IMPROVEMENT WORK TO PROGRESS.

At the joint meeting yesterday afternoon at the City Hall between the City Council, the commissioners court and the Brazos County good roads advisory committee, the matters pertaining to improvements in the way of street paving and county road building and the connecting up of same were all gone over and discussed. It was found that sufficient funds were available for the work and that it would go forward without any hitch or delay on their part.

MRS. WILSON IMPROVING.

The friends of Mrs. J. P. Wilson will be delighted to learn that she is much better today after experiencing the shock she did Thursday evening. The attending physician says that she will be all right in a very short time.

ABOUT THE LOAFERS.

A reporter for The Eagle this morning happened to hear a contractor who has some work under construction in the city ask a big strong looking negro if he was working, and he replied that he was not hunting a job. The contractor told him that he could use him and all the others that he could get, but the negro walked away to find some shady place to loaf. This should be stopped. There is work in Bryan for every one who is willing to work and the officers should either have them working for themselves or else have them working for the county on the roads.

AMUSEMENTS.

A beautiful three-act special at the Dixie tonight with beautiful Miss Fritz Brunette in Selig's "The Test of Chivalry," supported by a star cast with William Duncan and Corine Griffith in "The High Cost of Living." A fine bill tonight.

EVERY TIME YOU EAT

You realize the importance of the quality of your groceries. That is our specialty quality. It cost us a little more, and we have to meet same prices as other dealers, but we find from experience that it pays in the long run, because we never lose our customers and we are always gaining new ones. It's the quality that does it.

There will be a called conference at the morning service.
Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services and worship with us. M. E. WEAVER, Pastor.

Missionary Program at Presbyterian Church.

Tomorrow will be missionary day in this church. The Sunday School hour will be devoted to a program on "Missions in Brazil."
At the 11 o'clock service Rev. T. C. Vinson, who formerly supplied this church, and who has just returned from Africa, will speak on the subject, "Black Africa, White Unto the Harvest." It is earnestly hoped that every member of the church will hear this most interesting lecture.

The public is also cordially invited. Westminster League at 7 p. m. Evening service at 8 p. m.

At the close of the morning service, there will be a meeting of the congregation for the purpose of electing such officers as may be deemed expedient. Every member is urged to be present.

CHARLTON H. STOREY, Pastor.

Special Notice.

There will be a special meeting of the Brazos County Interdenominational Sunday School Association Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. at the Christian Church. We are anxious to have the Sunday School workers from all the churches at this meeting. A special program will be rendered. Come and let us help build up all the Sunday Schools in our county.

C. M. BETHANY, President.
J. C. WELCH, Secretary.

Christian Church.

The following are the hours of service at the First Christian Church:
Bible School at 9:45 a. m.

Preaching and communion service at 11 a. m. and evening worship at 8 p. m.

Let us have a full attendance at Sunday School. Bro. Adams will have a fine report to give us. There will be a board meeting. Let all take notice. Our aim is 100 in the Bible School.
J. C. WELCH.

The Methodist Church Services.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services Sunday. The morning subject will be "The Growing Church," and at night, "Skilled Labor for the Master." These will be helpful for all.

The Sunday School and the leagues will meet at usual and at the regular times.

A cordial welcome awaits all.
CHAR. T. TALLY, Pastor.
