turned upon the moon. At first the flood of light was blinding, and the view was but cursory. The moon looked like a shield of embossed silver—the shield of Achilles—hung by his goddess mother in the azure of the heavens. Professor Swift looked over the field, and noted as he looked many of the interesting points, and suggested that we follow the sunrise on the moon. On the moon the dawn advanced at the rate of ten miles an hour, lighting up new fields and furnishing to him an ever-changing panorama of lunar scenery."
