WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 1914.

IMPRESSIVE TESTIMONY.

The testimony of James McNaughton, general manager of the Calumet & Hecla and Consolidated, in the congressional inquiry into copper country conditions, has been impressive and convincing.

MACDONALD'S INCONSISTENCY.

At a Progressive caucus at Jackson, Mich., held by the Michigan Progressive League for the purpose of the election of Representative Macdonald, the speaker pointed out a glaring inconsistency in the man's record.

DID THEY WANT IT?

Hillside has limited women suffrage, secured through some of the cleverest lobbying by a delegation of women that the legislature has ever seen.

FOREST NOTES.

Canada has 22 million acres in timber reserves, as compared with 127 million acres in the national forests of the United States.

Apple wood is the favorite material for ordinary saw handles, and some goes into so-called apple pipes.

New Jersey has a timbered area of about 1,200,000 acres, on which the timber is worth about $5,500,000 on the stump. It is mainly valuable for cordwood.

Joe Mackin, once noted Chicago politician, now 74, is insane and a charity patient in a hospital in the city he once bossed politically.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Thirty-one states are to elect governors this year. Five candidates are contesting for the governorship in Alabama.

GOOD ROADS AND SCHOOLS.

The rural population is more willing to support better schools today than at any previous time. It is being realized that all educational activities or agencies must be more or less correlated, and, more than all else, that they must be made accessible to the children.

On the other hand, in counties which have improved their roads, the schools are greatly benefited. The average attendance centers, the efficiency largely increased and economic consolidation made possible.

Michigan Democrats will renominate Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, who is the first representative of their party to occupy the executive office in more than twenty years.

BUTTONS THAT GROW ON TREES

Fruit of Tagua Palm Furnishes the Buttons of Fashion

A button is the average man's rather noticeable object, until it happens to be missing from his coat, vest or trousers—especially at the most important time—and then it becomes an object of much importance and considerable solicitude.

On April 7 the voters of New York will decide whether a convention shall be held to frame a new state constitution. Twenty-three amendments, initiative and referendum measures will be voted on at the California election in November.

Representative C. O. Lobbeck may be expected for the Democratic renomination in the Second congressional district by James C. Doolittle, the mayor of Omaha.

Michigan Democrats will renominate Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, who is the first representative of their party to occupy the executive office in more than twenty years.

It is reported that the purpose of Theodore Douglas Robinson in going to Europe is to meet Col. Roosevelt and consult with him concerning the political situation in New York. Mr. Robinson is a nephew of the former president and chairman of the New York Progressive State committee.

Two candidates are in the field for the Republican nomination for governor of Michigan this year. They are Alexander J. Grossbeck, chairman of the state committee, and Frederick C. Martindale, present secretary of state, and a defeated candidate for the gubernatorial nomination two years ago.

President Harry E. Aiken of the Millard Fillmores Corporation, who made the contract with Gen. Francisco Villa for the exclusive right to photograph the rebel army in action in the Mexican war, is in receipt of that valuable document entitled by the victorious constitutional leader and bearing his signature.

Germany with a total production of playthings, amounting to $28,730,000 annually, leads all other countries in this industry. Of this amount $21,426,000 worth are exported.
