The Yoakum Herald in speaking of the funeral of Mr. Ernest Wangemann, who was killed by D. McGrew last Sunday week, says that the procession that followed the remains to their last resting place was one of the largest that was ever seen in Yoakum. Exclusive of the members of the lodges of which he was a member, 140 buggies were in the cortege.

Call on Ed Coleman for fruits and candies.

Louis Ehlers has a new boy at his home.

Joe Dworak, accompanied by his niece, Miss Tonie, left Saturday for Moulton to spend several days among friends.

Oscar Dittmar received notice from Moulton last week that his wife was very sick, and left immediately for that place. It is with much regret that we learn she is suffering from an attack of typhoid-malaria fever.

The young people got together Friday night and went out on a serenade. Mr. E. F. Ruhmann kindly tendered the use of his wagon, team and driver and they took in the town. While edibles, etc., were not found so plentiful, yet a good time was had. Through the columns of the GAZETTE they wish to thank Mr. Ruhmann for the loan of his team and driver.

Messrs. Flato & Green shipped thirteen cars of fat cattle to St. Louis markets Friday. It is estimated that they will average $35 a round. W. B. Welhausen, Chas. Welhausen and Jim Hollingsworth went along to take care of them. The cattle men in and around Shiner have been very fortunate in their investments in cattle this year which will probably increase the number of fat cattle here next season.

Gerhard Bohnenkamp of Moulton was here Wednesday last on business.

Mrs. Ernst from New Elm, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. K. Holchak.

Herman Striebeck of Breslau, was in Shiner the past week on business.

The Shiner GAZETTE gave a good account of the May-day celebration here. The GAZETTE is a good local paper.—Flatonian Record.

Miss Lora Cole of Stonewall, returned last week from a visit to Jackson county and the coast.

F. J. Kruegar of Moulton, was here yesterday on business.

J. W. Wiseman went to Cuero yesterday on business.

Emil Ruhmann, Frank Mewes, Ferd Luck, C. L. Williams, J. C. Blohm, L. Wagener and C. K. Holchak leave this morning on a fishing trip out on Rocky creek near J. D. A. Meyers' farm.

Wm. Ogston and lady of Stonewall were in town yesterday trading. Mr. Ogston reports but little rain in his neighborhood and the lice working on the cotton very bad.

Paul Kempe took a run down to the prairie city, Shiner, Monday and returned the same night, accompanied by S. A. Thulmeyer, who had been there a couple of days. They report a pleasant time at the hop there that night.—Flatonian Record.

When we met Postmaster Ed. Merrem Saturday evening, he wore the conventional smile that fathers always wear—a boy, Mother and child doing well. He said, "I can't complain about the irregularity of the mails (mails), I've got three at my house now."

Ernst Schramm, becoming tired of single blessedness, decided to surprise himself and his many friends in Shiner by capturing a booby bride. So last Wednesday he betook himself over to Ellinger and was married to Miss Selma Grindt, returning Thursday. He still wears a big broad smile, which leaves the unmarried boys to believe that "Love's labor is not always lost." The GAZETTE joins in the well wishes that are extended him, trusting to Father Time to deal gently and proffer a hand of happiness and prosperity as long as they both shall live.

While passing through Paris, Texas, last Friday the writer met J. H. Elliot, who was passenger conductor on the Waco branch for several years. He is now yard man at the Frisco yards at Paris, Arkansas Pass was first Yoakum to Waco, Conductor Elliot and Elliot were put on the Shiner every day going for several years. Two years ago they resigned and left the road. Bob Connelly was another familiar figure on the Sap, who has quit the road. He held down the Lockhart branch run for about eight years and is now in Mexico.

No Bond.
A telephone message from Cuero to H. B. Leonard, Esq., this morning was to the effect that L. D. McGrew, charged with the wilful murder of Ernest Wangemann here Sunday night, had waived examination and had been remanded to jail without bail. The witnesses in the case will not have to go to Cuero until the grand jury meets. Kleberg, Grimes, Baker & Leonard and John H. Bailey will assist District Attorney J. V. Vandenberge in the prosecution of the case and Messrs. A. G. Sterns and L. P. Wilson will conduct the defense.—Yoakum Daily Herald.

Ed Balhorn and Willie Fehenkamp came up from Moulton Monday evening.

Cotton prospects are certainly very bad. There are more lice on the stalks this year than was ever seen before.

Oscar Dittmar returned from Moulton Monday where he had been at the bedside of his wife, who has been critically ill. She is improving and is now out of danger.

O. H. Deutsch returned Monday from New Braunfels where he was called by the death of his grandfather, Alex. Reszozynski. The deceased was in his 78th year and had been a citizen of Texas forty years. The funeral took place Sunday. Mrs. Deutsch and daughter, Minnie, remained in New Braunfels and will visit there some two weeks.

Mr. Deutsch reports corn about New Braunfels, looking well but cotton very bad, owing to the lice plague. The trip to New Braunfels was made by way of San Antonio, but on his return he came by way of Gonzales. He says the best crop prospects he saw were about Gonzales and Shiner. A big rain fell at Gonzales Sunday night.

P. D. Smith left Tuesday for Kerrville to remain during the summer. He was accompanied by George Douglass.

Jim Hollingsworth, Ben Welhausen and C. B. Welhausen went to St. Louis last week with cattle. The latter will remain in the north about two weeks on a much needed vacation.

A CALL.
Members of the Literary and Social Club are notified to meet at the opera house Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Important business on hand.
CHAS. K. HOLCHAK, Pres.

Henry Neimeyer is afflicted with some bad sores on his hands. Several boils and a bone felon are some of his afflictions.

A young man from the country raised a disturbance in a saloon Monday and was in due course of time pulled by Loessin. His brother then undertook to pull Loessin and there was considerable pulling and hauling for a time, but the big marshal had the best of the fun. One of the young men was assessed about $9 for his part of the affair.
