1,100 STUDENTS ARE ENROLLED

Oratoricals and Declamations at Calumet High School
The enrollment of the Calumet high school is now the largest in the school's history, more than 1,100 students being in daily attendance.

Preparations are being made for the preliminary contests in declamations and oratoricals, which will be commenced in a week or ten days.

There are about fifty students of the freshman and sophomore classes preparing for the declamations and about twenty upper class men are ready to compete in the oratoricals.

The series of preliminary to determine the school's representatives in the sub-district contests is likely to extend for several weeks.

The sub-district declamation contest will be held in the Calumet high school on the evening of April 2 and the sub-district oratorical contest will be held at the Kerredge theater in Hancock the following evening.

Entries will be present from each school in the copper country.

CONSIDER SCOUT COUNCIL
The formation of a council of boy scouts to govern the activities of all local organizations of this nature, will be considered at a meeting of the masters of all scout troops which probably will be held tomorrow evening.
