All ladies are earnestly urged to come and hear these good women.

A style of shoe that would please your neighbor perhaps would be just the opposite from what you would fancy. Cooke's policy is to have a selection from which every one can make a satisfactory choice. Allow him to show you and then you will save yourself a great deal of worry and additional work. He sells nothing but footwear, and is always anticipating your wants.

In President Roosevelt's letter of acceptance he declares: We intend in the future to carry on the government in the same way we have in the past. I will go Roosevelt one better by declaring that I intend in the future to run a better grocery store than in the past, because I have gained by experience, and know better day by day the tastes and demands of my customers. Temple's store is bound to be the grocery store of Palestine, because Temple intends to make it so.

To Palestine Newspapers

and Wm. and G. D. Broyles, Palestine Lumber Company, Brannan & Brannan, Carimel Brothers, and other friends:

For your favors shown Confederate veterans of John H. Reagan Camp No. 44, and friends attending our reunion Oct. 20th. We realize happiness in having gratitude within our hearts, as beautifully expressed by the poetess, Ella Wheeler Wilcox:

"If for one moment in this earthly state Our minds could know true gratitude to God, In that swift moment we should comprehend The whole of Heaven, its rapture and its Peace."

"Not merely so long as we were 'the Gray,'

For seemingly now it was only a day, But as we grow 'grayer' our gratitude shall grow, Adding happiness en route to the cloudless shore."

R. M. JACKSON,
T. C. SPENCER,
Committee for the "Camp."

MABEL EVANS, Cor. Sec.

The Circus Is Coming.

When your cotton's mostly gathered, and your debts are mostly paid; And the circus day is coming with the greatest street parade;

Your women folks have dresses and your children winter shoes, And you have a surplus dollar, and can spend it as you choose— There'll be drums and horns and music, and don't you all suppose There'll be women walkin' tight ropes with abbreviated clothes? Oh, won't it all be jolly, and aren't these jolly times, When a fellow has no trouble spending his dollars and his dimes? All you need is just a little laid by for rainy weather, And if your groceries are bought of Green & Maffit's store You can live in high feather.

Feed. Feed.

I have for sale pea vines, goober peas and sorghum, cheap. Call and see me at G. W. Davis' cotton yard or address lock box 243.
