CUBA IN THE SENATE.

Morgan's Resolutions Come Up in That Body.

MORRILL SPEAKS AGAINST THEM,

Says Their Purpose Is to Wrest Rights from the Executive-The House Refuses to Concur in the Senate Revocation of Cleveland's Forestry Reservation Order -Harris' Bill to Regulate Inter-State Commerce-Other Washington News.

Washington, May 12.-Senator Mantle of Montana introduced two amendments to the wool schedule of the tariff bill Tuesday. He explained that one of these represented the views of the National Wool Growers' association, while the other had been agreed to by a number of senators on the Republican side. The amendments were referred to the finance committee. Gear, chairman of the Pacific railroad committee, said he would not press his motion to proceed with the Pacific railroad bill, but would urge it on Thursday. The Morgan Cuban resolution was taken up as soon as the routine business was out of the way and Morrill spoke in opposition. senator said the purpose of all the Cu-ban resolutions, including that of Morgan, was to wrest from the executive the right he alone hitherto had exerof recognizing the belligerent rights or the independence of nations. Morrill declared that congress had no such power and its exercise would be contrary to all precedents. Belligerent rights of revolters should not have recognition based merely on sympathy, but must be based on justice and law.

The Monroe Doctrine. Morrill then turned his attention to the new and botched version of the Monroe doctrine with all its apocryphal additions by our intrepid jingoists, who sought to make the United States the 'unmasked guardian and the fighting champion of all the American repub-lics, big and little." If this new version was to be an established policy, then it was time to create an army and navy which will eclipse anything that might be brought against them, to pile up taxes to sustain a huge military establishment and to supplement the schoolmaster with the soldier.

Foraker of Ohio, speaking on the Cuban resolution and in favor of its reference to the committee on foreign re-lations Tuesday said that he knew the administration had its policy on this question. Allen asked what the policy of the administration was and Foraker replied that it was to ascertain beyond peradventure the exact situation in Cuba. It had sent its duly authorized and accredited agent there to investigate the whole condition and report.

House Upholds Cleveland. The house Tuesday took up the subject of forest reservations again. Underwood, Democrat of Alabama, spoke briefly and was followed by Ellis, Republican of Oregon, both of whom advocated the restoration of the reservations made by President Cleveland to the people. The house by a vote of 100 to 39 refused to concur in the senate amendments to revoke President Cleveland's order as to forest reserva-

The senate amendment to the sundry civil appropriation for $50,000 to improve Pearl harbor, Hawaii, inspired a strong speech by Hitt, the past and prospective chairman of the foreign affairs committee of the house, who supported the amendment.

INTER-STATE COMMERCE.

Senator Harris Introduces a Bill for Its Regulation.

Washington, May 12 .- Senator Harris of Kansas Tuesday introduced a new bill for the regulation of inter-state commerce, the transformation of the inter-state commerce commission into a court of railway commissioners and the regulation of pooling. The proposed court is to consist of seven members and is to have exclusive jurisdiction of all matters arising under the bill and to have concurrent jurisdiction with other United States courts in all cases of negligence. The jurisdiction conferred is to be criminal as well as civil. The provisions of the bill are made applicable to express and other transportation companies. The court is to sit en banc at Washington and the United States is to be divided into seven districts, each to be presided over by a member of the court. Appeals to the circuit courts of appeals are provided for. The bill prohibits pooling except under the following conditions:

"Every such contract shall be in writing and filed with the court for its ap proval and also a full and complete schedule of the rates and charges together with the classification of all commodities or merchandise which shall be enforced, charged or used in the business of such common carriers, shall be therewith, in like manner, submitted to the court and shall be approved by said court to be just and reasonable, and thereupon such contracts, etc., and such schedules shall become lawful and enforcable between the parties thereto and as to the public, expiration of twenty days from the ap proval thereof, to be entered of record: and it shall be the duty of the said court to make an order of disapproval whenever, upon investigation and consideration, it shall be of the opinion that the operation of any such contract would by reason of its provisions, or want of necessary restrictions and limitations result in unreasonable rates, improper classification, unjust discrimination, insufficient service to the public or otherwise contravene any of the provisions of this act.

HOBART AND THE TARIFF. The Vice President Has No Idea of Hurry-ing Up the Bill. Washington, May 12.-Vice President Hobert will not overstep the senate rules to hasten the passage of the tariff bill. There was a rumor that he would do so. When the rumor was reported to him Tuesday he said:

"The tariff bill will be passed by the senate in orderly procedure. There will be no attempt, so far as I am concerned, to break down the customs and precedents of the senate. I am frank to say that I do not believe that the tariff bill will be passed as soon as I would like it to be, but this will have no influence on my action. I hope, after the tariff bill has passed, that there may be some reform." Have you any idea how long the bill will be before the senate?"

"You can tell that as well as I can. It is quite evident now that it will not be taken up as soon as was anticipated, and the delay has an apparently valid excuse. There will be considerable debate on the general principles of the tariff, for ammunition must be supplied for the fall campaign. There will be more general speechmaking, I think, than most people expect before the details of the bill are taken up."

Judge Day Qualifies.

Washington, May 12,-Judge Day of Ohio Tuesday qualified and assumed his office as assistant secretary of state. The oath of office was administered to him by Disbursing Officer Brannigan. #### Cabinet Meeting.

Washington, May 12.-The cabinet meeting Tuesday lasted an hour and a half but the announcement was made at its conclusion that nothing of importance had been considered. It was decided, among other things, to send one of the new gunboats now building on the Pacific coast, to Sitka, Alaska, immediately upon its completion, about July 1. The great activity in Alaska, growing out of the gold discoveries, has made the president and cabinet deem this step advisable for the safeguarding of American interests.

RECIPROCITY WITH CANADA. Erustus Wiman Speaks at a Banquet in

hall of the Detroit chamber of commerce presented a brilliant scene Monday night when the 250 members sat down at the second annual dinner of that organization. The special guests of the occasion were Eratus Wiman of New York and William Everett of Quincy, Mass., and the topics of all the speakers were along the lines of commercial enterprise and progress. Eratus Wiman responded to the topic "Better Relations with Canada." Among other things he said:

"In the full view on both sides of a border line 4,000 miles long, of a depression unequaled in universality, severity and duration, the government on both sides are intently engaged in building higher than ever the tariff wall. They are thus destroying about the only chance there is of a revival of commerce or an outlet for product and manufactures. That the people of Canada are favorable to the closest relationship to this country is evidenced by the fact that its new government has already shown itself ready to meet overtures by which the two countries can practically be united. Annexation is unnecessary, undesirable and impossible. Canada is today more loyal to Great Britain than ever before. All that is needed now is to have the commercial sentiment of all the great cities express itself in favor of a better relation.

An Accident Which Retards Work on Pike River Drive.

Menominee, Mich., May 12.-News has reached here that two dams on Pike river have been carried out by the high water and log jams and that the drive on that stream will be greatly retarded in consequence. The firm of Ludington. Wells & Van Schalck of this city, which has charge of the log driving, set a crew of men to work to repair one which was partly destroyed and also to rebuild the one which was carried away bodily. The damage is about $6,000. These are very essential to the successful driving of the stream, and the work will be pushed through to completion as soon as possible. # THE TRANSVAAL RAID.

Dukes of Abercorn and Fife Give Testimony.

The Suggestion of Henry Labourhere That Jobbing Purposes Refuted-The Duke of Fife Says the Hon, Cccil Rhodes Deceived Him-Queen's Drawing Room-Ministerial Crisis in Denmark.

London, May 12 .- The parliamentary ommittee appointed to inquire into the Transvaal raid Tuesday continued the examination of the Duke of Abercorn, chairman of the Chartered company of British South Africa. In refuting the suggestion of Mr. Henry Labouchere, one of the members of the committee, that the raid was engineered for stock jobbing purposes, witness said he had neither bought nor sold a single share of the company's stock during the last six months of 1895. The next witness was the Duke of Fife, son-in-law of the Prince of Wales. The duke said he had no knowledge whatever that the raid was to occur, nor had he any suspicion that the chartered company's troops might be used any way in connection with the troubles at Johannesburg or elsewhere in the Tranvaal. The witness admitted that he had sold 1,000 shares of the company's stock during the autumn of 1895. The price was then about £6, but he failed to see what that had to do with the raid.

Knew Nothing of the Raid, "I state here, on oath," he added, "that I knew nothing of the raid, nor had the faintest suspicion that any interference in the affairs of the Transvaal was contemplated by anybody connected with the Chartered company, Mr. Rhodes did not disclose to me his connection with the revolutionary affairs at Johannesburg. I have great regard for Mr. Rhodes, but if pressed, I am perfectly willing to say that Mr. Rhodes deceived me. I am sorry to have to say so, but I have no doubt Mr. Rhodes will himself admit it."

When asked if his sale of stocks had anything to do with fears of disturb-ances in the Transvaal, he said: "Certainly not. I repudiate the idea with indignation. Lord Clifford explained that the enrollment of Rhodes a horse and the importation of arms was not connected with the Transvaal. I had no suspicion that Mr. Rhodes was financing a revolution until after the raid.

Sir Horace Farquhar, bart., a director of the British South Africa company, and member of parliament for Marylebone, testified that he sold 500 shares of the company's stock late in 1895, but said the raid could not be connected with the market, because the

Hearing Resumed Before the Inter-State

Commerce Commission Philadelphia, May 12 .- The hearing before the inter-state commerce commission of the freight differentials case was resumed Tuesday morning. Willlam R. Tucker, secretary of the Phila-HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE RAID. delphia Board of Trade, was the first witness to illustrate the claim of the Philadelphia commercial interests that the Invasion Was Engineered for Stock the increased freight carrying business and the increased export trade of this city has been the natural result of improved waterway facilities. Mr. Tucker explained what had been done toward bettering the harborfacilities in the past twenty years. These increased facilities, he said, had led the steamship companies and individual owners to greater activity in securing business for their vessels. In Mr. Tucker's crossexamination by Mr. Loomis, who represents the New York Central railway, it was brought out that nearly all the grain or other merchandise coming into Philadelphia from the west for foreign exports is loaded on vessels at wharves owned by the Pennsylvania. Mr. Tucker stated that the Pennsylvania Railway company owned more wharfage than any other corporation, Lawrence Johnson of the firm of Lawrence Johnson & Co., said that in experting grain and provisions and importing general merchandise, he used the New York vessels for possibly seven-eighths of his business. He said he found the sailings there more frequent. When asked by Mr. Kernan, who represents the New York Produce Exchange, whether or not he exported grain from southern ports, he explained that he did not, because of the inability to get the sort and quantity of what he needed at any point except New York. Mr. Johnson was the first witness to be directly questioned by members of the commission. In reply to questions from the commissioners, he said cargoes from South America and also from the East Indias can be brought to New York and then reshipped to Philadelphia much cheaper than the same cargoes could be sent directly to Philadelphia.

Hon. P. L. Spooner on the Bell Telephone Decision.

Madison, Wis., May 12.-Hon, P. L. Spooner, president of the Standard Telephone company, one of the largest independent telephone companies in the country, was interviewed on the decis-ion of the United States supreme court in the Berliner telephone patent case.

Mr. Spooner said: "My information is that the decision simply acquits the Bell company and the patent office of fraud and collusion in the issuance of the Berliner patent. # Spanish Bank Not Suspe

Havana, May 12.-The Spanish bank has not suspended. The report to that effect grew out of the suspension by the Spanish bank of the exchange of paper bills for silver, which step was brought about by order of the government. As a result crowds of people went to the bank Monday to pay their taxes, believing that script would not be received in future on account of the exchange of paper for silver being done away with, and also owing to the rumor that paper money would be listed, thus causing great losses. The bank, however, continues open and is doing busi-
