HOUSTON OFFICER STABBED IN BACK

Claude Tucker Painfully Injured Taking W. H. High into Custody—is in Hospital.

Police Officer Claude Tucker was stabbed in the back and painfully wounded when he undertook to place W. H. High under arrest Monday afternoon at 1215 Cochran street. Tucker was taken to the Baptist Sanitarium in a private automobile, while High, who suffered a bruised head as the result of being struck, was taken to St. Joseph's Infirmary.

Officer Tucker went from his home to take High into custody and met High leaving the place, where a disturbance is said to have been raised. After being stabbed Officer Tucker pulled his revolver and struck High with it—Houston Post.

Claude Tucker was partly reared in Bryan and his many friends here will regret to learn of his misfortune. For several years he has been one of Houston's most efficient police officers.

TEN STATES HOLDING ELECTIONS

Governors to Be Elected in But Two. Woman Suffrage Leading Issue in Three.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Nov. 2.—Elections are being held in ten States today. The chief interest centers on suffrage amendments in New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

Maryland and Kentucky are voting on Governors. Statewide prohibition is the issue in Ohio, while in the other States local matters are at stake.

MORE PEACE TALK.

[By Associated Press.] London, Nov. 2.—Public interest today is centered on Rumania's reported intentions of joining the Entente allies. New classes of Rumanian recruits are being mobilized.

Vienna says the gravity in the relations between Bulgaria and Rumania may result from the proposed use of the lower Danube to transport Russian troops into Bulgaria.

The Germanic allies are closing in upon Nish, the Serbian capital, while the French claim losses to the Bulgarians in the southern fighting.

ALLIED TROOPS TO BALKANS.

[By Associated Press.] Amsterdam, Nov. 2.—A new Anglo-French expedition in the Balkans was announced by the Berlin Tageblatt. The newspaper's authority is a Sofia telegram that allied transports had appeared off Kavala, Greece.

BRITISH TORPEDO BOAT SUNK.

[By Associated Press.] London, Nov. 2.—The British torpedo boat No. 6 was sunk at Gibraltar yesterday following a collision with the Admiralty announces.

BERLIN REPORTS PROGRESS.

[By Associated Press.] Berlin, Nov. 2.—The German advances on Riga have made further progress, the War Office announces. Fierce fighting is reported from Divinsk.

The invading Teutons have taken Carak, an important Serbian railroad junction.

ASQUITH'S SPEECH.

[By Associated Press.] London, Nov. 2.—Premier Asquith, in his House of Commons address this afternoon, said that Field Marshal French now commands a million men.

That the Germans had not gained a foot since April, and that England's finances were in a serious condition. He recounted the British submarines' work in the Turkish campaign, sinking many ships of all classes.

VILLA TROOPS WITHDREW FROM BATTLE

Both Sides Suffered Losses—Bullets Whizzed Across Line and Half Dozen Americans Wounded.

[By Associated Press.] Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Major General Frederick Funston arrived this morning from San Antonio to take charge of the American forces here.

After four attacks during the night General Villa withdrew from Agua Prieta today, the supposition being his men went for water.

A half dozen persons on the American side were wounded.

The Carranza losses are unofficially reported at 250. Villa dead strewn the desert around the Mexican town.

Douglas trembled under the continuous concussion and the United States custom house was again peppered by bullets. The roof and porches were perforated in many places. No move was made by the United States army detachments to return the fire.

VOTING ON SUFFRAGE IN NEW YORK

List of "Don'ts" Prepared for Women Watchers at the Polls.

[By Associated Press.] New York, Nov. 2.—An interesting list of "don'ts" was issued today by the Woman's Political Union for the watchers at the polling places where the suffrage amendment is being voted on. A few of them are: "Don't wear fluffy ruffles;" "Don't ask inspectors to sharpen pencils;" "Do your own work;" "Don't talk; keep both eyes and ears open."

DIVORCES TO WAIT OFFICERS' RETURN

Petitions Against Men in the Firing Line Will Not Be Allowed While They Are Fighting.

[By Associated Press.] London, Nov. 2.—Divorce cases against officers and men serving at the front will have to stand over until they return to Great Britain. Such was the decision of Justice Sir Henry Baggave Deane, when asked for leave to serve a divorce petition upon an officer on the fighting line.

"It is not in the interest of the Nation," said the court, "for men to have their minds diverted from the duties by such matters. They had better stand over until the men return."
