Fifteen Kisses.

The monks of the middle ages divided the kiss into fifteen distinct and separate orders:

1. The decorous, or modest kiss.
2. The diplomatic, or kiss of policy.
3. The spying kiss, to ascertain if a woman has drunk wine.
4. The slave kiss.
5. The kiss infamous—a church penance.
6. The slipper kiss, practiced toward tyrants.
7. The judicial kiss.
8. The Judas kiss.
9. The religious kiss (kissing the crosses.)
10. The academical kiss (on joining a solemn brotherhood.)
11. The hand kiss.
12. The Judah kiss.
13. The medical kiss—for the purpose of healing some sickness.
14. The kiss of etiquette.
15. The kiss of love—the only real kiss.

When the Women First Voted.

It has been widely and erroneously stated that the women of Wyoming were the first to vote for a president of the United States. The Woman's Journal corrects this misunderstanding, and recalls the fact that the New Jersey convention that framed the constitution under which that state joined the union allowed women as well as men to vote if they were "worth £40." Under that constitution New Jersey women voted for George Washington for president. New Jersey women continued to vote for president until after Adams the first was elected. Then they were disfranchised.—New York Recorder.
