GOLDFREEL DEBUT FOR TODAY

Notables Said to Be Most Brilliant of the Year Eastern Society.

BRIDE HAS MANY ATTENDANTS

The Eastern Promontories and Atlantic Coa., including the Wives of Representative. Mazza and Mrs. Charles H. Teall. of Baltimore, were among those who attended the church service at the church for which several hundred dollars were lent, three hours before the marriage of Mary Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony W. Leffler, was held.

ASTRONOMERS DISAPPOINTED WITH HALEY'S BIG COMET

The Complain That the Heavenly Visitor Is Not So Bright as Expected.

MOST BRILLIANT ON MAY 18

New York, May 18.—Prof. A. Mitchell, of the Department of astronomy, University of Chicago, and the party of sky-observers at the Highland observatory, report that there are no signs of the great comet which was expected to make an appearance at that time.

Hale's comet, as it is known to astronomers, is not at all bright, but he was received with much enthusiasm by the public.

The party of observators, which included several prominent astronomers, were not able to make the observations they had hoped for.

SEIDEL NOW IN MAYOR'S CHAIR (Social Democrats Take Hold of Reins of Milwaukee's City Government)

DOMES RULE FAVORITE MEASURE

New Executive Has Back of Milwaukee Twenty-all-Legislature and Promotion of West 3rd-West of 3rd Policy.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 18—The government of the city of Milwaukee was turned over to the new mayor, Mr. John Seidel, yesterday, by the outgoing mayor, Mr. H. M. Kellogg, who had been in office for the past six years.

The new mayor, who is a member of the Social Democratic party, was elected on a platform of reform and efficiency.

STRONG DEFENSE FOR DR. HYDE

WOE KEPT HIS WILL SECRETS

EDWIN F. HYDE PASSES AWAY AT HOME OF HIS CHILDHOOD

Edwin F. Hyde, known as the "Father of the Milwaukee Public Library," passed away at his home on May 18, at the age of 75.

He was the first librarian of the city, and had been in the service of the library for 50 years.

FRIENDS PRESIDE, WILSON'S PARISH.

Washington, D.C., April 18—The funeral of Wilson Wilson, one of the most prominent members of the National Society of the Sons of the Revolution, was held yesterday at the National Mausoleum.

The service was attended by many prominent members of the society, and was conducted by the pastor of the society, who spoke of the deceased as a man of great worth and ability.

OLD SOLDIERS MARRY.

Washington, D.C., April 18—The annual Encampment of General Lafayette was held yesterday at the Capitol, and the ceremony was attended by many of the veteran soldiers of the French army who served in the Revolutionary War.

The service was conducted by the president of the encampment, who spoke of the event as a great landmark in the history of the country.

TO SHARE RUSSELL ESTATE.

Boston, April 18—The funeral of the late John Russell, one of the most prominent members of the Boston Society of the Sons of the Revolution, was held yesterday at the Continental Hotel.

The service was attended by many prominent members of the society, and was conducted by the pastor of the society, who spoke of the deceased as a man of great worth and ability.

PROGRESS ON PANAMA WORK.

Washington, D.C., April 18—The Panama Canal Commission has announced that the progress of the work is proceeding at a rapid pace.

The commission stated that the work is now about 75 per cent completed, and that the completion of the canal is expected to be completed in two years.

The commission also stated that the work is being conducted in a proper and efficient manner, and that the commission is confident that the work will be completed in the time estimated.

COURT JUDGE PRIMARIES.

London, April 18—The general election for the position of Lord Chief Justice was held yesterday, and the election was won by the candidate who had the support of the majority of the voters.

The candidate who was elected was the incumbent, who had held the position for the past six years.

He was opposed by a candidate who had the support of a minority of the voters.

KERN (B.C.), April 18—The annual meeting of the Association of Maryknoll was held yesterday at the Maryknoll School.

The meeting was attended by many prominent members of the association, and was conducted by the president of the association, who spoke of the event as a great landmark in the history of the country.

The meeting also included the presentation of a special award to the late John Russell, one of the most prominent members of the association.

The award was presented by the president of the association, who spoke of the deceased as a man of great worth and ability.

KERN (B.C.), April 18—The annual meeting of the Association of Maryknoll was held yesterday at the Maryknoll School.

The meeting was attended by many prominent members of the association, and was conducted by the president of the association, who spoke of the event as a great landmark in the history of the country.

The meeting also included the presentation of a special award to the late John Russell, one of the most prominent members of the association.

The award was presented by the president of the association, who spoke of the deceased as a man of great worth and ability.

ELEVEN DEER, MANY HUNT.

Boston, April 18—The annual deer hunting season in Massachusetts opened yesterday, and the hunters were out in force.

The season is expected to be a success, and the hunters are expected to bring in a good harvest of deer.

RUTTING IN ENGLAND.

England, April 18—The annual deer hunting season in England opened yesterday, and the hunters were out in force.

The season is expected to be a success, and the hunters are expected to bring in a good harvest of deer.

NEGROES MURDER VICTIM.

Washington, D.C., April 18—The body of a negro, who was found murdered yesterday in the District of Columbia, was identified as the victim of a lynching.

The lynching was committed by a mob of negroes, who had been provoked by the negro's refusal to submit to their demands.

The negro was a well-known member of the negro community, and had been active in the struggle for negro rights.

The lynching was condemned by the negro community, and the negro's friends are demanding justice for the victim.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, D.C., April 18—The weather was fair and pleasant yesterday, with a light breeze from the east.

The temperature was about 60 degrees, and the sky was clear.

The weather is expected to continue favorable throughout the day.