ALL CITIZENS MUST REGISTER

Law Compels Complete Re-Registration in Hancock

In order to vote for president or for any other office next Tuesday, all Hancock citizens must register or be ready to swear they were sick or out of their wards on both of the registration days, Saturday and Monday being set aside by the council for this purpose. Hancock citizens are the last to register, all of the township and village registration boards being in session last Saturday. Hancock has two registration days, the first one being fixed by law and the other set aside by the council.

According to City Clerk MacDonald there seems to be some doubt about the methods of registering that may be adopted. Several people have called at the city clerk's office and asked to be allowed to make out an affidavit verifying that they were regularly qualified voters and that they would be out of the city on both registration days and thus have the board enroll them among the voters without their appearing at the places fixed for registration. Others seemed to be under the impression that the fact that their names were on the old books was sufficient and that the board would transfer them to the new books without requiring their presence.

In order to be absolutely certain that everything was being done legally and that no one was put to any unnecessary trouble, the city clerk took the matter up with the city attorney and obtained an opinion from him. The city attorney decided that all voters who wished to vote on the coming election day would have to appear themselves and register and that no one could register by affidavit. The city clerk announced that whatever practices had been followed in the past, all voters would have to be present at one of the registration places and would have to make personal application for registration.

The registration boards will be in session on Saturday and Monday between eight o'clock in the morning and eight o'clock in the evening at the following places:

- First ward—City Drug Store.
- Second ward—City Hall.
- Third ward—Holland Building on Lake street.
- Fourth ward—Swedish hall.

"LITTLEST REBEL" COMING

Al. H. Wood's Production To Be In Hancock Saturday.

Two performances, matinee and evening, of the "Littlest Rebel" will be offered Portage Lake theatergoers at the Kerredge theater next Saturday. This is another of the Woods' productions which have made such a hit with copper country theatergoers, the last one being the production of "Madame Sherry."

It was announced some time ago that this show would be unable to come to the copper country, the reason for this being the inability of the railroads to bring the troupe through on schedule time. Manager Kerredge when asked about this explained that the show had cancelled all its bookings but that he and the other managers affected and prevailed on Mr. Woods to reconsider the matter and as a result the show had been rebooked through this part of the country on a somewhat different schedule that would allow the trip to be made.

SICK DAUGHTER NOW WELL

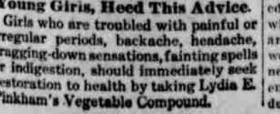

Mrs. C. Cole Tells How Her Daughter Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Fitchville, Ohio.—"I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what your medicine has done for my daughter. Before taking your medicine she was all run down, suffered from pains in her side, could not walk at a time, and had severe pains in head and limbs. She came very near having nervous prostration. She had begun to cough a good deal and seemed melancholy by spells. She tried two doctors but got little help. I cannot find words to express my gratefulness for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for my daughter. She feels and looks like another girl since taking it, and I shall always feel that I owe you a great debt. You can use this letter for the benefit of others if you wish, as I shall always recommend your medicines for female troubles."—Mrs. C. COLE, Fitchville, Ohio.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WELL KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELER PASSES AWAY

TRAVELING MAN WELL KNOWN IN COPPER COUNTRY, IS FOUND LIFELESS

W. H. Murray, who traveled for Skinner Bros., a wholesale woolen house of Chicago, with the upper peninsula as part of his territory, was found dead in his bed in a Milwaukee hotel Saturday morning, Mr. Murray, who was seventy years of age was well known to practically every merchant dealer in the upper peninsula, as he sold goods to most of them. He was in U. P. but a short time ago on his regular trip, he having made this territory on an average of once every three months. Mr. Murray controlled a larger percentage of the tailor's trade in this section than any other woolen goods man traveling this way. The announcement of his sudden passing will be received with regret by his friends.

The Evening Wisconsin of Milwaukee on Sunday had this announcement of Mr. Murray's death.

W. H. Murray, a traveling salesman for Skinner Brothers, wholesale woolen house, Chicago, was found dead in bed in his room in the Plankinton house this morning, after he had failed to respond to repeated calls from the office. Death was due to apoplexy. Mr. Murray apparently was in good health when he retired Friday night. He had traveled for the concern for many years and was a frequent visitor in Milwaukee. The body was removed to the morgue and funeral arrangements will be made by his wife, who arrived here late today to take charge of the remains. Murray was seventy years old and lived at 258 Jackson avenue, Evanston, Ill.

SUES FOR $18,000.

City is Defendant in Law Suit to Recover Damages For Death.

At a recent meeting of the Hancock city council notice was received from a firm of Houghton county attorneys notifying the council that they had been retained in the suit of Mrs. Robert Clare against the city, this suit being brought to recover damages for the death of Robert Clare who was killed while digging a ditch for the city.

Formal notice of the suit was filed yesterday with City Attorney Lawton, the amount specified being $18,000. LeGendre and Driscoll will represent the plaintiff. Mrs. Clare appeared before the council some time ago and asked for assistance. A committee was appointed to investigate the case and they reported that the city was not liable for damages in their opinion and the council voted to deny Mrs. Clare's request. The committee reported however in favor of giving Mrs. Clare the amount of $15 per month for a period of five years but this recommendation was voted down.

PROGRESSIVES AT QUINCY.

Italian Speaker Here in Interest of Roosevelt Cause Tonight.

Antonio Ferrari, an Italian from Chicago is in the copper country and will address a rally of the Italian residents this evening at the Quincy hall. Mr. Ferrari is an attaché of the Cook county court house and comes here with high recommendation as an orator.

In addition to his address at Quincy, Mr. Ferrari will deliver two more addresses while in the copper country, one at South Range and another at Calumet. This is probably the last outside speaker to be brought to the copper country by any party this year.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN

Association Sending Postal Cards to Voters Asking Support.

The Houghton County Equal Suffrage association is sending postal cards to the voters of the county asking their support at the poles in Tuesday's election. One side of the postal card carries a reproduction of St. Gaudens' famous statue of Lincoln that stands in Lincoln park, Chicago and underneath is the motto taken from a speech by Lincoln "I go for all sharing the privileges of government who assist in bearing its burdens by no means excluding women."

The other side of the card carries in addition to the name and address of the voter, the following message: "We hope that you will agree with Lincoln and vote 'yes' next Tuesday." The receipt of one of these cards at the city clerk's office revealed the fact that all of the city officials on hand were ardent suffragists and were doing their best to advance the cause of equal suffrage.

CHOSE OWN SUCCESSOR.

William Traves Faithful to Newspaper Work Until Last.

The Minneapolis Journal contributor, an interesting sidelight on the character of William Francis Traves, former editor of the Hancock Journal, whose death was reported from Menominee, where he had been working for some years as managing editor of the Herald Leader. It goes to show something of the fortitude of the man and his faithfulness to duty.

Mr. Traves had for years acted as special correspondent for the Minneapolis Journal and in his last news letter, he enclosed a special note to the editor suggesting the name of the man whom he would prefer to succeed him and informing the editor that his life's work was near the end. The next news letter, from the new correspondent conveyed the news of Mr. Traves' death. Following is the text of the letter to the editor of the Journal, which is somewhat remarkable:

"To the Editor: When this reaches you I will be dead and '66' will be written to my account, and it will be necessary for you to find a new correspondent for this place. I recommend — who so efficiently performed my work during my illness, as a newspaper worker of tried ability, whose home is in Menominee, and is therefore, in a position to serve you well and permanently in this field. Yours respectfully, W. F. Traves."

HORSE BLEEDING TO DEATH ROMPS HOME A WINNER.

Sandwich, a new horse well known to turfmen, was killed in a recent race at Topeka, Kas., displaying at his death the rare gameness which had characterized his many turf victories.

The horse was a starter in the "derby" at Topeka. He was lamed by a Slight Mist, another starter in the race, and thrown into the fence. A crozier rail penetrated his side, inflicting a jagged wound from which the blood poured profusely.

But the splendid animal, disregarding his injury, rushed after his field, and overtaking it into the stretch won the race while the blood, gushing from his injured side, splattered the judges' stand in passing. The horse was destroyed soon afterwards.

But the thoroughbred's game effort to add another purse to his owner's account was unavailing. The judges allowed a claim of foul against the winner and also against Sea Green which finished second, and the purse went to Night Mist, which the spectators thought more guilty of fouling than the horse which won with his dying effort.
