[By Associated Press.]
 London, Nov. 12.—The publication of a decree dissolving the Greek Chamber of Deputies was received quietly in Athens, despite the fact that all elements hoped to avoid the elections during the present difficult moment. The government apparently found dissolution the only means of securing for itself full and undisputed liberty of action.

Greek officials here assert Greece's future actions depend upon military and not political considerations, and as soon as Greece is convinced the allies have enough troops to make a successful offensive against Bulgaria, Greece will immediately join the allies.

Berlin says the Serbians are being driven from their positions south of Kralievo, while southwest of Krusvac desperate fighting continues. Artillery combats continue at three sections on the Dardanelles.

On the Western front near Loos spirited bombardments occurred, the French claiming to have silenced certain German batteries.

FEARS SERBS CUT OFF.
 [By Associated Press.]
 Milan, Italy, Nov. 12.—There is grave reason to fear the main Serbian army, which is fighting the German-Bulgarian right wing, has been cut off between Kralievo and Nish, says a news dispatch. It is considered significant here as no news has been received from this army's holding at Katchanik, for five days.

ANCONA CAPTAIN REPORTS.

 Naples, Nov. 12.—Owners of the Ancona have received the report of her captain, positively charging the submarine neither gave warning to the Ancona nor afforded those on board an opportunity to escape. He says he stopped the Ancona when the first shot was fired, but the submarine continued firing. The captain says he ordered everybody into lifeboats, after which the submarine turned loose all her guns, killing and wounding many persons. The exact

WASHINGTON EAGER FOR NEWS.
 [By Associated Press.]
 Washington, Nov. 12.—State Department officials are perplexed over the unexplained delay in getting definite official information on the Ancona disaster. The official reports so far make no reference to the question of whether the Ancona was warned, the nationality of the submarine, or if any Americans were lost. A consular official has been ordered to Tunis to secure depositions of the survivors.

NO REPORT AT BERLIN.

STATE OFFICIALS MUST ECONOMIZE

Terrill Announced That Ten Dollars a Day Hotel Bills, Etc., Must Be Limited.

[By Associated Press.]
 Austin, Texas, November 12.—A letter mailed by Comptroller Terrill to all State department heads and heads of institutions advises that hereafter no expense accounts, including items for barbers, porters, clothes pressing, etc., will be honored. He also suggested purchase of mileage books by those traveling for the State, which he estimates will save $100,000 per year. Governor Ferguson is co-operating with the comptroller in an effort to maintain business principles in State expenditures. He will advise all appointees that such practices may mean loss of office to them. Ten dollars per day hotel bills and other exorbitant expenses will be allowed no more. Comptroller Terrill has taken this step in an effort to place expenditures of the State on a systematic businesslike basis.
