

Green's School Items.

Well as I have a little time I will try to scribble a few lines to the Gazette readers.

Cotton picking is the order of the day now. Some farmers will make a very short crop.

We had showers of rain here Saturday and Sunday which we did not care for very much, but they were beneficial to the pastures but not to the cotton.

Quite a number of our young people attended the dance at Henkhaus Saturday night, Aug. 23, and all reported an enjoyable time.

C. Hirsch and wife visited the family of Joe Kleihege.

Ad. Ullmann came around Sunday to visit his best girl.

All our regular visitors were out here again Sunday. That's right, glad to meet you.

Albert Kurtz and wife were visiting their son, Jacob.

Joe Schraer and family were visiting the family of Joe Kleihege the other Sunday.

Dandelion, of Sunset, you must write oftener.

The writer of this was last week in the office of the Gazette on a business matter.

I was in Henkhaus last Friday and Mr. F. Darilek told me that he ginned about ninety bales of cotton this year. Hope it will be better next year.

Hy. Schraer was, on the 22nd of August, in Moulton on a business matter. He is very often in that place on business and also near Henkhaus. What is the matter?

Boys, don't you know that it is Leap Year? Better let the girls have the opportunity to go and see the boys this year.

Sweet Sixteen.

South Texas socialists will have a big Encampment at Hallettsville on Sept. 14 to 19, inclusive, and very large crowds of socialists and others desiring to learn more about the doctrine are expected from all parts of the state. Wood water and shady camp ground free. Among the speakers will be Mrs. Laura B. Payne, "Uncle Sam" Hampton, Lee Rhodes, W. S. Noble, Z. Panek and others; also a debate is probable. German and Bohemian speeches on the 18th and 19th. Low rates from all points on the S. A. & A. P. railway, tickets being on sale 13th, 14th and 15th, limited to the 21st.

Dryer News.

August 30.—Jupiter Pluvius is again shedding his tears in this country; dry weather is wanted now so the farmers can pick their cotton.

B. C. Neighbors, Frank Klohs, Jr., and Ben Schumacher and wife, all of this place, were business visitors in Gonzales Tuesday.

Messrs. F. P. Luck and Paul Kempe of Shiner were shaking hands with friends here Wednesday.

The sad news has reached us that August Erdmann, who, up to a year ago, held a position here in the blacksmith shop of Schroeder Bros., was recently accidentally killed in Ft. Worth. The deceased was twenty-one years and some months old and leaves his bereaved parents and a devoted sister, who reside in Bremen in the old country; also a number of friends here and wherever he was known, to mourn his untimely death.

Mrs. Ida Burkett is on the sick list; we wish her a speedy recovery.

F. G. Gerdes was trading in your city Tuesday.

Frita Macker attended the ball at Centerville school last night, and reports a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sachtleben, who reside in Blanco Mountains, Ha. s Co., passed through here one day last week on a visit to relatives at Cheapside and other points.

Miss Brooksie Moore spent today with Miss Nellie Neighbors. Carl Schroeder and family returned from Bello Friday.

As news is scarce I will close, BLONDE.

Nickel Letter.

August 27.—Farmers are quite busy gathering and marketing cotton despite the low price, 8 1/2 cts. The crop is short in this section, the bulk will be gathered by last of October. Then corn harvesting will be on hand.

Many cattle deals are in evidence by the number seen passing through our burg.

Mr. Quebedaux is having a barn erected, it will soon be ready for new corn, of which the crop is heavy.

Mrs. Penn Woods and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Quebedaux.

Mrs. Griffin and little Miss Gladys Catherine Cooper were visitors at Mr. A. P. Cobb's of Dilworth.

Miss Irene Hodges, who spent several days with relatives here, is visiting relatives at Sterin.

John Cooper visited his brother, Geo Cooper, and family of this place.

Mrs. J. T. Thompson has gone on a recuperating trip to Uvalde and other points to be absent for some time. We hope for a safe return.

Mrs. Jno. Bailey has been quite sick with Lagrippe, but we are glad to note convalescence at this writing.

Mrs. Jim Bailey of Gonzales is the guest of Mrs. Jno. Bailey and family at present.

Rain is badly needed as stock water is scarce.

Our public school will be taught by Mrs. Ruby Sockwell this term, beginning about October 1st.

We are to lose another old land mark, Mrs. C. K. Reeves will move to Gonzales in the near future to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. McCaleb.

Mr. B. T. J. Thornton and family of Old Moulton have moved to Flatonia, another old land mark and member of Baptist church has weakened the ranks of our church. Our loss is another's gain.

The Gonzales Fair, September 16; 17, 18, inclusive, will be well reported from this section.

Health of our community only moderate. More soon, Amicus.

Oak Grove Cullings.

"GESUNDHEIT IST BESSER WIE KRANKHEIT."

It is an old German proverb which always holds good! There is genuine health in OUR NEW "TEXAS PRIDE" beer, for there is no purer beer brewed and our motto is: "Not how cheap, but how good." Nothing but the Very Best Malt and the Finest Imported Hops, in connection with the purest artesian distilled water are used in the manufacture of same. It is aged in steel Enamelled Glass Tanks in a sterilized atmosphere; the result is a food and the hops a tonic consequently a healthy promoter.

We do not ask you to drink your beer on account of encouraging and sustaining a "Home" industry alone, but lay stress on the fact that we have absolutely a superior article.

Lay prejudice aside, try it, and be convinced!
