A MAN whose wife is as large as himself must have an extensive wardrobe.

Hogg's democracy would not bear the test of an analysis by a political chemist.

THE convention held by Cameron county republicans was split after the most approved style.

THE Galveston News tells us that "no matter how little a man wants here below he never gets quite all of it."

SOME Hogg converts are beginning to wonder if they haven't gotten down on the wrong side of the fence.

THE Aransas county democrats have passed very vigorous resolutions ratifying Clark's nomination, endorsing his platform and denouncing the Hogg convention.

IT is frequently said that people like to be humbugged. Is this the reason so many men cast their votes for a man for whom they feel nothing but contempt?

IF Judge Clark had been in Brownsville last night, he would have thought Texas was turned loose in earnest. A small but decidedly lively portion of the great state was very much at large.

THE Aransas Pass New Era protests against being ignored. It says: The correspondent who sent a letter to the Houston Post and Corpus Christi Caller, stating that there were none but Clark men in Rockport and Aransas county was certainly very near sighted.

THE Hoggites preach to democrats that they should preserve the unity of the party, yet many of them openly rejoice at the split, and did all in their power to widen the breach at first. When Matlock was pleading with Finley for recognition, and warning him of the consequences to the democrats party, high above all rang the continuous cry of Hogg's supporters: Bolt d—n you, bolt!

FRAUD IN JOURNALISM.

The recent exposure by the New York Sun of the fraud practiced on newspaper readers by its contemporary, the World, is rather startling.

We frequently hear people use such expressions as "only a newspaper yarn," and "you can't depend on what you read in the papers." This may be true in regard to miraculous snake or fish stories, but in the main things related by the newspapers may be relied on as facts, or at least believed to be such by the editor. In the case of the New York World, therefore, we are amazed that a journal of such importance as that paper and which is recognized as a standard in the journalistic world, and whose owner is known to be so wealthy, could stoop to such low methods. Pretended cablegrams, reporting interviews with noted personages to whose opinions great weight attaches, published in the World are proven by sworn statements to be false. Such action on the part of a newspaper can be called no other name than that of swindling, and as such, should be denounced by all newspapers. If purity in journalism be not maintained, then the press should be muzzled. The tendency to exaggerate small things and to rasp eagerly at anything sensational which is daily growing among editors is to be deplored, and when it comes to publishing accounts of events which had their birth in the brain of the editor, it is time to call a halt.

GOVERNOR Hogg must feel very proud of those supporters who say that they did all they could to injure his cause, that they admire Judge Clark, but don't admire Hogg, that the platform adopted by the Hogg convention is not all it should be, although it can do no harm to democracy, etc., etc. Such lukewarm support is worse than none at all.

PROF. JACOB BICKLER, democratic nominee for state superintendent of public instruction, is a gentleman of education and eminently qualified for the position. It is a well known fact that the Germans are more thorough in educational matters than Americans. There is nothing superficial about their learning.

WHEN a man once gets on the up grade every body is ready to give him a lift, but let him once start down and his velocity is increased by everyone he meets. Truly nothing succeeds like success, and nothing is a more dismal failure than the man whose heels are dogged by misfortune.

A STOCK company has been formed for the purpose of reclaiming a tract of swamp land in Florida which is eighty three miles long and from three to six miles wide. This land is to be drained and converted into a huge sugar plantation. It is estimated that it will cost no less $4,000,000 to do the work.

THE socialists demand universal suffrage regardless of color, creed or sex. This is probably a bait to induce the Susan B. Anthony's to stamp the country for that party. Women have a itching way you know.

LAREDO is infected with fire-bugs, it seems. A great remedy for the evils caused by these destructive insects is a system of waterworks. There are no fire bugs in Brownsville—but we are going to have waterworks in the sweet by and by.

THE Corpus Christi Caller says: "What do we get from planting potatoes?" asked a speaker at a Sunday school mass meeting in Nobleboro, Me., the other day, and a small boy piped out, "pertater bugs."

"FIGURES don't lie," so we are told, but they generally manage to serve the purpose of the party manipulating them.

A Chance To Hear The Phonograph.

Mr. J. L. Putegnat has made arrangement with Mr. Cummings, to have the Phonograph exhibited at his Drug Store on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, of this week from 6 to 10 p. m. In order that everybody can get a chance to hear this most wonderful talking machine, the charges for admission have been put at the lowest possible figures. For ten cents you may hear three pieces and a quarter will entitle you to eight. Mr. Cummings has a fine assortment of musical selections played by the best bands in the country; songs and sermons and better than all three or four of the Brady records. Go and hear how Brady administers justice as a police judge and then ask for his election speech. Some of our anonymous candidates might get pointers if they take in the phonograph.

The convention of Cameron county's republicans which met here last night to nominate delegates to the senatorial convention at Victoria and the state convention at Fort Worth, resulted in a split and two conventions being held. George More presided over the convention which was held by the members who walked out and R. B. Rentfro presided over the wing which remained in process of the hall. Two sets of delegates were appointed, but it is understood that the convention held by those who left the original meeting place of so far outnumbered the other that there is not likely to be a contest.
