"Pittsburgh Perfect" is made of all galvanized steel wires. It is the only fence welded by electricity. Every rod is guaranteed perfect. All large wires, the stays being the same size as line wires. It has no wraps to hold moisture and cause rust.

Kicked by a Mad Horse

Samuel Birch, of Beetown, Wis., had a most narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. Its the greatest healer of ulcers, burns, boils, eczema, scalds, cuts, corns, cold-sores, bruises and sore feet. Try it. 25c at Schulze, Gray & Co.

Guadalupe River Ripples.

To the Gazette:
As I have not written for so long I have about forgotten how to scribble with my old knobby fist, but will try all the same.
Having plenty of rain in this section of the country, and, in fact, am afraid we river people will have to take a swim, for Mr. River might get up if it keeps on. But then, we have a bridge and when the worst comes we can get on there and defy Mr. River.
This reminds me of a story I once read, as follows: Ruben Henay said he'd seen some mighty cold weather. Somebody asked: "Rube, how cold did you ever see it get?" He said: "Well, sir, one time when I was living down in Pickaway county, in hog killing time, we had a kettle of boiling water setting on the stove, and we took it out in the yard and it froze so dog-gone quick the ice was hot."
Otto Schulze and Anton Schilhab were at Cheapside the past week.
Hermann Dreyer was at the village of Dryer Saturday.
Ye scribe heard they also had a school trustees election at Dryer last Saturday.
R. A. Dreyer had out several road hands last week, working the road.
Albert Wendt of near Shiner, was in our section Sunday.
Cotton and corn that is up is looking well. All we need is dry weather for a while.
Mrs. Dora Zimmerman and daughter, Miss Alma, were visiting in our vicinity Sunday.
Mrs. Zimmerman and daughter were in Cost, Texas, the past week.
Plenty of driving over the new bridge since it has been finished.
So will close and wish all prosperity.
O. K. VALLEY SCRIB.
