

Complete Display Men's Fine Clothing

New Suits, New Styles, New Ideas.

A splendid exhibition of correct clothes this week direct from the great fashion center, New York designed by a high salaried style expert and made by best tailors.

THE SUPERIORITY OF THIS SPERO-MICHAEL & SON CLOTHING

IS EASILY DEMONSTRATED WHEN YOU COME AND ALLOW US TO SHOW YOU ITS FINE POINTS.

THE CUSTOM TAILOR HAS BEEN THE USUAL COMPARISON IN CLOTHES MAKING. THE TROUBLE WORRY AND DISAPPOINTMENT ATTENDING THE PATRONAGE OF THE CUSTOM TAILOR, TOGETHER WITH MOST PERFECT FIT HIGH-CLASS MAKERS ARE NOW GIVING, HAS COMPLETELY REVALUTIONIZED METHODS

IN CLOTHES SELLING.

When you try on a S. M. & S. COAT you will understand why, for these Garments have all the little twists of fashion that prevail, and the fit and workmanship are perfect.

FROM A SMALL ORDER OF A FEW SUITS, BOUGHT WITH MISGIVING, AND OFFERED TO OUR PATRONS WITH APOLOGIES, OUR ORDERS HAVE STEADILY INCREASED—NEW CONVERTS TO OUR

SPERO-MICHAEL & SON CLOTHES

Have daily been added, until now we buy Several Thousand Dollars worth of their splendid Suits and sell them with confidence to an increasing number of satisfied customers.

WHY NOT BUY YOUR CLOTHING HERE.

For you will get out of the crowd of fairly dressed men and be distinguished for the good taste, styles and swing of your CLOTHES.

Death of Jas. Ford.
The death of Jas. Ford took place at his residence in this city (Friday) morning at 3 o'clock after a short illness. Mr. Ford was an old citizen and held the position of city marshal years past. He was well liked by every one. He leaves a young wife, an aged mother a married daughter, and a son nearly grown by a former marriage and several brothers to whom we extend deep sympathy in their bereavement. Deceased was a member of the U. B. A. lodge in this city.
The funeral will take place from residence at 9:30 Saturday morning. Burial at Old Foundry grave yard near Lodi.

The JIMPLICUTE has received cards in which Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver Hicks announce the marriage of their daughter, Olive Carroll to Mr. John F. Thompson, on Wednesday, June 5th, 1907. Jefferson, Texas. Miss Olive was a teacher in our city schools, and is a most charming young lady. While Mr. Thompson is a popular young mill man of near Lodi.
A concrete sidewalk was put down in front of Rosenfeld & Co's store this week, and we learn that several other property owners on that block will have concrete walks put down.

BEAUTIFUL HATS.

SOFAR—Our exclusive styles in Millinery have made a tremendous "HIT." The sensation of the season, and taken far in excess of our most sanguine expectations. They afford extremely graceful appearance to the wearer.

LADIES—if you are particular about your headwear, if you want a Hat that is "NIFTY" and one that is absolutely correct in style—

We say this—come to our Millinery Store and will please you one and all.

REMEMBER we are CLOSING OUT our entire stock through the month of JUNE at astonishingly LOW PRICES, to make room for our mid-summer styles. Don't fail to see one of our new Knox Sailors.

MRS. MURRAY-STREIF,

ROSENFELD OLD STAND.

Are You
One of our customers? If not just pause and ask and answer the question why? and think of the many thousands that are convinced that we carry a better assortment of merchandise, and sell for less profit and give you better value than any other house in East Texas, and yet you not one of that great throng of money savers.

Wm. Clark.

Bro. Newburn is a consecrated christian gentleman and gospel preacher. I take this opportunity of inviting the entire public to come out and hear him. Of course all christians regardless of creed are invited to attend and cooperate in the meeting to the extent of their ability. Yours for the good of Jefferson. J. S. Lewis.

Miss Eva Wells, who was with Kaplan Bros. at Giliam, La., has taken a position with the firm in Jefferson. She is quite a charming young lady and will be a delightful acquisition to the young people's social circle of our city.

The recital to be given by the pupils of Miss Eva Eberstadt is looked forward to with great interest by her many friends.

Mr. and Wm. Clark have returned home from Dickson, Tenn., whither they went to attend the 77th meeting of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and report a grand time and that the Assembly was the largest and most enthusiastic gathering of Cumberland Presbyterians ever assembled at any one time in the history of the denomination, and that the church today is in better working condition than at any time during the last half century of her existence, with all her boards filled with consecrated men, and her entire membership filled with the same spirit and full determination to place their all on the Master's altar, for the perpetuation of the grand old church with her whoeover will gospel. Mr. and Mrs. Clark while absent visited their old home in Nashville and Gallatin and was given a royal time.

Miss Carrie Moseley reached home Thursday from Bonham where she taught the past session
