AMERICANS AND BANDITS IN DESPERATE BATTLE

Forty-two Villistas Were Killed, a Number Wounded and Seventy-five Horses and Mules Taken—Surprised by Americans Who Made a Night Ride of Thirty-six Miles.

[By Associated Press.]
San Antonio, Texas, May 6.—Forty-two Villistas were killed, a number wounded and seventy-five horses and mules captured yesterday when a full squadron of the Eleventh Cavalry, two hundred and thirty men, surprised and routed a much larger force of bandits seventeen miles south of Cuahurachic. It was officially announced at headquarters today. The Americans, under Major Howze, made a night ride of thirty-six miles from San Antonio to surprise the bandits. There were no American casualties.
The Villistas arrived at Ojo Azules the night before the fight with the Americans and tried to take the town from the Carranza garrison. Meeting resistance, the bandits decided to wait until morning. The Americans arrived shortly before dawn. Five Carranzistas, held for execution by the bandits, were released. General Pershing reports the American cavalry charged with pistols, the first occurrence of this kind during the operations.

Carranza Not Satisfied.

[By Associated Press.]
El Paso, Texas, May 6.—Generals Scott and Funston expected to hold another conference with General Obregon this afternoon at which the American suggestions for a co-operative disposal of Villa bands will take form, and they will sign the protocol. Prior to the meeting, however, came reports from Juarez not quite so optimistic, because Carranza is reported as being desirous of discussing further the question of the withdrawal of the Americans. The American representatives say there will be absolutely no change in Washington's attitude.

TEXAS WON MEET.

In the State Collegiate track meet at Houston Friday, the University at Austin captured the honors. The score by teams: Texas, 71-3; A. & M., 36-1-3; Rice, 7-1-3; Baylor, 7; Simmons, 4; S. M. U., 1.

A RUNAWAY.

One of the delivery teams of Cooper & Cole became frightened yesterday afternoon while the driver was trying to unhitch, and ran away, tearing up the wagon, but fortunately no one was hurt.

WASHINGTON WILL ACCEPT GERMANY REPLY

The Receipt by President Wilson of the Official Text of the German Note Strengthens the Belief that there Will Be No Break in the Relations Between Germany and the United States—President and Cabinet Are Still Studying the German Note—Desperate Fighting Resumed at Verdun and the Germans Make Gains.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, May 6.—The official German note, showing no material difference from the unofficial report, was laid before President Wilson this morning. It strengthens the probability that a diplomatic break has been averted, at least for the present. The cabinet members and officials studying the official text did not change the view that there will probably be no break, unless there are further attacks in violation of international law. Possibly the United States may make a brief reply, notifying Germany that as long as the new submarine orders are fully observed, the relations will not be discontinued.

Desperate Fighting Resumed.

[By Associated Press.]
London, May 6.—Heavy fighting has been resumed in the Verdun region and the Germans are again on the offensive, bringing up one fresh division and apparently making a new concentration of heavy artillery. Instead of attacking Dead Man's Hill, they are now bombarding Hill 304, southwest of, and toward Avocourt. Paris admits this afternoon the unusually violent bombardment there compelled the French to evacuate part of their trenches on the northern slope. Otherwise the German attempts were all blocked.

To Release American.

[By Associated Press.]
Dublin, May 6.—James M. Sullivan, former American minister to the Dominican Republic, imprisoned in Dublin Castle charged with implication in the Irish rebellion, will probably be released late today, it was officially stated. The American consul is active in his behalf.

An Irish Major Executed.

[By Associated Press.]
London, May 6.—It was officially announced that Major John McBride, the eighth leader of the Irish rebellion to suffer the death sentence of a court martial, has been shot.

Married and Then Shot.

[By Associated Press.]
Dublin, May 6.—Joseph Plunkett, an Irish rebel leader, was married just one hour before he was put to death, to Miss Giffard, sister of Mrs. Thomas MacDonagh, the widow of one of the first rebels to be executed.

Bernstorff Satisfied.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, May 6.—Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, returned from New York today. He said he had received no communication from Berlin, that his views were unchanged and that the note is all the United States asked.

ALLEN TOOK STATE MEET.

With the same team which swept the field at the A. & M. track meet three weeks ago, Allen again defeated the strongest schools of the state in the University meet at Austin yesterday with a score of 51 points. This gives Allen the undisputed right to the state championship and makes the ninth time she has gained this title.

Two new records were made. McClintock of Allen lowered the 120-yard hurdle record to 14.35 seconds. McClintock and Price of San Marcos both broke the former record of 10 feet 3 inches in the pole vault, price taking first with 10 feet 6 inches and McClintock second with 10 feet 4 inches. Borenskie of Allen also threw the discus within one inch of the former record of 112 feet.

McClintock led the individual point winners of the day with 20 points, while Lemon of Hardin was second with 13; Borenskie of Allen third with 11, and Dinan of Allen fourth with 10. After the events medals and cups were given the winners. Allen brought home sixteen medals and a cup as her share.

The score by schools was as follows: Allen 51, San Marcos Academy 48, Hardin School 28.

A. & M. VS. SOUTHWESTERN.

A. & M. will meet Southwestern University of Georgetown in the closing baseball game of the year at College Monday. Southwestern is running a strong race for first place in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Texas University and A. & M. being the other contenders.

A. & M. will return tonight from Dallas, completing a road trip which has been thoroughly satisfactory. A. & M. took one from Oklahoma University by a decisive score and the second game was cancelled on account of rain. They split even with the strong aggregation at Oklahoma A. & M. and returned by Dallas for two games with Dallas University.

Southwestern and A. & M. always stage fast, clean games, and Monday's contest promises to be up to the standard. Play will be called at 4 o'clock.

COTTON AGAIN SOARED TODAY—30

Report of Favorable European Negotiations Had Good Effect on the Market.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, May 6.—July cotton here today rose twenty-seven points on excited buying, touching the highest level since the February break, or six dollars and seventy-five cents above the low price of last winter. A favorable view of international politics caused the New Orleans market to rise a dollar and a half over last night's close.

HAITIEN SENATE WAS DISPERSED

Persisted in Holding a Meeting Despite the Warning of U. S. Admiral Caperton.

[By Associated Press.]
Port Au Prince, May 6.—The members of the Haitian senate who persisted in holding a meeting despite the warning of Admiral Caperton, commanding the American forces here, were dispersed today by a detachment of native troops under American officers. The senators protested but did not resist.

HENRY J. FORD IS SUED FOR DAMAGES

Naval League Asks Damages in Sum of One Hundred Thousand For Alleged Libel.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, May 6.—The Navy League today filed a libel suit in the District Supreme Court against Henry Ford asking one hundred thousand dollars damages. The league alleges libel in Ford's published statements opposing military preparedness.

HAD CLOSE CALL.

As John Crawford, a small boy, was crossing the H. & T. C. tracks on his bicycle near the station this morning, his wheel was caught in a switch track just in front of a moving train. He could not release the wheel, but jumped in time to save himself. The wheel was crushed.

The third wife of a Kansas City man, who complained that he kissed her too much, has been granted a divorce. He is probably grateful for the ad anyway.—Washington Herald.

"You should think of higher things." "I do. I am entirely unable to keep my mind off the price of meat and gasoline."—Washington Star.
