> About December 1st a grand Christmas edition of the ANDERsos County HEraLD will be issued from the Herald office. In addition to the regular features of the weekly edition will be several extra pages, printed in an artistic manner, with appropriate illustrations and reading matter suited to the holiday season. No effort will be spared to make this the handsomest edition ever issued from a Palestine press, and it will afford a splendid medium for the holiday advertiser. Only a limited amount of space will be sold to advertisers, and the first to make application will be accommodated.
