The Calumet News

MILT EXCEPT SUNDAY

Fundament by the WINING SAZETTE COMPANY. W. M. LYON, RPHULLY !

catered at the Post Office at Calume Michigan as Second Class Mull Mutter.

TELEPHONES. Religia) Rooms, 4

TERMS OF SUDSCRIPTION. the Manifest Courses. Per year, in advance Elect of presentative as della any will results primary and thorough

NATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1975.

Accessed with productive and trac-on saturation to The Secre will often pur sweats your are to get together on this proposition; at Landing exciting feverable legislathey would be an house house after the consider Edglight above bette a regular line when afficient they prepared the property of the property and a sent Mac revenies with residues. New Mal-Gradualty the Emrists stained suprem of Kultratia Lemma. Most of the cormittless were consists, and number of the richest and most influents from these pienteers who were said to the Astinodes as a punishment for saints who had been incorrigible at home were transformed into honest less coice. Then with a nigh of soand norfol citizens. The discovery of prema resignation, "Very well, I will gold in 1551 gave a new importus to Amstrolians development

Formerly divided into six volume In 1901 Australia was made a feder ative union under the British crown with an autonomous constitution and parliament. The parliament consists on each of these a posched egg and of a Senate with thirty-six members keep hot. Meanwhile melt an ounce elected by the parliaments of the states, and a House of Representatives, elected by girect vote. The population of Australia is now in the neighborhood of 5,000,000,

There Are More Foolish Buyers Than Foolish Sellers. Why?

If you had something for sale you would know first what the article cost you and second just what you wanted for it. You would not sell it to the first person trying to buy it unless you could get your price.

(But are you as careful as a buyer! Most people are not, and from this lack of care arises much complaint. That which is done hastily is usually not well done; what at first glance seems to be wool turns out to be shoddy; a shapely garment loses its fit after the first laundering, and so on. Bad ware is never cheap. Do your shopping with thought and care.

C Read the advertisements of the reputable merchants advertising in THE CALUMET NEWS; read them closely and persistently every day; shop with these merchants and you will have no causes for complaint,

Observer to J. P. Parcel

THOSE SUFFRAGETTES.

all of their regions have marginal order a colling remaining the bury login to the United States District

It am Milliam suttrage worker resonant in group women of this of enamelled fromware

Happeon Muligan suffrage leaders

ang in magnity evidence their diseasto be a sold by a point of attention would not every suffrage art- craft other exities of the south

The only marger is that British out | Enckinging Palace. respective force into attending by the

to the course of public affairs in a nac-denote increase of he promete.

Willing to Help:

Juliu Junio, where momers was recommend totalet on his house in Parts, was famous for two things, ids great critical ability and his aborder the handwriting.

One day a friend of Junto's received. a letter from him. With great pains and parence be managed to gather from the few words he could decipher that it was about a matter of importance, but what the matter was be could not make out. There was nothlog to do left to take a cab and drive directly to Janin's bouse.

"Ab," inid Janin, "It is you! So you have read my letter?

Not at all replied his friend. "I have just received it, and have come to ank you to read it to me." "Ob," said Janin in a dazed, hope-

Cook a pan of tomatoes with a shredded green pepper until the tomstoes are reduced by half. Then pour on to five rounds of buttered toast and place of butter in a pan over the fire and le it color. Then add a tablespoonful of either lemon jnice or vinegar. Let it all come just to the bolt and pour it over the eggs, seasoning them with

FORECAST OF NEWS EVENTS FOR THE COMING WEEK

Westington D. C. Feb L-The Mcmi trial of the criminal anti-trust can against one "Buts Tuo Trust" will but he the lease the sury hanageed. The government delayed the restriat colors, the squal rights are being so until the Supreme sours doubled the you can anyther the trust. That detion, recently rendered, compels the number of the cambination of wixteen corporations and sixty-four invictorin engaged in the manufacture

Alternation of the purcels post and the taking of steps which will enable r the mg mail order bouses will be used at a convention of retail the communication of this sort pertpens. (7) goods and general merchants of and in the possibility of suffrage in Machigan the entire west, which will meet in r lucage Morday for a session of four

Other important conventions of the reon for the right sides. An management to surround the follower of week will because the meetings of the with optimizate as its proposary and representatives who are international Association of Bridge could go for, as he term to our of sympathy with their cause, and good Structural from Workers in Incommupolis. the National Association " Laties' Tallers and Dressmakers in within to a cause which would report. Non York city, the Hardwood Manufacturers' Association of the United States, in Cincinnate and the Internaonal association of Master House mattern in Sonia report 1. Suppose Medican suffragion seek I Paintern and Decorators, in Denver

> Preceding the beginning of Lent the tirat two days of the week will be de-Noted to the unusual Mardi Gras celetrutions in New Orleans and in sev-

The season of vocasi functions at the English Court will be unbered in decree - St. Nicholas. leves at St. James Palace and the electron in a later strice or in a out- days later the first appointe and official court reception will take place at Transferred the appropriate of sometimes of all in them of the reck protected character are scheduled for and a real network of the first will take place it Party on Monday, when Miss Helena Younged of the species the Continue the reason would stalle, who inherited half of the imher because the still difference of in that the leaders in these London mence fortune left by her grandfather the late Alexander McDonald of Cinsinati and New York, will become the and believe of the States contested that the Somen of Britain bride of Prince Michel Mural, a replication of the state of en of the ex-Empress Eugenle.

The second wedding will be that o Miss Eleanor Douglas Wise, daughter of Mrs. Frederick May Wise of Baltimore, and the Duc de Richelieu, whose mother, now the wife of Prince Albert or Monaco, was Miss Affee Heine of their communicatives to Michigan, to New Orleans. The wedding coremony will be performed Saturday noon in the Baltimore cathedral, Cardinal Gib bons officiating.

A Crazy Wit.

While a wedding breakfast was being held in a restaurant in a seaport town in France a naval officer in uni form entered the room and was invited to preside over the feast. He made himself very agreeable, rang songs and delivered speeches. He was proposing the bride's health when two policemen rushed in and arrested bim as an escaped lunatic from a neighboring asy ium. The prisoner took his arrest calmly and smilingly. He bowed politely to the officers and said:

"I think you have made a mistake, gentlemen. There'-pointing to the bridegroom-"is the man you want,"

Breakfast Rolls.

Mix together a full tenspoonful of small tenspoonful of salt; rub two equipmen of butter into it, mix it quickly with half a pint of buttermilk or skin milk, make the dough up into little rolls, set them on a well floured baking | be stayed for some time. When he tin and bake for ten to fifteen min-When half baked brush over with milk.

New York Broiled Oysters. Deain the oysters and season with salt and pepper. Dip first into softened butter and then roll in breadcrumbs. Arrange in a fine wire broiler, place over a clear fire and broil a light brown. Gerre with maitre d'hotel sauce.

The Land of Puzzledom

5. Hot vapor

Triplicate

No. 2021.—Beheaded Words. Bebend to fall on and selve and get · division of weight. Bebend an article of furniture and get a word recently capable.

Behend a slime mollusk and get an Behand to gain knowledge or skill and get a word meaning to gain by labor. Renerd a deep cut and get a well Benord bit any and get a single

No. 2022 - Riddles

aning.

I am below the level com in tracion I am scenber-dom Mo name in given by the res. And to a thought from you in

I are a character well known to the ment, my second is to fasten and my dramatic mortà. I am halled with de. whole is a kind of tree. ight be going and old at Christman time, but I am also received with the militation of all seasons of the year. I am nimpts found outdoors among the | table, a nati, bearn gash, nom location flowers, and net I pover leave. the shelter of the bouse of entertain- 3. Heart. nient. I am a greet traveler and have been all over the discovered globe.

111. I am the innermost and the hidden I am spoken of lightly, yet my action. a protected by every non. I may be made of paper, cloth, metal or glass. stand for affection I have motion and go of for years without care .-Youth's Companien.

Ne. 2023.-Charade. her husband she said "Just to be to;

the gile. And my record they acted, when there. windings. 2. Hem. fock-shemlerk. Pretending they often had been there be-

Returning she said Call me Katherine more dignified then my third, you'll For my whole you can chome any object

But take three of a kind, and you'll guest t with some

No. 2024 .- Transmutations Example. When D is a coin it is proper-D cent-Decent. When the letter A is slightly covered setly es he had planned. has been of use.

When X is targe it is a model When I) has suffered pecuniary punishmout it is explained

When the letter I is reuted it is a When D satisfied its hunger it became a time When X hammered it was interpreteri

When M imitated a dog it went on board a boot

In this puzzle the key words are pictured. The answer, containing twentyfour letters, is the name of a famous

No. 2026. Diagonal.

This diagonal contains are words of five letters each. If the words are rightly guessed and written one below

ALWAYS LATE GIRL.

She's the Dropped Stitch in the Social Fabric

Why is it that so few girls can be on time? Is it that they have no respect for the clock or no real conception of the value of time?

The girl who is always late, who ar rives ten, fifteen or perhaps thirty minutes after the appointed hour, who keeps people waiting, with a sublime indifference to their discomfiture, is a nulsance and a bore. She is the dropned stitch in the social fabric. Some one is always trying to fill up the hole made by her tardy arrival.

Are you one of the girls who never can be on time? No doubt you think you make up for your tradiuess and the trouble you cause by your apologies and your smiles. Perhaps you can make yourself believe that the abused opes who have waited forget their pervousness and impatience and anger as soon as you do But they do not. The bostess who has shirered and burned while her dinner reversed the process does not forget. She has been in purgatory even if it does look like her own parlor. She has had to say pleasaut things while she thought the opposite.

That ghastly expectancy that per raded ber guests had to be diffused by her own calm assumption of perfect pose and facile gayety. She gets a nerrous beadache as she pictures th wreck of ber menu. You spott the affair for her even if the cook manages to save the dinner. No: no one forgets baking powder, a pound of flour and a you after you have made such indelible impressions on them

An Englishman went to Paris, where returned to his home a friend asked him how he had liked France.

"A beastly country." he replied, "per feetly beastly. They know nothing there. They don't even know how to talk. Why, they call bread 'pain!' "But." his friend said. "that is the French word for bread." "Oh. I know that! But why should they call it that? It really is bread. rou know."-Everybody's.

ping with the top left hand letter and ending with the lower right hand letter will spell semething we have frequently during the winter mouths.

The crosswords are: 1 Little, 2. To speak 3. Semething we walk upon. 4

A place where goods are kept for sale.

No. 2027 .- A Question of Time.

A farmer, with culfdress sixteen, Kined the fattest young leads in his Kined the fattest young lamb in I fack outside it these children between What must be the time by the clock?

No. 2028 .- Charades.

2. My dirst is the border of a gar-

No. 2021 - Behanded Words Pounces

No 2022 Riddles 1 Deep 2 Box

No. 2023.-Charade: Trip. he. Kate-

No. 2025 - Numerical Enignm. Emmi

No. 2026 - Hagonal - Storm Cros words. Small, after, floor, store, steam

No. 2027.-A Question of Time; A

No. 2028 - Charades 1 Wind 1880

-availed (E) x ample-example

wim. ear, loss, conf. mane, pit.

a barked-emissized.

querter to four machine for lifting or milling.

Until He Was Fat.

Daddy's Bedtime

The Clever Ground Hog Knows The Weather

ADDY said. "I wonder if the groundhog will see his shadow this year?" "Oh, yes! It's on the 2d of February he comes out of his hole, in 'e it?" Evelyn said. We're nover seen him come out." Jack said doubtingly.

"That doesn't prove he never comes," daddy replied. "There are pleuty of little groundhogs. The groundhog's other name is Mr. Woodchuck. By that name you know him very well. "Last fall when there were picuty of nice plants to eat Mr. Woodchuck ate until he became very fat. He is a vegetable lover and eats roots and things of that sort. "Mr. Weodebuck lives in a bole in the ground. He makes tunnels, and when the weather is not nice he crawls into the tunnel and stays there unti-1. My first is a current of air, my

the weather is nice again. record is a girl, and my whole is a "When he feels the cold winter weather coming on the woodchuck grows s warm fur blanket on his back, and after he has caten till he is so fat he cau hardly waddle about he crawls into the coriest corner of his burrow and curis up for a nap. "All winter while the wind is howling outside he snoozes comfortable Mr. Woodchuck is very particular about the weather. He won't go out of doors when it is bad. He seems not to get hungry. Perhaps the fat in his body keeps him slive all winter just as it does Mr. Bear, who also eats a heap and gets very fut in the fall. "After awhile, toward spring, you know, Mr. Woodchuck begins to be more wakeful. He worries about the weather perhaps, for he and Mra. Wood chuck like to have their housekeeping started by April. At last he stirs and looks about. Maybe he comes up and peeps out of his hole. If the weather

No. 2024.-Transmutations. A velled isn't good you may be sure he won't come out of his hole, but will go back to have his nap out. (e) fined-defined. I (v) let-lefet. Date Like many wild creatures. Mr. Woodchuck does seem to know just what date. (E) x pounded-expanded. (E) kind of weather to expect, and if the 2d of February should not be a nice day he wouldn't think of stirring abroad. "If the weather is fine he may take a run around to see just how the cipation proclamation. Words: Jun. country looks. But the san has not yet begun to stir in the roots of trees and shrules, and they are hardly nice enough to tempt the woodchuck, who depends

"It wouldn't be any use for you to try to keep him from going back to hihole if you met him abroad on a fine day, for the chance is he has more than one door to his home and could get back in softe of you. "And so a merry groundhog day for all, and may the groundhog not see his shadow this year to als in:

He felt that this inexpected natruobstruction to his pagent happiness

He would impress it upon Lucia that his cold gray eyes and looked straight

Lange: Anne Lange, grewn beamiful, her red but softened to a less oldes tionable shade than when he had hast apron. Her creamy skin was guilde-s of its powdering of golden freckles and her perfect features rendered more ex quisite by the simplicity of her confure and the delicate beauty of her gown.

in Paris, only not the same. The innocent confidence had gone from the eyes.

and only hard scorp remalited - for him

That confemptuous curl of the tip was for him too. Who would have expected to meet poor tittle Anne Lange in Mrs.

Silvester's drawing room? Certainty me slowly rose to his feet and grasp-

A light came to him with startling

You are governous to the little girl.

Annabel. That explains your presence self possession with a masterful effort.

She smiled unpleasantly. He had not dreamed that Anne could have looked to similictively at any one comantle little Anne! She must have cared for him, indeed, and a thrill of regret stirred him that she could not be for

"And suppose I am the governess" within his chill, well ordered interior.

She nodded carelessly.

thoughtfully.

she inquired at last, and her beautiful

"You know I am engaged to Mrs. Sil-

"Mrs Silvester is very particular-

"Who had once been engaged to you,

"I was going to say more than that."

ever seen you before unless you force me to tell her. I am not proud of that little episode in my life. I was only years is a long time, and now I am a woman. You- Alt, here is mother

"Annabel" Mrs. Silvester's aston

"Annabel?" squeaked that gentleman dered under her scornful giance.

She howest coldly

the same Anne Lauge he had known.

The door closed gently, and he lifted the child should be returned at-

Her Better Nature Conquered

By CLARISSA MACKIE.

After it was all over and be was planned Martin discreptly. "She just home again Willoughby Jones Derrick herove an faste ago, sir" Willoughly stared haughtlix at the stretched himself comfortably before his own hearthstone and agreed that it prestruptions metial, and when the had turned out very well indeed-exbrond back and desagreered with undignified haste be transferred his gaze.

Mrs. Silvester had worn the rellow roses he had sent. He had reckoned on her looking especially well at the Possonby dan e, but she bad been ac tunlig beautiful-ler churming little figure gowned in compadour silk, and above her soft black eyes gleamed that crown of silvery white hair which distinguished her among the other women of her set-and nucestain age

At just the right moment-when she was slightly bered with the commonplaces of the bollroom, when the first flavor of the dancing had departedbe had rescued her from the idiotic attentions of a worshiping youth and earried her off to a secluded nook in the conservatory which he had previously marked for the purpose

Here, amid the tinkle of fountains and the plash of goldfish in the marble basins, with now and then a lulling mucmur of music from the distant ballroom, amid the beavy seent of exotic flowers and the pure fragrance of countiess roses. Willoughby solemning and somewhat heavily, as became a Jones-Detrick, usked Lucis Silvester to not Willoughby Jones-Derrick

The result of this was that when ed his hat and cane with the desperate they parted a few hours later Lucia clutch of one who holds fast to some was wearing beneath her little white firm support. He met the satirical glove the engraved emerald which was gleam of her eyes with wavering fear the traditional engagement ring of the in his own.

Jones-Derricks and Willoughby land, "Anne-Miss Lange," he gasped conher recomise that in the approaching function.

Indian summer they would be married. All this had been the result of careful planning and almost painful forethought on the part of Willoughby Jones-Derrick. He had lived fortypine years of his life in the firm de bere, I suppose" he said regaining his termination to die a bachelor. He loved too well the luxury of living for bimself sione to share his liberal income with a wife who at best might shipe brilliantly at costly entertainments and deplete a fortune which was ample for a prudent bachelor, And in his fiftieth year his business him after all agent reported that those sources whence came his inherited lucome were now were divided by one half, and there was no escape from the impend ing doom of poverty except a good marriage. The impending doom was a secret between Willoughby and biz agent. The idea of the good marriage was Willoughby's own. Quietly he had gone about it, and the result was most gratifying. There would be no cause for wonderment that the rich chibman should marry one of the richest widows in town. So the last of the Jones-Derricka dreamily consumed several gold tipped cigarettes while he pondered the advantages of the new life that would open when he assumed the responsi bility of becoming Lucia Silvecter's second busband. It was a very pleasant outlook, for he admired Lucia as much as it was within his power to admire any one save his own punctil-

He frowned as he remembered the existence of the child. Annabel Silvester, and smiled when he recollected that little Annabel was safely enscone ed in a French convent from which she would not emerge for some time

Then be dismissed all disagreeable thoughts with a flirt of his cigarette into the grate. It was quite two weeks afterward that Willoughby Jones-Derrick dropped into Mrs. Silvester's for a cup of tea. and well simulated confusion as the

The drawing room was empty, but bore evidence of recent occupation. "The ladies will be down immediate, sir," said the obese butler.

Annabel courtesied mockingly. "An Jones Derrick's brows were elevated unbel Lauge Silvester, who tired of for a brief justant and then crumpled convent life and spent a year in Paris into a frown. He had a beastly headstudying art, who tired of art and went ache and did not feel like talking to a back to the convent and who has come tot of chattering women; he needed Luhome and surprised her dear-mamma. cia's low, thrilling voice and quiet pres by being so grown up." ence to charm away his indisposition.

"Darling, you positively shocked "It's only Miss Annabel, sir." exing the reddy hair with one plump livn, N. Y., has resigned.

gave her hand to Willoughby.

write frond. "I did not realize you were graving up. I have always thought of you as my little girl. Now I shall keep you hidden thi after my wedding," she combided, with an arch smile, at the disturbed face of her be trothed. Willoughby Jones-Derrick was adpasting his above moving faculties to fon of little America would prove un' this letest order of thing

First, it had been Anne Lange, a ghost out of his respectable past that might rattle its bones unpleasantly to the cause of wedging bells or husb into the great brown orbs of-Anne, those bells altogether, and this wedding meant his bread and butter-and rightettes. Now, it was Annabel, the stepdangle seen her in a paint statued betiend ter, who confronted him Ampbel his prospective stends there, who furned out to have been at homeon for several delicious was and whom he had beartlessly lilled when her youthful charms pelled upon blue Even with her wormen to forget the past warmth . ther his he windered whether he could live with her and look on her easis day as a slumbering volcano which might burst forth any moment and overwhelm him with the inva of trutt. Women were treacher eas, and had not a great poet said that "hell holds to fury fike a womnu scorned?" "I have been making the acquaint ance of Mr Jones-Derrick," said Anna bel, with a suddenly sweet smile. "He thinks I remind him of an old friend. and we squabbled over the matter Now we shall bury the hatchet, shall we not?" She extended her cool hand Willoughby grasped it eagerly, and team of relief almost forced them selves to his fine eyes. "Yes," he said with the stiff beartiness that was bis bearest approach to friendliness. "I thought mether was all alone, and to I came home to take care of hergirls bave such funny ideas." Anna bel's voice was boney sweet

"I have given that right to Mr. Jones Derrick," smiled Mrs. Elivester over the tempot. "I will take care of you both," said

Willoughby ponderously. Annabel curled her lips scornfully and they trembled with the quick in danger of total elimination, even contraits voice caused another thrill fore her and reveal his utter faithless ness to her mother. But, she thought, perhaps be was not to blame for tiring of her, a mere schoolgirt. Her beautiful mother was nearer his age and taste. Standing there, pale and cold. very particular indeed," he began as- Annabel saw the lovelight shining to suredir. "I am sure she would not her mother's eyes, noticed the gray rate for a governess who - He flour threads in Willoughly's thick built.

saw him whose he was afente of her Something that had choked her beart who once were the historic emerald on two years ago was suddenly swept her plebenn, paiet stained hand," she away in a warm flood, and this warmth fluished mockingly. She lifted one filled her beautiful eyes. She stepped slim white hand and contemplated it forward and laid her hand on the clasped flugers of her mother and the man be said, vindictive to his turn, and his "Yes, mother, gear, your bushand eyes batrayed the length to which he will take care of no-both. Let us all be happy," she said, throwing away "If you said more than that you all revenge and scorn.

would lie." She spoke with a caim dig-Something but and glistening fell nity that set oddly on one so young on Annabel's hand, but her mother's I knew you were here and came down to prepare you for my appearance dare look at Willoughy Jones-Derrick. eyes were dry and shining. She did not

The Sciemo Englishman.

An Englishman in New York got in sixteen, but I believed in you. Two car and sat opposite to a judy who had a very peculiar looking child in her arms. An awfully funny fooking kid it was, and the man could not keep his eyes away from it. He would look at tahment was blended with laughter it, look away and then look lanck again, absolutely fascinated by it, it was so

> Finally the mother became very much abnoyed over the man's rudoness and leaned over and said to him, "Rubber" A look of relief came over the Engishman's face as he exclaimed:

"Thank beaven, madam: I thought it was real."-New York American.

Dr. H. Allen Tupper, 13 years pasme," murmured Lucia Silvester, caress- tor of Calvary Baptist church, Brook-