THE Palestine News speaks as follows of Major Hinzle's business and aim at this place:
In 1880 he erected a store at San Marcos 50x100 feet built of stone, at a cost of $7,000. This store is stocked with groceries for the wholesale and jobbing business. The retail trade is also immense, arising from the low and uniform rates offered by this house. Mr. Hinzle has conscientious business qualifications, with forethought, enterprise and liberality. It is his aim to maintain a reliable home market which will offer better inducement than more distant markets.

We published last week a list of presiding officers at elections, from which it will be seen that there has been a new subdivision of voting places. We presume the Commissioners will order the publication of the same by boundary lines in the FREE PRESS at their next session.
Not a particle of quinine in Carter's Liver Bitters, but they are particularly recommended to those who have longed used quinine and felt its injurious effects. For sale by Reynolds & Daniel.
We referred last week to Mr. Giosen's proposed new building. We are glad to learn that he expects to use a part of the upper story for an opera house. Truly we hope he will. He is just the man to do it—our German friends appreciate amusements. And then it would no doubt pay well.

Boys' Clothing.
We have just received a new line of boys' clothing, suits from $3.50 to $10. All styles and quality. Call and examine. You can not fail of being suited.
JOHNSON & JOHNSON.

The "blow" which prevailed here on Monday of last week was general over the state and more severe in many parts.

Personals.
J. R. Williamson is again off for Laredo. Thanks to H. O. Thompson for favors.
Mr. Brittingham, general agent of the Galveston News, called on us last week.
Mr. Owens, the carpenter, is running the Driskill garden.
Peter Smith has removed his store to the old Briggs corner.
Crech has removed his shoe shop to the meat market.
J. S. Cruz of Wimberly was here on a visit last week.
Judge Moore was in town last week en route for court at Blanco.

Mr. Prosecutor Franklin, we notice is luxuriating in a new fence in front of his handsome place in our village.
Mr. W. R. McMullen and Miss Nellie Jenkins were married at the residence of the bride's parents on the Blanco, on Sunday last.
San Marcos society we learn is to be blessed ere long by the visit of some of the fairest daughters of Louisiana, who will be the guests of Mrs. Franklin and family.
Mr. Bonner, (K. Lantry) of Rockdale, representing the Houston Post, made us a pleasant call last week. He informed us that he is a relative of the late Mayor Coffield.
We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Irwin, which occurred about the middle of February, at Dripping Springs. She will be remembered as a former resident of this place, and for a time a teacher in the Institute. She died of consumption. She was a very worthy lady.

We saw Mrs. Randall's the other day a very stylish and costly dress, the handwork of the artistic Miss Emma. Of course it was got up in exquisite style, and no doubt is destined to make a sensation when donned by the fair owner, whose name we are not permitted to mention. Talk about hard times!
The last number of the Austin Sketch Book, among other good things, contains two full, well prepared articles descriptive of Colorado and Caldwell counties, their business etc., from the pen of Laura J. Irvine. It will be remembered that she proposed writing up our county for the Sketch Book last summer, but did not receive sufficient encouragement. There's where our people 'missed it,' in our opinion.—We also find in the same number of the Sketch Book a very good story from the pen of our fair, rarely-gifted and accomplished citizeness, Miss Mary Russell, of the San Marcos Book-store, a perusal of which of itself is worth more than the price of the number. The story, as we have said, is good, while for beauty and elegance of language and style, and elevation and nobility of sentiment, we have seldom, if ever, seen it surpassed. We have read and re-read it with much pleasure, and with no small amount of local pride that we have such a writer among us. It will probably be news to our readers—for she is as unobtrusive as she is meritorious—when we state that Miss Russell has written much that is equally good; but of late business engagements have compelled her to suspend her literary efforts.
