PERSONAL NOTES.

N. A. Rector, of Austin, is here today.

J. P. Parker, of Trinity, is in the city.

Today was pay day in the general offices.

D. C. Malloy left for Fort Worth this morning.

L. M. Presnal and wife, of Sour Lake, are in the city.

Judge Jno. M. Duncan returned to Tyler this morning.

W. T. Gilbert, grand secretary of the U. C. T., is in the city.

J. O. Montgomery, of Henderson, is doing business in the city.

The shops will resume work Monday, after a ten days' lay-off.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bateman, on New Year's day, a fine boy.

Telephone 444—The Hamilton Boys, you know, like kid gloves.

Nat Dobbe and family went over to Chandler this morning to visit Mr. Dobbe's parents.

Geo. Wright, Jr., after a holiday visit home, will return to his school at Waco tomorrow.

The Herald started the New Year with a good batch of new subscribers. Hope it will keep up all the year.

Mrs. E. L. Carter of Commerce returned to her home this morning, after a visit to Mrs. Harry Davis.

More smokestacks for 1904 is a good end to work for. The bucket brigade is a vital part of a prosperous town.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wright, who have been spending the holidays with relatives, will return to their home in Mart tonight.

Today has been tied on to the southeast end of a norther, and everybody has stepped lively. Especially the bill collector.

The next big thing on the local calendar is the Elks' minstrel, and they say it is going to be a hummer. All of the local stars have been engaged.

Mr. Albert Taylor guarantees an exceptional bill tonight in "The Politician." This is the bill that made Roland Reed famous.

Luther Harmon is home from Dallas, and left this afternoon for Grape-land on receipt of a telephone message that his aunt, Mrs. Harmon, was dying.

W. E. Adams left for Grapeland at noon, called there by a message announcing that his wife's mother, Mrs. Harmon, was dying.

Miss Nita Farrell, a charming young lady of Jacksonville, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. P. Royall, during the holidays, returned to her home this morning. While here she made many friends.

Prof. W. F. Davis was a caller on the Herald yesterday. He had just returned from the State meeting of school teachers at Marlin and reports a fine meeting. Prof. Davis is one of Anderson county's most progressive teachers.

Commencing Monday January 4th,

THE NEW YEAR.

"The moving finger writes and having writ,
Moves on; nor all thy piety nor wit
Shall lure it back to cancel half a line,
Nor all your tears wash out a line of it."

Mr. and Mrs. Horwits at Home.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. H. Horwits received at their home on South Sycamore in honor of their guest, Miss Irma Hartfield of Henderson, Kentucky, and the occasion proved a most happy and brilliant one.

The color scheme of the evening was red and green, and the home was decorated throughout with holly, mistletoe and Southern smilax, making a beautiful setting.

Mrs. Harrison, who received at the door, ushered the guests into the parlor, where Mrs. Horwits and her fair Kentucky visitor received them under a shower of evergreens.

Miss Hartfield is one of the most beautiful of the many fair guests who have contributed to the social life of Palestine this season, and never looked more charming than while standing with her hostess as the central figure in this pretty picture.

At 9:30 a unique leap year feature was introduced. Mrs. Horwits passed around to the young ladies a box containing the gentlemen's names, each drawing one, which gave them their partners for the beginning of a delightful game of whist, and also their partners to supper. The prizes were awarded as follows: Miss Teah captured first prize, an elegant piece of stationery; Mr. Will Klein the head gentleman's prize, a traveling companion; Miss Stella Davis the consolation prize; Mr. Leiser the gentleman's consolation; Miss Hartfield the guests' prize, and also the booby; Dr. Busby the gentleman's booby.

The dining room doors were thrown open at 11:30 o'clock, and there a beautiful sight greeted the eye. The table was laced with red ribbons, and above the table, suspended from the ceiling was the name of the charming guest, "Irma," in large letters of green and red. Many brilliant toasts were made to old Kentucky and its fair representative, after which all adjourned to the parlors and enjoyed dancing.

Those in attendance were:
Misses Hartfield, Stella Ash, Flora

Messrs. Busby, Leiser, Kay, Naiman, Burke, Klein, Corbett, Lucas, Rainey, Harrison, Goldberg.

The reception by the Ladies' Auxiliary at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon and evening was one of the most pleasant of the New Year events. A very large number of ladies and gentlemen called during the hours of the reception and were entertained with music, New Year greetings, and served with light refreshments.

The Light Seekers, social and literary club, kept open house at the home of the Misses Hunter, and in the afternoon and evening hundreds of friends called. The occasion was a most happy one. An orchestra furnished music and dainty refreshments were served. The Light Seekers have established themselves in the good graces of hundreds of our people, and have shown that they are not only capable of acquiring light, but understand thoroughly the art of dispensing light for the comfort and happiness of others.

Ten Days' Meeting.

Beginning Monday night, Jan. 4th, Rev. G. W. Ray will begin a ten days' meeting at the Congregational church. Rev. Ray comes from Fort Worth, and is well known to many of our people. He comes with the highest endorsement of Ft. Worth people. Services will be held daily at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m.
