

HANCOCK

ABUNDANT ENTERTAINMENT FOR THANKSGIVING WEEK

Something Doing in the Way of Card Parties, Plays, Sports, Concerts and Other Features for Every Evening of the Present Week, From Monday to Saturday.

Thanksgiving week will be notable for the number of events of an entertainment or amusement nature provided by various organizations, and in the way of theatrical attractions, indoor baseball games, and concerts.

This evening the card party of the recently reorganized St. Joseph's club will be held at the St. Joseph's hall and will be a very pleasing event.

Tuesday evening the Parland-Newhall company will appear at the Kerredge theater under the auspices of the Grace M. E. church, in the state-entertainment course, and this will be a treat to be appreciated by all lovers of music.

The indoor baseball game for Tuesday evening will be between the Knights of Columbus and the Eagles, and the Houghton Light Infantry and the Foresters.

Wednesday evening will have the "Alaskans," one of the best of modern musical plays, as the attraction at the Kerredge theater, with Richard Carroll and Gus Weinberg as the main fun-makers.

The big venison supper and social session of the Hancock lodge of Elks for which the entertainment committee has been industriously preparing for several weeks will be pulled off on Wednesday night.

The country all around is covered with prospecting shafts where the people that located claims had to prove that they developed mineral before they could get patents from the government.

The country resembles that between Houghton and Greenland very much, except that the Ozarks are not a continuous ridge, but a succession of lofty hills with deep valleys in all directions.

The grand sacred concert given last evening in the Congregational church was greatly appreciated by the large audience which filled the church.

Hancock Prize Winners Get Rewards From Calumet Athletic Meet. The Hancock athletes who took part in the events at the athletic meet held in Calumet on Labor day under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, and who were awarded prizes for their standing in the various contests, have received the medals won by them on that occasion.

The Young People's society of the Dollar Bay Swedish Lutheran church held an apron sale and box social at the Swedish hall in that village on Saturday evening, netting a neat sum for the organization.

St. Joseph's club meets. Beyond making final preparations for the card party this evening, nothing was done at the meeting of the St. Joseph's club last evening.

Thanksgiving programs. Programs appropriate to Thanksgiving day are being prepared in the local schools to be presented on Wednesday afternoon when the schools will close for the Thanksgiving holiday.

MEETING AT RIPLEY TONIGHT TO ORGANIZE FIRE DEPT.

Another meeting will be held this evening at the Ripley school, house for the purpose of taking further steps towards organizing a fire department and it is probable that at this meeting officers will be elected and steps taken towards providing the community with water pipe and hose.

VISITS ZINC PROPERTIES.

John J. Eichkorn of Hancock, Inspects Work at Zinc Mines.

John J. Eichkorn, of this city, is at present at Dodd City, Arkansas, on a brief visit of inspection of the property of the Arkansas and Superior Zinc pool, in which a number of Calumet and other copper country people are interested.

The copper country courts which will unite with St. Bernard's court for the initiation of a big class of candidates are those of Calumet, Lake Linden, Atlantic, Greenland and Rockland.

The country all around is covered with prospecting shafts where the people that located claims had to prove that they developed mineral before they could get patents from the government.

Southeast of Dodd City a party of Hollanders took hold of a property a short time ago and are now producing ten to twelve tons of zinc ore every shift, and are now working double shift as the market for the mineral is pretty high.

The country resembles that between Houghton and Greenland very much, except that the Ozarks are not a continuous ridge, but a succession of lofty hills with deep valleys in all directions.

WANTS HER LETTER PUBLISHED

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. My pains all left me, I grew stronger, and within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefit women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JOHN G. MOLDAK, 2115 Second St., North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She will treat your letters as strictly confidential. For 20 years she has been helping sick women in this way, free of charge. Don't hesitate—write at once.
