

The Coming of Baby

brings joy or pain. It's for the mother to decide. With good health and a strong womanly organism, motherhood but adds to a woman's attractiveness.

McELREE'S

takes away all terrors by strengthening the vital organs. It fits a mother for baby's coming. By revitalizing the nerve centres it has brought chubby, crowing youngsters to thousands of weak women who feared they were barren. It purifies, heals, regulates and strengthens, and is good for all women at all times. No druggist could be without it. $1.00. For advice in cases requiring special sections, address, giving symptoms, The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

MRS. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga.—When I first took Wine of Cardui and been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby.

When the farmer proposes to release a plow, vehicle, nails, re, hardware of any sort, lumber, etc., he will be astonished at the increase in prices since last year. Everything he must buy is dearer and everything he would sell is cheaper stationary in price or lower. Implement dealers can't help his condition as it affects them, for the various trusts have put up the price of the raw material of which their implements are made, from 25 to 100 per cent. According to the Iron Age, which is standard authority, pig iron shows an advance of from $11 to $15.50 per ton; steel billets, $17 to $27 per ton; wire, $20 to $35 per ton; refined bars, $21 to $31 per ton, and all other hardware in proportion. Of course, implement makers must advance their prices and farmers must pay them.—Farm and Ranch.

Mr. McKinley will find it no easy job to raise a force of volunteers to assist in his expansion scheme. The sons of the men who wore the blue and the grey, loyal to the stars and stripes as they are, will not be anxious to undergo the hardships and privations of a dissolute campaign upon the recently acquired possessions. It is not a war for the protection or vindication of the union. It is one of covetousness, in which no American soldier desires to be a participant.—LaGrange Journal.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Eain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Stobcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale at all druggists.

The Roundlap Bale.

AN IRRESISTIBLE DEMAND EXISTS FOR COTTON BALE IN THE NEW WAY.

Some Facts About the Methods of the American Cotton Company and its Campaign—Profits in the New Method of Baling.

The South is still conservative, but it is no longer "slow." It is sharing in the wonderful prosperity of the rest of the country. It is passing through a revolution that is giving new life and vigor to every branch of the cotton industry, excepting those members which have been hurtful. Instead of helpful, to its prosperity. It is simplifying, strengthening and using a new economy in the packing and handling of the staple. The Roundlap method of baling cotton is growing rapidly in favor, adding to the prosperity of the planter, whether he raises two bales or two hundred, and giving the gin owner an opportunity to double the earning capacity of his plant without increasing his investment.

The opposition to the Roundlap bale on the part of the compress owners and the middlemen, whose business has been a burdensome tax on the cotton planter, has not prevented the steady introduction of the machinery for making the Roundlap bale, and the satisfaction of the farmer, the gin owner and the mill owner. The attacks on the American Cotton Company, owners of the Roundlap baling machine, have been bitter and unscrupulous. They have been accused of attempting to gain a monopoly, of using "trust" methods, but gradually the facts are gaining headway that the American Cotton Company is only one of three concerns engaged in making round baling presses, and that it can not enjoy any monopoly.

Then again, objection is made to the policy adopted by the company of leasing its machinery to the gin owner instead of selling it. The lease is, in effect, a royalty, the amount of the rental being based on the amount of cotton baled in the press, thus making the profit and prosperity of the company depend on that of the gin owner. Under the leasing system, it is found, the gin owner runs no risk, ties up none of his capital, and makes as much profit out of the leased attachment to his gin as from the gin itself, in which his capital is invested.

The advantages of the Roundlap bale over the old style bale are so many and so great that its general introduction will be rapid, and the greatest sharers in the profits will be those who perceive earliest the tendency of the times and prepare themselves to supply the new demand. The greater simplicity of the bale, saving ties and bagging, its greater security from fire and consequent lower insurance, its saving in shipping and its rapidly growing popularity in the mills at home and abroad, all make up a situation that creates a demand for the Roundlap bale which must be supplied.

A Card of Thanks.

I wish to say that I feel under obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. Doty, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by all Druggists.

It is evident that the hornets' nest struck by General Lawton at Manila was nothing like the hornets' nest at Stillb. In one only a dozen were killed. In the other the soldiers fell by the thousand.—Galveston News.

The July Number of The Delineator is Called The Summer Holiday Number.

And embraces an Accurate and Comprehensive Forecast and Review of Fashion's most artistic and tendencies, a variety of singular excellence and discussions of universal interest on Social and Household themes. A powerful, melodramatic story of the Tennessee mountains, by Francis Lynde, is found in this number, and a picturesque sketch of lowly Southern life is also presented in Uncle Pete's Holiday, by Jessie Beene Winston. An article by Mrs. J. Weir on Japanese Babies affords an agreeable insight into child life in the East. In addition, Fancy Stitches and Embroideries, by Emma Haywood, the Millener, the Dressmaker, Knitting, Crocheting, Tatting, the Newest Books, etc., are replete with pertinent information as entertaining as it is instructive.

Would not Suffer so Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
