

Coming Attractions,

The First Will Appear on Monday, January 17.

In "Jolly Old Chums."

Other Old Favorites To Appear Here Later—Broke Into Joseph Chynoweth's House.

The manager of the Opera House has made arrangements with a large number of first-class attractions to be presented in this city during the winter, and in conjunction with the manager of the Armory Opera House at Houghton will endeavor to get all the latest and best companies on the road to pay the copper country a visit.

The first attraction announced is the "Jolly Old Chums," which will be presented in Calumet Monday evening, January 11, 1897. The local management had considerable difficulty in getting this company here, but it is coming with all the big city favorites in the east, John J. Eloise Willard, Murphy, Moore and the Princeton Sisters. Due notice of the date for reserving seats will be given in these columns.

On January 23, Wilson's Kentucky minstrels, an organization noted for its many funny features, will be at the Opera House. This company is an unusually fine minstrel combination.

The Frank Tucker comedy company, which has visited this section for several years, will hold the boards at the Opera House for a week, commencing January 25.

On April 19, the H. Frenz Standard dramatic company will be here. This company comes highly recommended and is sure to prove a first-class attraction.

Besides these, arrangements are pending for several other companies.

Broke Into the House.

While Mr. Joseph Chynoweth and his family were attending church services last evening somebody or bodies broke into their home on Fifth street, evidently for the purpose of robbing it, but so far nothing has been missed about the house and Mr. Chynoweth thinks the would-be thieves were frightened away before they secured any plunder.

When the family came home from church they found the back door of the house knocked in and all the doors leading from the back shed to the front of the house wide open and snow tracks on the carpet in the kitchen. The only door that had not been opened was the one into the store which was locked.

In order to effect an entrance the robbers had knocked in the door to the outside shed, which was held by large staples which were pulled out of place as was also one of the hinges of the door. Marshal Ward thinks it might have been done by a party of drunken fellows looking for a place to sleep.

Tonight! Tonight!

Second number of the Y. M. C. A. course of entertainments, Dr. James Hedley's lecture on "What is a Man Worth?" at the Red Jacket Opera House. Those who enjoyed the privilege of hearing the lecture at Hancock were surely made happier and better. No mere outline could give any idea of the lecture or do justice to the lecturer. He has a fascinating voice and manner, an easy, graceful style of speaking and a humorous way of putting things, which please and convince his audience. The lecture is full of good things, of noble thoughts, cast in poetic and eloquent language, and fairly bubbles over with humor. The most fastidious are held for one hour and a half, listening attentively to the delightfully humorous situations, comparisons and incidents with which it is garnished, and at the close the people will rise from a feast, wishing it were not over.

$50 for One Bottle of Medicine

This is to certify that my wife was for years afflicted with asthma, and was so far gone that several physicians decided that her case must terminate in consumption. I was induced to try a bottle of Dr. Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup. To our great satisfaction it gave almost immediate relief, and two bottles completely cured my wife. She is now well and healthy, but I would not be without the medicine if it cost fifty dollars a bottle. WILLIAM H. FARRIS, Chd. Bd. Td. of Wilton, Monroe Co., Wis.

California Wines From the Italian Swiss Colony.

This wine is pure and has no adulteration with alcoholic substances. It is recommended by physicians to convalescents and to sick people and it is highly praised by connoisseurs for its purity and excellence for table use. It helps digestion, strengthens the system and does not inebriate. Prices very moderate. To convince yourself call at the California wine cellar in Sixth street, Red Jacket, or write for a sample gallon to P. Pera & Co., box 363, Calumet.

Will H. Wagner, who will be remembered as the "Boy Orator," who made himself conspicuous during the last campaign here and addressed a mass meeting at the Light Guard Armory in favor of McKinley and Hobart, has been in town the past few days in the interest of a jewelry firm which he represents. He says he is willing to back up anything he said during his speech and that he has so much business since McKinley was elected that it takes all his time and he has left the lecture platform forever, or until next election. He left this morning for Niagara.

The residence of Mr. Charles Horton at Lake Linden was totally destroyed by fire last Friday morning at 2:30. The fire started from a defective furnace and the whole building was ablaze in a short time. The fire company was not long in getting out and a couple of streams of water were playing on the burning building in a few minutes after their arrival, but the fire had already gained too much headway and was completely beyond control. The house and furniture were insured for $1,500 in the Douglass agency of Houghton.

At the invitation of Supt. Shields, of the H. & C. railroad, Mr. William Jewell, of the New Jewell House, took a trip over the Fulton division of the road one day last week and Mr. Jewell has been praising the railroad boys ever since. This division of the road runs away back in the woods in the vicinity of the Old Cliff. Mr. Jewell had worked in this mine years ago and had not visited the place for a long term of years, so the trip was a real treat to him.

A basket ball team has been organized in Laurium, consisting of the following members: August Kurts, right guard; F. Distel, left guard; J. Carter, center; M. Dooley, right basket; John Curnow, left basket. Team games will be played every Tuesday evening and notice must be given not later than Monday to the general secretary of which teams want to play. From 7 to 9 o'clock will be devoted to practice for the exhibition.

Capt. William Reed, of Blue Jacket, was informed of the death of his aged mother at Hancock yesterday. The deceased was 92 years of age and was well known here as well as at Hancock as she had resided here several years ago. The deceased leaves several grown-up children, grand children and great grand children. The funeral will be held at Hancock Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Badge, who died at her home at Schoolcraft last Friday, was held yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the Calumet M. E. church, the pastor, Rev. James W. Kerridge, officiating. The auditorium of the church was well filled with friends and relatives of the family and the funeral was very largely attended. The remains were laid at rest in Schoolcraft cemetery.
