

Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had Eosoms on my hands and face for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mr. Henry Sigfried, of Cape May, N. J., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Bolls. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Bolls disappeared.

SCHLUTER'S AMENDMENT.

By Schluter—Joint resolution to amend the constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto article 11a, so as to allow incorporated cities and towns, by vote of the taxpayers thereof, to exempt for a term of years from local taxation certain species of property. Article 11a provides that any incorporated city or town, by ordinance duly passed, may for a term not exceeding twenty years exempt from the payment of all local taxes levied by such city or town any species of property which would otherwise be subject to the payment of such taxes; provided, however, that such ordinance, before taking effect, shall first be ratified by a vote of the taxpayers of such city or town at a special election called for that purpose; and provided further, that nothing contained in this statement shall be construed to affect in any manner the levying collection of taxes for State and county purposes.—Houston Post.

If we understand the above, it is equally equivalent to no exemption. It is usually the county taxation that hurts. We can see no good in such exemption. Either make the exemption an inducement, or don't exempt at all. It seems to the JIMPLECURE, that the amendment above cited, is discriminating against the holders of city bonds, and in favor of holders county bonds. Equal justice to all is the true principle of free government.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

One hundred years ago a man could not take a ride on a steamboat. He could not go from Washington to New York in a few hours. He had never heard of a Pullman palace car porter. He had never seen an electric light or dreamed of an electric car. He could not make a cake of ice as big as a lump of sugar. He could not cool himself under an electric fan or warm himself at a steam radiator. He could not send a telegram. He could not talk through the telephone, and he had never heard of the hello girl. He had never seen a shirt waist or heard of a rainy day skirt. He could not ride a bicycle. He could not call a stenographer and dictate a letter. He had never received a typewritten communication.

No matter how grave a crime he committed, he never could be executed for it. He had never heard of the germ theory or worried over bacilli and bacteria. He never looked pleasant before a photographer or had his picture taken. He wouldn't have known a complex lens from a gin rickey. He never heard of a Neptune and Ceres.

He couldn't measure the distance between the stars. He had heard of oxygen, but would not have understood an illusion to liquid air.

He had never heard of the molecular constitution of matter, or the conservation of energy, and did not know that he was decended from a monkey.

He could not predict a rain or announce the coming of a cold wave or a cyclone.

He was aware that there was such a thing as electricity, but looked upon it as a germ.

He never heard a phonograph talk or saw a kinetoscope turn a prize fight.

He never saw through a Webster unabridged dictionary with the aid of a Roentgen ray.

He had never taken a ride in an elevator.

He had never imagined such a thing as a type-setting machine or a typewriter.

He had never used anything but a wooden plow.

He had never seen his wife using a sewing machine.

He had never struck a match on his pants or anything else.

He had never hung up against a gas post.

He had never seen a flashlight or drank a cocktail.

He couldn't take an anesthetic and have his leg cut off without feeling it.

He knew nothing of geology, because
