The publisher of the Eastern Texas News wants a person versed in all the departments of journalism to assist in the conduction of the News. A good job printer also is wanted in the same office.

The County Commissioners have postponed action on a plan for the new Court House till the last day of this month, in order to a more satisfactory decision. The petition for a vote on the location will be considered at the next regular term.

HAPPENING at the San Marcos or Woolfolk garden the other day, we were surprised to find it pretty well stocked with vegetables. By the politeness of the manager, we were asked to sample a basketful of some of the same, consisting of snap beans, okra, radishes, cucumbers, turnips, sweet potatoes, onions, etc. Glad the season is not to pass without our having a share of vegetables.

Notice.

Having sold out my Tin-Shop to Mr. Henne with a view of moving to Beaumont, Texas, I would urge those owing me either by note or account to call and settle at once, as I wish to leave town in ten or fifteen days. For the very liberal patronage and many kindnesses shown me in the last six years, I return my most sincere thanks.

I leave with regret, but the best of friends must part.
JOHN H. EASTHAM.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The copartnership heretofore existing under the name of Ellison & Smith is dissolved by mutual consent. Either Ellison or Smith will liquidate claims due, by or to the late firm. Every one indebted to us is requested to settle at once: We must close up our business.
T. H. ELLISON,
P. J. C. SMITH.

Referring to the above, I would respectfully announce that I will continue the mercantile business at the old stand. Terms cash and as cheap as any house in San Marcos. Thankful for past patronage I respectfully solicit a continuance of the same.
P. J. C. SMITH.

Personals.

Mr. Coggin has removed to Llano county. Dr. Birmingham, of Uvalde, called on us this morning.

Elder Hatcher, too, we learn is among the unaccountably missing.

We regret that Mr. Eastham intends leaving us. He is one of the kind of men who will be missed.

The post office address of C. G. Large, late of this vicinity, is now Brady City, McCulloch Co., Texas.

Thos. Calloway, who has been some two years in the stock business in the Pan Handle, called on us last week.

Mrs. Douglas is still running a boarding house at San Antonio, and appears to be doing well. She calls it the San Marcos house.

We regret to hear of the death of Rev. Mr. Poage, formerly of this place. He died in Missouri. He lived a great deal longer than it was expected, he would when he left here.

Maj. Penn, whose meeting at this place, to begin on the 23d inst., has so long been announced, has not been heard from for some time, and fears are entertained that he may not come to time. We learn he will be telegraphed to to-day.

While at San Anton'o on Tuesday we called at the home of our friends Major Brown and his excellent wife. We were glad to find Mrs. B. in good health and happy in her very cosy and pleasant home, beautifully furnished and admirably ordered under her own supervision. The Major is now Maj. Henzie's right hand man in his extensive business, and is very much engrossed with the same.

"BLACK-DRAUGHT" makes chills and fever impossible.

For sale by all druggists.

MALONE'S CHEAP STORE, though not represented in our columns for some weeks past, has not been entirely ignored by the public; but for fear it might be, the proprietor, not having time to write himself, has authorized us to keep it before the people that he now has on hand the largest stock of goods ever brought to this market, embracing a full line in all departments of his business, adapted to the wants of the people of all this region of country, and at bottom prices. His facilities for buying goods cheap in the Eastern markets are well known to be such as to induce buyers to give him their patronage. The magnitude and variety of the stock, the superior quality of the goods and the wonderfully low prices are the sufficient attractions in this case. For full particulars as to prices etc., all are invited to call at the Cheap Store, and see if all these things and more which we cannot here particularize are not so.

We invite the attention of our readers to the card of Mrs. and Miss. Randall, dress-makers to be found in our advertising columns. In this connection we take pleasure in copying the following notice from the Taylor Phonograph:

Miss Emma Randall, well known here as a dextrous seamstress and popular dress-maker, leaves on Monday for San Marcos, where she proposes to pursue the business of cutting, fitting and making of ladies' dresses and children's apparel. We hope she will find in San Marcos, the friendship and business, which as a lady and a skillful seamstress she so well merits.

From Kyle.

KYLE, Oct. 17, 1881.

We attended the concert, and ice-cream supper at Mountain City on the 14th, which was a grand success. Miss Maggie and Fannie Manlove, Miss Ella Barton, Miss Mollie Guilleams, Mrs. Dr. Reagan, Miss Kate Blum, Miss Alice Haupt, and Miss Nellie Roach were the young lady actors. Mr. S. Ligon, Willie Manlove, Elam Dudley, Johnny Hodges, Arthur Roach, Johnny Stephenson and Fine Roach, were the young men actors. All acquitted themselves well considering the time they had been preparing. Music was furnished by Miss Maggie Manlove and Miss Flora Storts of Kyle. The music we must say, could not have been better, the cake and ice-cream ditto. Kyle was well represented; among the number was: Miss Mitchell and Storts, Rev. Mrs. King, Miss Iantha Houston and brother, E. E. Banner and Emon. Many from the country near here attended, too numerous to mention. San Marcos was represented by Mrs. Capt. Manlove and her boys. All seemed to have a pleasant time and the amount collected was enough to accomplish the object intended.

The Texas Western surveying party is between here and Lockhart and will reach this place some time this week. Some seem to think we are sure of its being built to this place. Major Harwood of Gonzales, bought lots near town last week for the purpose of building on them sometime soon.

EMON.

"Don't Know Half their Value."

"They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint" as recommended. I had a half bottle left, which I used for two little girls who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them in one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B. Rochester, N. Y. See another column.

Almost a Fatal Accident.

The quiet of last Sabbath morning was broken by an alarm from Mrs. Levyson who resides in the Christian parsonage that her boy Bernard, a bright little fellow some five or six years old, had fallen into the cistern. Messrs. G. W. Donaldson and Charles Coehren were the first on the ground. The latter descended into the cistern and caught the child just as he was about sinking for the last time. A ladder was provided and the rescue completed. Quite an excitement prevailed in the vicinity and all were rejoiced to see the boy restored to his almost distracted mother, who asks us to tender for her her heartfelt thanks to all who gave her their aid and sympathy on this trying occasion.

The Late David George.

In recording 't's sad death of this venerable citizen recently, it did not occur to us that he was one of the fast decreasing number of Texas veterans. As such, he is fairly entitled to more than a passing notice. We learn he came to Texas in 1832, and in 35 was a member of Capt. Dimmitt's company, and signed the declaration at Goliad. His claims as a veteran were unquestioned, and he drew a pension in pursuance of the same up to his death.

IGLEHART & BLACK have just received a full and complete stock of Fall and Winter goods, which they offer at very low prices. In connection with their stock of Dry Goods and Groceries, they manufacture and keep a full stock of Saddles, Brides, Harness &c., all of which, they make of the best material and warrant 4 wks.

Mr. Walter F. McCune, of Pittsburg, Pa., writes "My age is 28 years. I was born with an excellent constitution, but at the age of 19, having just finished my collegiate education, I fell into habits of dissipation. After six years of fast living I felt my constitution broken down. I put myself under the care of one of our best physicians. His treatment seemed to do me no good. Finally he said at best I could only live a few years, that my bowels, kidneys and lungs were all threatened with consumption and were fast wasting away in certain decay. I tried everything advertised, hoping to gain relief. Finally I drifted into a state of melancholy and hopeless despair, suffering excruciatingly from dyspepsia, short breath, and urinary catarrh. A year ago I saw Brown's Iron Bitters advertised, I used them, and they acted like a charm. I soon began to enjoy dreamless slumber—and now I feel myself a man once more, and have gained 54 pounds since using the remedy. I feel very strong, and can hold out a 45 pound weight. Brown's Iron Bitters saved my life.
