A genuine cordovan shoe at Wood Bros.
Rev. I. Weiss left this morning for Henderson, where he lectures at the Presbyterian tonight. He went on invitation of Rev. Wood, pastor of that church.
Dr. C. H. Barton and wife are now occupying their beautiful new home on North Sycamore street. This is one of the prettiest of the new houses recently built in Palestine.
Organizer D. M. Wells of the International Typographical Union, with headquarters in Austin, is in the city today. He is en route home from Tyler and Marshall, in which cities he has succeeded in unionizing the typos.
"Quilting Bee" No. 2 will be with Mrs. Rip Cook on Thursday, Nov. 19, from 1 to 6 o'clock, and quilting No. 3 will be with Mrs. Will Hewitt on Saturday, Nov. 21, from 1 to 6 o'clock. All members of the John H. Reagan Chapter and friends are cordially invited to both quiltings.
Mrs. W. J. Crawford, Pres. Jno. H. Reagan Chap., U. D. C.
"It is better to be sure than sorry." Be sure you are going to the right place to buy shoes. It stands to reason that you get better shoes at a shoe store than a general store. Cooke and Inkley have the largest and best stock of goods in Palestine. They sell nothing but footwear.
Wood Bros. are going out of the clothing business.

You may be getting good groceries for your money, and you may be getting your money's worth, but how can you know this until you see my groceries and get my prices? I do not do business on the theory that just any old thing will do. Nothing is too good for my customers.
J. S. TEMPLE.

A great number of people visited the oil fields yesterday, and the oil fever is correspondingly high today. One thing is noticeable about the oil field, and that is the people who visit it oftenest and investigate it most are the most enthusiastic believers in it. Men who have studied the ground are positive that a great oil field is to come of it.

Do not fail to see the beautiful "Ladies' Home Journal" booth at the bazaar on Dec. 19. Those desiring to subscribe or renew subscriptions for the Journal are invited to do so through the Junior Women's Guild of St. Philip's Parish. Phone 531.

W. H. Bradbury and wife of Leroy were in town Tuesday and paid us a visit. Among other business matters to attend to that day Mr. Bradbury put on record a deed to a town lot in Leroy. It was a gift from Mr. Trice of the I. & G. N. railroad, to Wm. McKinley Bradbury, infant son of Mr. Bradbury and wife, and the first born in the new town of Leroy. The child is now thirteen months old, a bright baby, fine looking (takes that from his mother, though), and we hope he may grow up to be a pride and pleasure to our friend and his good wife.—Waco Tribune.

St. Philip's Ministering Children's League, an organization for the support of missions, will hold a bazaar on Saturday, December 19th, at which doll and baby novelties will be on sale.

Piano Recital.

I attended the piano recital of the Misses Crozier last Friday evening at their studio in the McKnight block. They are both accomplished teachers, having been trained by one of the best instructors in the United States, Prof. August Schemmel. The excellency of their method is not shown in teaching young pupils difficult pieces beyond their grade, but in instilling into their young minds the rudimentary principles of music. I was surprised at the correctness with which little girls, who had been taking lessons only about two months, executed their pieces.

Little Nannie Durham excited the wonder and admiration of the audience. She has made remarkable progress.
Miss Jewel DuBose, who has been taking lessons longer than any of the other pupils, performs with a skill considerably beyond her years. The same may be said of Miss Lucille Neville.

I have not time to particularly mention others, but all performed in a highly creditable manner. All the pupils seemed to take a deep interest in their music, and to be inspired with a desire to excel. Several were absent, but the following were on the program:

Rosa May Crozier, Jewel DuBose, Lucille Neville, Mary Selden, Willie May Bridges, Josie Ellis, Jennie May Dick, Pearl DuBose, Nannie Durham, Georgia Laura Dick.

I understand that the Misses Crozier will give these recitals every few weeks. OBSERVER.

Blankets

This store holds more blankets—good blankets—than all Palestine. There was a reason for such large purchases—but thereby hangs a tale. We are ready however to take another such lot on top of what we own—at the same prices. They are marked to "hurry out"—but for the next week only we offer you fifteen per cent off even those prices.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by Avenue Drug Store.
