TUESDAY the 2nd day of May has been settled upon for the Union Picnic. Full particulars in next week's paper.

Go to Hinzie's for your supplies of family groceries. Very large purchases by him warrant low prices to his customers. The best articles at lowest prices always.

P. R. Turner & Co., are selling vast quantities of dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes &c., &c. judging from the crowds gathered in their store all during the day.

Why is it that the building of the Baptist church hangs fire? It was to have been completed ere this, and yet the foundations have not been laid.

Go to Fritz Lange's for iced summer beverages. He has a fine new soda font, and will turn out a better article of soda water than ever before. It will be always on hand and the best attention given.

Our Hook and Ladder Company are again fully organized. We will give a list of their names in our next issue. They propose giving a grand ball about the first of May.

To-morrow is San Jacinto day. The pupils of Mrs. Duncan's school, and perhaps others, are to celebrate it by holiday and picnic.

We noticed while en route to San Antonio the first of the week that the crop prospects were good. We think they are better here. The late cold winds however rather checked progress, and a good rain would now be beneficial.

A NORTHER SPRING up just after the issue of our last paper, and a great panic ensued for fear of a frost, everybody fully realizing its ruinous consequences if should come so as to kill the growing crops, fruit, &c. The mercury however did not get below about 45°, so we happily escaped. There is great rejoicing over it.

WANTED one number of the FREE PRESS for March 16. Will some subscriber who does not keep a file of the paper please favor us?

P. R. Turner & Co., have just received a car-load of galvanized barb wire, which they offer very low. Also a car of Avery wagons, the best in the market.

P. R. Turner & Co., had quite a rush last week selling their McDermott cultivators. All the cultivator needs to insure a sale, is a trial. Call on them one before they are all gone.

Open Again.

Mrs. Bell, of the old reliable Millinery store, would announce to her friends and the public that she is in receipt of her new Spring Stock, comprising the latest styles and best qualities of goods in her line in all its various departments. Her long experience in the business will enable her to guarantee satisfaction to her customers. She respectfully invites the ladies to call and examine her stock.

MRS. JORDAN is acting as agent at this place for the National Copying Company of Atlanta, Ga. This is one of the best establishments of the kind in the Union. They enlarge pictures to any size desired. We have some of their work and can speak understandingly. All whomay entrust them with their orders, through Mrs. Jordan, may be sure of satisfaction, and at the same time will aid a very worthy lady.

THERE was a special session of the Commissioners Court on Tuesday to inspect the work of the Court House contractors and pay them some money. The work thus far was entirely satisfactory. It could not be otherwise, for no such foundation of a building was ever laid in this county. The contractors are daily doing their whole duty to the people of the county.

THE SUPPER given by the Ladies Aid Society of St. Marks church, for the benefit of the same, postponed to Tuesday night, was a nice affair and a financial success. The tables were handsomely decorated with flowers, filled with good things, and attended by fair ladies of the church, comprising Mrs. Franklin, Mrs. Manlove, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Forsyth, Miss Nettie Cook, the Misses Franklin, Miss Clifton, Miss Lyell, and others. The San Marcos Brass Band furnished the music, and the Hook and Ladder Company were also present. It was an enjoyable occasion. May we have more of the same sort.

Personals.

Maj. Hinzie is in town. He says they also escaped frost at Palestine.

Prof. R-unsvall has secured another lease of the Institute for three years.

It was T. P. Dailey who elected alderman instead of Lu. J. as our types had it.

Col. Sledge, Capt. Storey, and others of this vicinity ship butter to San Antonio.

Capt. J. V. Hutchins bewails the loss of a fine mule, which died of colic.

Asa Belvin was in town the first of the week. He is filling his old position as enrolling clerk in the Legislature.

Col. Ellison has sent several large herds of cattle North and is getting others ready for the drive.

G. W. Kyser, of Luling, called on us last week to pay his subscription. He was looking well.

Miss Lide Davis, we learn, has returned from her long sojourn at the north to her home in Llano.

Miss Henne, of New Braunfels has been visiting her brother and sister at this place, for a week past.

We mentioned the recent re-appointment of Esquire Heaton as postmaster at this place. He is commissioned for four years. He gave bond in the sum of $16,000.

The article we publish on the friendships of Simon Cameron reminds us that he and the late Capt. Lawshe, of this place, though differing in politics, were close friends.

Both the Markley families who formerly resided here are living at San Antonio, except that T. J. is absent as blacksmith on one of the new railroads leading towards Mexico.

The gentleman who travels with Blind Tom, we learn, is a son or relative of his original owner, Gen. Bethune, of Alabama. O. T. Brown, of this place knew Tom when a little boy, just as his musical gift was first bringing him into notice.

Mr. Fromme of this place is a model and scientific gardener. He has had plenty of vegetables for his family all winter, and some to spare. We wish he had charge of the Woolfolk garden. In his hands it would pay both himself and the community.—Mr. Fromme purchased Miss Thrall's apiary, and has combined bee-culture with gardening.

We regret to record the death of A. J. Peel, of this county. He has been declining for some time, his disease being consumption. About a week before his death he left on an excursion in the hope of recovering his health, but only reached Blanco county, where he died on Monday morning last. He was an intelligent, enterprising citizen, whose loss will be felt.

L. W. Mitchell has returned from his ranch in Concho county, and confirms the sad news of the death of his foreman, Mr. Milligan, not long since. He was out hunting, and on firing off his gun, having somehow got tangled in the halter, his horse becoming frightened, ran off, dragging him to death. His clothes were all torn off and he was scarcely recognizable. He worked here with Mr. Rogers for some time, and was known as an excellent man.

American Ladies.

The first impression Sara Bernhardt received of the American ladies manifested itself thusly:—"Oh! ze ladies, ze are so beautiful, such clear complexion, nevare see before," all of which is due to the universal use of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, which insures a clear and clean complexion, and a healthy color. This recalls to mind the divine precept "cleanliness is next to Godliness."

The visit to this place last winter of Mr. and Mrs. Stoever, of Minnesota, will be remembered. The following notice, which we clip from the Henderson, Minn., Independent, gives some account of their subsequent movements, as also their impressions of Texas and San Marcos:

Maj. J. C. Stoever and wife returned, on Thursday last, from an extended trip to the south and east. The Maj. speaks very enthusiastically of the climate of Texas and its desirability as a place of residence during the winter months. Green grass, blooming flowers and singing birds contribute to the enjoyment of the tourist. Mrs. Stoever was particularly well pleased with Austin and San Marcos, Texas, at which latter city her old friend Miss Russell, formerly of Henderson, resides. Miss R. is the proprietress of a stationery and book store. She is well, prosperous and happy. For the last two or three months Mr. and Mrs. Stoever have been visiting friends and relatives in Pennsylvania. In returning to Minnesota, they visited several friends at Cleveland, Ohio, and at other points on the route. The Major reports almost continuous rain during his absence, but, notwithstanding this fact, they both express themselves as having had a pleasant trip.

Assessor. We are authorized to announce the name of A. F. BRIDGES, of Wimberly, as a candidate for the office of Assessor of Hays Co.

We met an intelligent lady of Mountain City last week on our return from Austin. She informed us she had been there shopping, and expressed regret that she had not gone to San Marcos, instead, as it was much less fatiguing, and she could have done quite as well if not better by purchasing here. Others would do well to make a note of this.
