

Lavender is one of the cleanest, sweetest perfumes in existence, and sachet bags filled with its flowers give to clothes closet or linen press a delicious, refined, old-fashioned fragrance. It is a romantic odor. It is romance, sentiment crystallized-if an odor can be said to be a crystallization of anything. It never satiates or cloys, and it never goes out of fashion, because it never comes into fashlon. Half a pound of dried lavender flowers, half an cunce each of extract of musk and simple benzoin and one-fourth of an ounce of oil of Invender make a delicious filling for a sachet for use with bed linen.

Child's Coat.

Long coats that cover the frocks are the most becoming of all styles for little girls. This one is peculiarly charming and includes the fashionable shirrings that give are many other materials equally appropriate.

The coat consists of the yoke, the fronts and the back which are shirred and foined thereto. The sleeves are shirred at their upper portions and joined to shallow caps, and are finished with shaped cuffs that barmonize with the collar.

The quantity of material required for medium size (8 years) is 4% yards 21 inches wide, 41/4 yards 27 inches wide or 2% yards 44 inches wide, and with 4 yards of braid to trim as illus-

The pattern 4675 is cut in sizes for girls of 4, 6, 8 and 10 years of age.

A naint brush makes a good swal using cake tins. Of course the itter applied must be melted. If the bread krife is hot new bread can be cut as easily as old. But, if you would not spoi! your knife, do not make it too hot.

One reason that an omelet is so often a failure is the use of too many eggs. The more eggs the more difficult the matter of turning and folding. Four eggs are all that should ever be used at one time.

Always keep your celery roots and dry them. They are good for seasoning soups and sauces.

Instead of ricing the potatoes directly into the serving dish, mash them first and season, and then rice them ready for the table.

opics of Interest to Our Feminine Readers-Patterns and Descriptions of the Latest Fashions-Lavender Sachet Easily Made-Cape with Hood for the Baby.

Rugs that have a tendency to cur' may be straightened by sewing haircloth or buckram to the corner or on the under side.

If your window glass is lacking in brilliancy clean it with liquid paste made of alcohol and whiting. A little of this mixture will remove specks and impart a high luster to the glass. Old stockings cut down the seams make splendid cloths for polishing furniture, and they make up into soft iron holders also.

Asbestos cloth should be kept on hand to use as a pad under the hot platter, small squares should be put as interlining for Iron holders, and a plece should be used on the ironing board to save the sheet.

In making down pillows the inside of the lining should be gone over with an fron rubbed well with beeswax each time it is put on the cloth, and this will prevent the down working made of pastel through the cloth.

Flat Irons should be washed once a week and kept in a clean, dry place; wax should by used frequently when froning and the frons should not be allowed to become red bot or they will never again retain heat.

The old-fashioned ruche is pretty at the neck and throat.

High girdles are shown on street and house costumes. Black zibeline, with fiber braid, makes a stylish blouse. Fancy buttons of bone or horn in color to match the coat are worn. A touch of gold in the decoration of an all-black gown is effective. Cuffs and collars in bands of bright mbroidery make a plain shirt waist look smart. The close-fitting turban, the toque and the round hat shape are accepted models for general wear. An exceptionally smart example of military modes 13 a costume or army blue serge trimmed with black braid and brass buttons. The New Bulgarian Embroidery.

The new Bulgarian embroidery will be still more popular as the season advances. It is done on heavy linen in all colors. A favorite combination is red and blue. The embroidery is done with a heavy linen floss, which is

An attractive Bulgarian centerpiece of ecru linen had a scalloped edge, buttonhole stitched with red linen. A border of poinsettas around the edge was also worked with the red. Dresser scarfs, table and couch spreads, portieres and all sorts of house furnish-can be readily cleansed, as is commonly the case with Oriental silks. This pretty waist shows the fabric in white with trimming of heavy cream of lace 21/2 inches wide. lace and is adapted to both the odd plaits are eminently fashionable and address on receipt of ten cents.

COREAN CREPE AND LACE.

Of the many novel materials shown the epaulettes, formed by joining two none is more attractive than Corean strips of the lace, give the broad and crepe, which is soft yet durable, and drooping line that has become general. To make the waist for a woman of medium size will be required 2% yards of materia' 21 or 27 or 21/4 yards 44 inches wide, with 31/2 yards

A May Manton pattern, No. 4662, waist and the gown. The narrow box sizes 32 to 40, will be mailed to any ings are made of denims or linens and worked with the Bulgarian embroidery. It ought to be especially suitable for decoration of the summer cottage.

Fancy Blouse.

Blouses of all sorts are greatly in vogue and make an important feature of the latest styles. This one is adapted to a wide range of materials and to almost numberless combinations, but is shown in checked black and white silk, with trimmings of black velvet and white cloth bands that are stitched with corticelli silk. and is combined with a chemisette and under-sleeves of cream lace. Both fronts and 4676 Fancy Blouse, back are tucked.

the former at the extreme outer edge of the shoulders, so giving the broad effect and concealing the arms-eye seams, the latter to give a box plaited effect at the center. The sleeves are novel and graceful and are finished lining which is closed at the center front. On this lining are arranged the chemisette, the back and the fronts and the closing is made invisibly benezth the band. The sleeves are seng above the elbows with deep box plaited frills below which fall gracefully over the big puffs beneath.

The quantity of material required for medium size is 3% yards 21 inches wide or 1% yards 44 inches wide, with 214 yards of all-over lace. % yards of bias velvet and % yards of cloth for bands.

The pattern 46/6 is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 26, 38 and 40 inch bust meas-

Cape With Hood for Baby.

from its first day to several years old, is a cape with hood, made of a good quality French flannel, writes a correspondent. The hood is lined with white China silk, and cape lined with thick canton flannel, the woolly side out. I have had one for two babies. and it is now as good as new. The color is a deep sky blue, with white stripes. The cost of mine was $1.50. including China silk, but not canton flannel. I used a five-year size, milltary cape pattern, which can be taken in a little more a the neck.

Blouse Eton.

Short coats are to be noted on the greater number of advance models and are exceedingly chic and attractive. This stylish little Eton is made in blouse style and can either te rolled open to form revers or closed as shown in the small sketch. Also it allows a choice between the drop shoulders and the regulation arm holes. The model is made of tan colored cheviot with revers of brown and white 4674 Flouse Eton, braid in which are

52 to 40 bust. threads of gold. At the waist is a crushed belt of the velvet and the sleeves are finished with frills of lace. back, both of which are tucked for iny of postoffice officials. their entire length. The lower edge is slightly full and is joined to a naris arranged, the fronts being finished $500 each. free as far as the first tucks to form the pointed revers. The sleeves are developed that the federal grand jury cut in one piece each, are tucked was investigating the Brooks Brokerabove the elbows, rull below and are age Company, with which Major Hugh finished with flare cuffs.

The quantity of material required for medium size is 41/2 yards 21 inches wide 3% yards 27 inches wide or 2% yards 44 inches wide, with 3 yards help. of velvet, 3% yards of braid to trim as Illustrated.

32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust measure.

The shells of pineapple cheeses make pretty dishes for the serving of cheese dishes, such as cheese fondu.

····· Readers of this paper can secure any May Manton pattern illustrated above by filling out all blanks in coupou, and madling, with locents. to E. E. Harrison & Co., 65 Plymouth Place, Chicago. Pattern will be mailed promptly.

Name		Н
Town
State
Patter	n No.
Walst	Measure (if for skirt)
Bust	Measure(if for waist)	******
Are II	child's or miss's pattern)

Write plainty. Fill out all blanks. Enclose 10a Mail to F. E. Harrison & C ., & Plymouth Place, Chicago

JURY PLACES STAIN ON UNITED STATES SENATOR BURTON

was born in Indiana, and after receiv- upper house.

United States Senator Joseph Ralph | ing a college education began to prac-Burton of Kansas, who was found tice law in 1876. Then he moved to guilty of using his official position to Kansas and did his first campaigning with narrow bands of black velvet protect a fraudulent concern in its use for Garfield two years later. In 1894 of the mails, has been prominent in and 1896 he was an unsuccessful sen-The blouse is made over a fitted the Sunflower state for years as a atorial candidate, but was elected in politician and campaign orator. He 1901 to succeed Lucien Baker in the > States Senator from Kansas and a political leader of wide influence throughout the West, was convicted by a jury in the United States District Court at St. Louis March 29 of accepting compensation to protect the interests of the Rialto Grain & Securities Company, a so-called "get-rich-quick concern," before the Postoffice Department at Washington.

The Senator was found guilty on six of the seven counts in the indictment. On the other count, the third one, a verdict of not guilty was re-A most economical wrap for a child, turned. This third count is similar in charge to that of counts one and two, and for this reason the government announced at the beginning of the trial that it did not desire any conviction.

The court ruled that the Senstor's Soca of $5,000 be continued, and that the defendant report from time to time pending arguments on the motion for arrest of judgment and other legal steps taken prior to the appeal to the United States Court of Appeals.

The case establishes the precedent of a prosecution under section 1782 of the revised statutes of the United States, which prohibits members of Congress from accepting compensation for their services in any case which involves the interest of the federal government.

Senator Burton's recourse is an apof Appeals, which body is the final arbiter of his case. Pending the final action of that tribunal he may give bond and obtain temporary freedom. In the course of the trial it developed that during his term of office Senator Burton had a total income from Belle of New York," in which he won amounting to nearly $25,000 a year. follows:

First-In November, 1902, he accept ed a proposition to become general counsel of the Rialto Grain & Securi ties Company, a concern whose opera-The Eton consists of fronts and tions at the time were under the scrut-

Second-Burton demanded $2,500 for his services, but he was satisfied to row belt over which the crushed belt be paid in monthly installments of Third-Soon after his employment it C. Dennis, president of the Rialto Company, has been associated.

Fourth-In December, 1902, Dennis was indicted; appealed to Burton for Fifth-Numerous letters written by Burton showed that the Senator was The pattern 4074 is cut in sizes for using his influence to prevent the insuance of a fraud order against the Rialto Grain & Securities Company. Sixth-Burton submitted regular reports to the Rialto people telling them how matters were progressing at Washington, advising them of reports filed at the Postoffice Department and closing with the assurance that "if you look after things at your end of the line I will attend to matters here."

Senator Burton was indicted in Jan-Congress he could not be arrested un-Honored Name in Old Place.

Within a few weeks a Von Moltke will again figure as head of the general staff of the Prussian army. Von Moltke II. is the nephew of the great strategist of the later nineteenta century, to whom for long years he acted be no stranger to the palatial quarters of the Konigsplatz when he enters them as chief. Count Helmuth never commanded a brigade or a division. Count Von Moltke's death he became aid-de-camp to the emperor.

Joseph Ralph Burton, senior United | untarily surrendered himself to the prosecuting authorities.

He was elected to the Senate January 4, 1901, so that he still has two years to serve.

DAN DALY IS DEAD.

Eccentric and Popular Comedian Succumbs to Consumption.

Dan Daly, most eccentric and one of the best beloved of comedians, died suddenly March 26, in the Hotel Vendome, New York. He had been suffering a long time from consumption, but always insisted to his friends that his allment was stomach trouble. His wife died a little more than a week ago, and the comedian failed rapidly since that time. He was 40 years old.

The Daly family, of which Dan was the youngest son, was noted because of the theatrical successes of its mens bers. Dan was called the "eccentric comedian," because nobody could imitate him, although there were more "imitations" of his methods than of those of any other comedian. Cecelia Loftus and Fay Templeton each had an "imitation of Dan Daly" in their repertoires. His automatic movements and the peculiarly slow and measured tones of his voice won him fame.

When he was a boy, his brothers, Tom and Robert, were already on the stage, and they gave him a small part peal to the United States Circuit Court | in "Vacation," in which he was very successful. He did better in "Upside Down" and better still in "The City Directory." Under George W. Lederer's management he played in "In Gay New York" at the Herald Square Theater, and finally in "The his law practice at Washington his greatest success here and in London. Last summer he was the star The evidence adduced against Sena- in "John Henry," which proved a failtor Burton may be summarized as ure, and since then he has been in Constitution.

"Dan" Daly, the Comedian. vaudeville. So great a drawing card the house, where visitors are always was he in vaugeville that managers coming with inquiries for members. willingly paid him $1,000 a week for his services.

Vagrant Had Small Fortune.

Ryan, a Boston character for many the timid inquirer began to dig in his years past, was arrested for vagrancy the other day, and upon being search- he placed in the Iowan's nand. ed $6,000 was found concealed in her nary last. Although, as a member of clothing. She was permitted to de- Hedge could stand. Giving back the part from the courtroom in peace, but coin, he fled in confusion .- Washing ill after that body adjourned, he vol. | with a warning to keep off the streets, ton Post.

Brings Lawsuit Against Father.

Mrs. Ernest Thompson Seton of San Francisco, wife of the artist and au- Jefferson, written 100 years ago to thor of that name, is suing her father, the Indians of the Louisiana pur-Albert Gallatin, for the recovery of $10,000 which he promised to pay in a contract with his first wife at the Indians in Oklahoma. The letter will as aid-de-camp and will consequently time of their divorce in 1881. The be a feature of the Oklahoma historic money was to be turned over to her exhibit at the St. Louis fair. when she should reach the age of 18 years, but Gallatin for eight years kept her waiting by one excuse and then much less a corps: On the day of another, she alleges, and finally repudiated his contract altogether .-Chicago Chronicle.

JEROME AS A JOKER.

Humorist Has Some Amusement is Hardware Shop.

W. W. Jacobs, the writer of humorous stories about sailors, described, in a recent letter to a friend in New York, a practical joke that had been played by his neighbor, Jerome K. Jerome.

Mr. Jacobs said that Jerome once wanted a file. He entered a hardware shop and nodded politely to the youth behind the counter.

"Have you got," he said, "the last edition of Tennyson's poems?"

"No, sir," said the clerk. "This is a hardware shop."

"Hey?" "This is a hardware shop."

"Oh," said Mr. Jerome, "I don't care about the binding. Cloth will do as well as anything else."

"But we don't sell books here," the clerk shouted. "This is a hardware shop." "Oh, wrap it up in anything."

The clerk, with an oath, came all the way round the counter and put his . lips to Mr. Jerome's ear.

"Hardware shop. No books here. Hardware," he shrieked. "Thank you, I'll wait," said the

This was too much for the clerk. He disappeared in an inner room and in a moment returned with the proprie-

The proprietor approached Mr. Jerome sternly.

Well, what do you want, anyway?"

he said. "A small file," was the quiet answer.

Speak to Your Equals.

It is not in America alone that the notion of equality prevails. The London Figaro reports the following in-

As a magnificent steamer, the property of the Peninsular & Oriental Company, was steaming into Southampton harbor, a grimy coal-lighter floated immediately in front of it. An officer on board the steamer, seeing this, shouted: "Clear out of the way with that barge!" The lighterman, a native of the Emerald Isle, shouted in reply, "Are ye the captain of that vessel?"

"No," answered the officer. 'Then spake to yer equals," said the (Ighterman. "I'm the captain o' this." Progress in Fifteen Years.

Fifteen years ago there were perhaps 100 electric cars in the whole world. To-day they are in all parts of the globe. Even Seoul, the capital of Korea, has an electric railway, built by an American.

Fifteen years ago a 200-horse power generator was thought to be a monster, but to-day a 10,000 pererator Indian NIE-any unusual attention. Fifteen years ago' electricity was thought to be almost as much of a fad as it was a business. It employed few men. To-day, in one plant alone, there are 12,000 people employed, and three out of every four are skilled Old Brother Cocley is a colored philosopher, but he is superstitious in the extreme. He tells this story:

"I once wuz in a house what wuz haunted-but I didn't know it. Dar wuz a bright fire burnin' in de room i wuz in, w'en all er a sudden de do' opened, en a man with his throat cut shuck his head at me! Now, I knowed right well it was a ha'nt on de only thing ter do wuz ter av him 'In de name er de Lawd, what does you want?""

'And did you ask him?" "No, suh-Bless God, I wuz too feared dat he'd tell me!"-Atlanta

Queen Victoria's Baby Days. The toys and playthings of Queen Victoria, which in their intrinsic value do not compare with the priceless inbilee presents, will appeal to the sentiment of all who see them. They are at the replica of the Orangery at Kensington Palace the birthplace of the Queen.

When a little child she spent many happy hours in the quaint old building, designed more than 200 years ago for the famous Queen Anne.

Some of the dolls bear the marks of the affection lavished upon them by the little Princess. The arm off one, the leg off another and the paint rubbed from their checks.

This Congressman Blushed.

Representative Hedge of Iowa, vesterday seated himself in one of the doorkeeper's chairs at an entrance to "Will you take a card in for me?"

asked a timid inquirer. "Cards cost ten cents each." answered Mr. Hedge, quite abashed, but, to Barbora Honora Venus Brown the amazement of everybody around jeans, and produced a dime, which he

That was more of a joke than Mr.

Has Letter of Thomas Jefferson.

An autograph letter from Thomas chase, has recently been unearthed from the archives of the Sac and Fox

Secret of Writing.

The secret of the art of writing is to have somewhat to say, and to say just that and no other .- Richard