BRYAN MAN BOOSTS HIS HOME TOWN

M. E. Wallace of The Eagle Tells About Bryan and Says a Word for Resolution 34.

Manager M. E. Wallace of The Eagle Printing Company has just returned from a business trip to Dallas and while there was not unmindful of his home town and the various interests of his community. The Dallas Daily Times-Herald man caught him between jumps for the following interview:

"You know Bryan is an educational center. We take pride in our schools and want the world to know what we have to offer in this line. Although we have suffered the past year from the seeming nationwide depression, we have gone right along building a little city and making Bryan a delightful place to live. We have paved all the downtown district, converted our trolley line between Bryan and College into electric service, secured ample water service; and that is not all. We have voted a bond issue of $400,000 to build eighty miles of road out of Bryan. These roads will be constructed at once and will be made of gravel, macadam or concrete and you can depend upon it parties touring through our county by auto in the future will sing our praise.

"You know a great many North Texas people come to the coast every summer, and we are on the logical route. And, too, we are anxious about the Sackett resolution, which will be voted on next Saturday week. This is the amendment separating A. & M. College from the University. We are expecting a big favorable vote from Dallas and other North Texas counties. I urge all to get out and vote for this amendment and when the Southern Traction Company extends its lines south and gives us an hourly service schedule each way we will come up and see you real often."

DEATH OF MRS. J. J. LEFEBURE.

Former Brazos County Lady Died at Home in Galveston.

The funeral of Mrs. J. J. Lefebure, who died suddenly at her home in Galveston Wednesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock from an attack of apoplexy, was held at Millican yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the remains were laid to rest in the Millican cemetery. Rev. Carroll, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Navasota, conducted the services.
Mrs. Lefebure was 43 years of age at the time of her death, and was born and reared at Hockley. After her marriage to J. J. Lefebure they lived at Millican in this county for a number of years, but had recently been making their home in Galveston.

She was a member of the Baptist Church of Millican and was an active church worker and ever willing to aid in the work of the Lord.

She is survived by her husband and one son, John Lefebure, of Galveston. She had a host of friends not only in Brazos County, but over the State, who mourn her loss and express heartfelt sympathy for the relatives and members of the family in their great sorrow.

JOE OPRSTENY MOVES TO HIS NEW STAND

Joe Oprsteny, who has for some time conducted a billiard business back of the First National Bank, is moving to his new quarters in the Dunn & Daly building, for many years occupied by the Dunn & Daly saloon. Mr. Oprsteny has always conducted a courteous and orderly place and has made many friends among his customers who upon visiting him in his new place will find that many improvements for the convenience of his trade have been added and they will receive the same courteous treatment accorded them in the past. He requests a continuance of your patronage and trusts you will not forget the new address in the Dunn & Daly building on Main street.—Adv.

ENTERTAINED WITH BARBECUE

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Shady of Foss Bridge entertained their friends of Bryan and Caldwell with a fine barbecue dinner and a day of enjoyment at the Gregg plantation near Foss Bridge yesterday. A number were present from both cities and from the community, and the dinner of fine barbecued meat and other edibles was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.
