Death of Mrs. Griffit.

Our friend, Mrs. Griffit, of Mt. Zion, departed from this earth on January 1st, 1906, about 6:30. She was a true and earnest Christian, a member of the Methodist church. She was 36 years old. She leaves a dear husband and five children, one a little babe one year old. She was laid to rest in Mt. Zion cemetery on the third day of the month. She had been sick about year with consumption, but did not take to her bed until Christmas eve. She was confined to her bed only one week when she told her dear ones she was going "home." Not long after that she commenced talking and her daughter went to her bedside to see what she wanted, and she was lying there like she was asleep. So the girl thought she was talking in her sleep. She stepped back to the fire to mind her little baby sister, but after a short time she went back to her mother's bedside and found her dead.

Weep not, dear father and children, for she has gone home to prepare a place for you.

A FRIEND.

Lodi, Tex., Jan. 12, 1906.

Charlie Goetzman returned to Moline, Ill., Sunday after a most pleasant visit of several weeks at his mother's and with friends. On Christmas eve a family re-union was held at the home in his honor. His brother, Rudolph, was here from Nacogdoches, and sister, Mrs. S. W. Scott, from Atlanta. It was a most pleasant occasion.

Copy of letter from Rev. Chancellor James Lowber, Austin:

"This certifies that I have heard Mr. Tennyson Smith in a series of lectures, and I express it mildly when I say that I have been delighted with his work. In many respects he reminds me of John B. Gough, whom I have had the privilege of hearing. He has done great good work in our city. Austin, Texas, Dec. 6, 1905.
