ASSAULT MAN WITH BOTTLE

Gus Kuusti of Nestoria Found With Skull Beaten In

Gus Kuusti of Nestoria, was found in the road on West Quincy street, West Hancock, last evening at about 6.30, by the inmates of a roadhouse in the neighborhood, with his skull beaten in and the snow in the vicinity dyed red with his blood. Two men were standing over him when he was found and a threat to bring the police caused these two men to turn and flee. Information was at once lodged with chief-of-police Blodgett and the chief together with Officer Wright and Deputy Sheriff Tibor responded.

The police found Kuusti had been hit over the head with some instrument apparently a beer bottle and that a portion of his skull had been crushed in a hole about the size of a silver dollar appearing on his forehead. The man was taken to the city hall in Hancock and then to St. Joseph's hospital where Dr. Dodge visited him. The doctor pronounced him to be in a critical condition and declared that his wounds would probably result fatally. This morning he seemed to be resting easier and apparently was conscious at intervals.

The officers proceeded to investigate and found that Kuusti had gone to the road house in company with two men who were identified as Emil Kempainen and John Huustala. The three had left together shortly after their arrival and it was reported that the two men who were seen with Kuusti when he was found in the road were Kempainen and Huustala. Kuusti was supposed to have had $25 on his person when he left the roadhouse but he was without funds when the police arrived and no trace of the money was found on his alleged assailants when they were arrested.

PAYS FINE AND COSTS.

Woman Who Sold Cigarettes To Minors Pleads Guilty to Charge. Mrs. John Gallinetti pleaded guilty Wednesday afternoon in Justice Pulk's court to the charge of selling cigarettes to minors. This was the first arrest made in the campaign instituted by the school and police authorities against the selling of tobacco to minors. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed.

It was at first thought that the woman's husband was the responsible party and original warrant sworn out on the testimony of the six boys who were issued for him, but further investigation showed that the woman was responsible and the arrest followed in due time.

Adolph Braemer was brought before Justice Eichkorn Wednesday afternoon and demanded a jury trial which will be given him on Dec. 10. Braemer is charged with assault and battery, the complaining witness being John P. Zerbel.

UNION MEETING HELD.

Rev. J. R. Rankin Preaches Sermon at Congregational Church.

A union meeting of the Protestant churches of the two towns was held yesterday morning in the Hancock Congregational church. Rev. J. R. Rankin, pastor of the Houghton M. E. church preached the sermon at this time. Mr. Rankin spoke of the progress that the United States had made in the past few years, of the great men who had risen to be its leaders and of the history that this nation had made in the past century.

The offering at this time was taken for the benefit of the Good Will Farm and $100.36 was realized and turned over to the farm.

HIGHS SECURE HALL.

North Star Hall on Reservation Street Will Be Used By Squad.

The Hancock high school athletic association secured the North Star Temperance society's hall on Reservation street for the use of the high school basketball teams for the coming year. The squad will use this hall four times a week for practice.

The Hancock team started their season a week ago yesterday when they played a practice match with the M. C. M. varsity team at the College of Mines gymnasium. Spencer Light, captain of the Hancock team has only two of last year's veterans to use in building this year's team, these being Light and Barrett. Some good material is in sight however and a strong team seem assured.

HANCOCK ELKS' BIG PLAY IS STRIKING PRODUCTION

'BECAUSE SHE LOVED HIM SO' PROVES MORE THAN SUCCESSFUL.

The annual Elks' play given at the Kerkridge theater last evening stood far above anything of the sort ever attempted here in the opinion of the large audience which greatly appreciated the offering.

Miss Helene McKernan, Miss Vera Scott and Norman Starrett were the only members of the cast who have had any considerable experience on the stage but it is not too much to say that all of the members played like veterans. Miss Helene McKernan while cast as the leading lady had also the stage management on her shoulders and she discharged both responsibilities creditably.

Mr. Starrett played Mr. West, the young husband, whose jealous wife precipitated the initial quarrel. Mr. Starrett approached the part in light comedy vein and sustained this attitude throughout. Jay Lanetot was Mr. Weatherby, the father-in-law with the simulated domestic quarrel. Mr. Lanetot's work probably will be considered by the majority of the audience as the best of the cast. His part was that of a choleric old man and he literally threw himself into it. C. W. Messinger played Thomas Weatherby, the young lover in danger of a wrecked life. Mr. Messinger was forcefully dramatic and exceptionally effective from an elocutionary point of view.

Miss Irene Siefert played Mrs. Weatherby and, aside from a charming youthfulness that make-up could not conceal, she offered a flawless characterization.

Character parts were offered by Miss Mildred Haire, as the Scotch servant girl, a typical English slavey; by Mrs. M. C. Getchell, as the Spanish widow, a part particularly suited to Mrs. Getchell's personality; and by Stanley Clafflin and Miss Vera Scott in the parts of comedy servants.

MEETING NOT HELD.

Commercial Bowling League Likely For Hancock In Near Future.

The much talked of meeting that was to have been held Wednesday evening at the Mitchell alleys in Hancock for the purpose of forming a county bowling league did not materialize, no one except the Hancock representatives being present. The fact that the night chosen was Thanksgiving eve probably had much to do with this and another meeting will be called in the near future in all probability.

A large number of bowling enthusiasts were at the Mitchell alleys yesterday and the question of forming a commercial bowling league in Hancock was taken up and discussed. Many of those present seemed to be in favor of the proposal and it is likely that such a league will be formed during the coming week.

M. C. M. DANCE TONIGHT.

The College of Mines dance committee has arranged for a dance to be given this evening in the M. C. M. club house this being the first dance to be given by the new committee. Klinghammer's orchestra will provide a program of twenty dance numbers and lunch will be served between the twelfth and thirteenth. The public is cordially invited to this as to every M. C. M. dance.

JOE LINDER MAY COACH ZENITH CITY HOCKEYITES

PORTAGE LAKE STAR INVITED TO MEET DIRECTORS TO DISCUSS SITUATION.

Joe Linder, the greatest hockey player that the copper country has ever developed, may be secured to coach the hockey team of the Duluth Curling club, says the Duluth Herald. Linder will come here and appear before the directors of the curling club. At that time the situation will be gone over and a decision reached as to whether a coach will be employed.

Linder played for years on the Hancock high school team and was at the same time captain of the Hancock amateur team. Both of these teams won the championship in their respective leagues for three successive years.

When the old international league was at its height and players like DoGibson, Hod Stuart and Barney Holdrege were in their prime, Linder was playing cover point and point and he learned the fine points of the game from the greatest players that the hockey world ever produced.

It is believed here that the engaging Linder would prove a boon to the game Duluth has the material but players lack the knowledge of the fine points of the game. Linder ought to prove just the man to give the needed instruction.

Personally, Linder is a clean, quiet and gentlemanly fellow. It is believed that he will make a very good impression at the meeting of the directors of the club, and, if he is engaged as coach, it is also believed by those who are personally acquainted with him, that he will be very well liked by the candidates for the team.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE OUT

Matt M. Dennis of Railroad Avenue Would Be County Treasurer.

Another candidate for the office of county treasurer has appeared this time in the person of Matt M. Dennis, a resident of Railroad avenue. The other two aspirants from Hancock are Andrew Bram and City Clerk MacDonaid.

Mr. Dennis was born and raised in Hancock and for a number of years was clerk at the Rhode Island mine. He is a republican and will run for the nomination on that ticket.

Some doubt seems to exist about the method that must be pursued in selecting a successor to the late William H. White, Jr., the treasurer-elect. One Hancock legal authority has come forward with a statement that under the present law it will be necessary for the board of supervisors to elect a man for the position while the following taken from compiled laws of Michigan with the added annotation would seem to indicate that the contrary view must be taken.

Page 1117—Compiled laws of Michigan.

Section 2 entitled, "An act to provide for holding general and special elections provides in paragraph 3; when special elections may be held:

When the right of office of a person elected to any aforesaid district or county offices shall cease before the commencement of the term of service for which he shall have been elected, death of an officer-elect before qualification and before the expiration of the term of the incumbent, creates no vacancy to be filled by appointment, but the full term must be filled by special election under this subdivision.

END OF DEER SEASON.

Hunters Must Kill Game Not Later Than Tomorrow Night.

The deer season for 1912 will end tomorrow night. From the reports received, local hunters did not enjoy as great success as in former seasons and there were not very many Torch Lake men who returned from the woods with a full allowance of deer.

E. F. Prince returned home last evening from Rice Lake where he spent this week, although not on a hunting expedition. Mr. Prince saw one large buck while there, also the tracks of a large wolf which visited the vicinity of camp, although he did not get a shot at the animal.

ODD FELLOWS ENTERTAIN.

The anniversary of the instituting of Lake Linden lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was celebrated last evening in the I. O. O. F. hall. Entertainment was provided including cards and other amusements. During the evening the members served a 'uncheon' to their guests, and the celebration last evening was one of the best that has been held under the auspices of the lodge in years. Several were in attendance from Calumet.

TORCH LAKE BREVITIES.

A large number attended the union Thanksgiving services at the local Methodist church last evening. The special sermon was delivered by Rev. Frederic Bagnall, pastor of the Congregational church.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Fischer are moving their household effects from Hubbard to the Quincy mine where the doctor is chief of the company's staff of physicians.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Carah of Houghton, spent yesterday here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carah. Mrs. H. H. Mallinson is home from the hospital and is greatly improved in health.

TOO TRUE.

In a recent volume of memoirs proud note is taken of an advance of 214 that was made to Poe on one of his books by a publisher, the wording of the receipt for this miserable advance being most insulting to the publisher's part to the immortal poet.

Apropos of this matter, George Horace Lorimer remarked sadly upon the wretched treatment meted out to geniuses—upon Milton's $25 for "Paradise Lost," upon Shelley's $17 for "Adonis," etc.

"Yes," said Mr. Lorimer, with a sigh, "it is but too true that, when a man has the stamp of genius on his brow, he also has the gloss of genius on his coat."

U. P. SPORTSMEN TO MARQUETTE

Annual Meeting Is Called For Dec. 10 Consider Game Laws

The annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Sportsmen's association of which Thomas B. Wyman, of Marquette, is the secretary, has been called for Marquette for Tuesday, December 10, and is expected to result in the framing of a set of recommendations for changes in the present game laws, to be urged on the legislature by the association and the upper peninsula members.

The association met in Marquette about a year ago, and the subject of game laws revision received an extended discussion. A legislative committee was appointed to give more thorough study to the merits of the various changes urged by the delegates and it is expected that the session called for the 10th will give its report final consideration.

It is hoped that the counties of the upper peninsula will be well represented at the forthcoming gathering, and that to end the officials of the association are in correspondence with leading sportsmen in different parts of the district, urging their attendance. They desire, if possible, to secure the sanction of a representative gathering of upper peninsula men for the changes that will be recommended to the legislature.

State Game Warden Gates, now a resident of Marquette, will be in attendance at the meeting.

One of the subjects of discussion at the conference will be the much discussed "buck" law, i. e., an amendment to the present game statutes that will make it illegal to kill any but male deer. Many upper peninsula sportsmen are strong advocates of legislation of this nature.

Two weighty arguments are put forward in behalf of the proposed amendment. Its advocates assert, in the first place, that it would greatly extend the period during which it can be expected that good hunting will be had in the forests of the upper peninsula. They also urge that a "buck law" furnishes about the only means by which the killing of hunters in mistake for deer can be ended.

The influence the Upper Peninsula association will be able to exert will depend in large measure on the nature of the meeting held in Marquette, so the officials are particularly desirous that it be large and representative. Any sportsmen will be eligible to sit in it and to have a voice in its deliberations.

India Supporting Turkey.

Behind the shadow of the Balkan war there lurks, in the minds of many thoughtful British statesmen, the fear of an evil far greater and far more horrible. Among King George's subjects there are 199,999,999 Mohammedans, who regard the sultan of Turkey as "Caliph of Islam," and protector of their faith. Of these, 69,999,999 have their home in India. England's pro-Turkish politicians have always weighted their arguments with the implied threat—"Desert the sultan and your millions of Mohammedan subjects will not only desert you but will rise in mutiny as they did before."

It is said that in 1910 one person in every 800 in the United States was in prison.
