A platform had been erected and dancing continued to a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Green were present from Shiner. Mr. Trautwein and the GAZETTE man partook of the abundant hospitalities of Mr. Pesek and partook of the refreshments both liquid and solid and after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Marek long life and prosperity took their departure.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

An Influential Citizen is Shot Accidentally.

After the shooting of the colored man, Williams, Sunday eve, there was quite a crowd gathered in the Arkansas Pass saloon and someone proposed to organize a party and go and look for the parties that did the shooting. While the preparations were being made to start out someone dropped a pistol on the floor and the weapon was discharged, the bullet striking Moritz Richter in the thigh and ranging upward and backward lodging in the hip and inflicting a wound about ten inches deep. Drs. Eidson, Scharnberg and Mitchell were sent for and every effort made to locate the ball but the probes but it proved to be so deeply imbedded that its removal was out of the question. Mr. Richter was removed to his home in a buggy and every effort made to make him comfortable. At this writing he is doing as well as could be expected and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery. Expressions of regret were general and none were more deeply moved than the one who was the innocent cause of the accident.

—Constable Jack Dockery arrested a negro in Moulton, Monday, for attempting to pass a one hundred bill. The fellow claimed that he picked it up in the streets of Waukegan and that he knew who dropped it. It will be remembered that Wm. Mulker was robbed of a one hundred dollar bill about a month ago, at the time he and John Hagensdorf were held up a short distance west of town. Officer Dockery's watchfulness can not be too well commended as a few such arrests would probably lead to the guilty parties. If not hundred dollar bills are so plentiful in Waukegan that they can be picked up on the streets, we believe we will go up there and stay a few days.

—At the fire meeting Tuesday night at the GAZETTE office a motion was made and carried that the fire company have its regular meetings in the Maurin building in the room next to Wofford's store. The next regular meeting will be held there, Wednesday night, Dec. 6th. The committee appointed to see to seats and lights consisted of Joe Ondrej, August Remmers and G. E. Ruhmann. Dues were collected to the amount of $13.50. Drill will take place next Sunday morning at nine o'clock at which time the chief will call the company together by ringing either the fire bell or the City hotel bell.

—Drs. Eidson and Scharnberg were called out into the country, Wednesday morning, to attend the little eight year old son of F. T. Kutach. The little fellow had been playing around his father's cotton gin and had his right arm caught in the rapidly revolving shaft. The fore finger was torn from his hand and his arm was broken above the wrist. It seems that he had a string tied around his arm and the string caught in the shaft and drew his hand and arm in with the above results.

—Henry Scharnberg has been engaged on a salary of $50 per month, to act as night watchman for the town of Shiner. A paper was circulated among the merchants and business men and all contributed liberally securing for Henry the above salary and he went on duty to guard against burglaries, fires and nocturnal disturbers of all kinds.

SAFE ROBBERY.

The Bismarck Saloon Burglarized by Unknown Parties.

The people of Shiner were startled about four o'clock, Thursday morning, by a heavy report as of an anvil fired but most attributed it to someone celebrating after the ball but at daylight it was found that J. H. Huebner's safe at the Bismarck saloon had been blown open and robbed of its contents, about $95. Entrance had been effected at the door of the saloon and a hole drilled through, the top of the safe through which the powder was poured and a match applied. The force of the explosion carried the safe door several feet away and knocked a big hole in the bar. The robbers secured $80 belonging to Mr. Huebner, $15 belonging to Henry Henkhaus and a silver watch the property of Otto Schwartz. A couple of watches lying behind the bar were overlooked. A couple of strangers who were in town all day Wednesday and were not to be found the morning after the robbery are supposed to be the guilty parties. They claimed to be from California and stated that they were iron workers and mechanics and it is supposed they were moved to take up their old trade, Thursday morning. The eldest of the two men claimed to be penniless and was put to work Wednesday afternoon assisting with the press work in the GAZETTE office. In the course of conversation he remarked as follows:

"I am only one out of thousands who are coming east from California penniless and with but little prospect of obtaining work west of the Mississippi. Many of these men are getting desperate, winter is coming on and the outlook is gloomy indeed. Mark my words they will be more crime this winter than was ever known in this country before. Prisons will lose their terrors for these men and hundreds will take up crime as their last and only resort."

This man was about thirty years old, was smooth faced and had a very prominent chin. He wore jeans pants, a woolen shirt, dark coat and hat. The other party was about twenty-two or three years old, was very slender and shalloy faced, wore no moustache and was dressed in dark clothes. These two men are the ones who are supposed to have committed the robbery, but it seems they have succeeded in making good their escape.

M. I. T. Ball.

Wednesday November 15 dawned bright and fair and the storm clouds that had obscured heavens face for several days were gone. In the evening the K. of P. ball opened wide its doors and the beauty and chivalry gathered there and danced to the enchanting strains of Joe Volino's larp and violins. Waltzes, polkas, lancers and squares filled the hours with pleasure rare and bright eyes grew brighter and fair cheeks grew fairer as the hours sped by. Each moment was fraught with pleasure and left delightful memories impressed on every heart. The M. I. T's had been anointed by no selfish visions of glory or surplus dollars in the treasury but by a patriotic desire for the pleasure of their fellow townsmen and the result proved that their efforts had been appreciated. There were present about forty-five couples. From Yoakum there were present Misses Lottie Stough, Maud Kasee, Ora Webb and Misses Hammon and Taylor, Messrs. Brandt, Humphrey, Dodd, Lee Schendler, and Clifford Foote.

Notice.

All those knowing themselves indebted to me will please come forward and settle by Dec. 1st, as I need money to close up my business. Settle with either me or J. H. Huebner at the Bismarck saloon, Shiner, Texas. C. WAGNER.

Buying Away from Home.

A representative of a wholesale clothing house of Houston, was in town over Sunday soliciting individual orders from the people of Shiner. The GAZETTE dislikes very much to see these salesmen come here, for several reasons. Every dollar that is spent with them goes out of the town and goes towards building up an enormous business in another city hundreds of miles from here. Call and see your home merchant and be satisfied.
