IDLE THOUGHTS.

A MUTUAL MISTAKE.

Little Willie told his mother that a lion was on the front porch, but when an investigation was made, it was found to be the Newfoundland dog which had been newly sheared.

"Now, Willie," said his mother, "you have told a very naughty story, and you must go up to your room and pray for forgiveness and remain there until the Lord does forgive you."

Willie promptly obeyed, but he was gone only a few minutes before he came tripping back.

"Did the Lord forgive you?" asked his mother.

"Yes," was the reply, and He said He didn't blame me much either, 'cause when He first saw it He sorter thought it was a lion himself."—Collier's for September.

THE PROPER REPLY.

Jack—"What did your father say, darling, when you told him my love was like a broad and rushing river?"

Mabel—"He said 'Dam it.'"—Collier's.

Nothing Like It.

It is given out that four of the heaviest operators in the bull campaign in wheat have made $5,750,000 in profits in the last two weeks, divided as follows: J. Ogdon Armour, $1,000,000; James A. Patten, $750,000; C. Spencer, St. Louis, $2,000,000; J. Watson, Minneapolis, $2,000,000. And there might have been some others if they had known about it in time. There is nothing like keeping posted.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by H. R. Moore, druggist.

Sometimes small things create much trouble. A flat wheel on a mail car from the north today delayed the noon train one and one-half hours. The car was set out here, and went to the shops. The delay was in transferring the mails.
