SOCIETY NOTES.

SCOTCH MATINEE PARTY.

The pleasure of a social affair is greatly enhanced by its novelty, and after a season of receptions and card parties, delightful though they were, it fell to the lot of Misses Ida Ash and Claire Myers to "spring" something entirely original in Palestine.

Accordingly they 'phoned invitations to the members of the three popular clubs, the "Qui Vivas," "Bachelor Maids" and "Social," and the visitors to our city, with the request to wear white shirt waists and plaid ties, the latter doing honor to the feature of the occasion, "The Kitties Band," which was booked for a matinee at the Temple opera house Monday, Jan. 29th. With acceptances from seventy maids and matrons, preparations were made to make it an affair long to be remembered as a delightful one.

The guests arrived at two-thirty at the home of Mrs. Henry Ash where they were greeted by the hostesses, Misses Ash and Myers, charmingly assisted by Mesdames Henry Ash, Phil Myers, Hyman Pearlstone and Miss Coilat of Calvert. Each arrival was presented with a souvenir card tied with the plaid ribbon, which was featured throughout the entire affair and which was noticed and appreciated by the "Kitties." An hour was spent in jolly converse, and delightful fruit punch was served just before departure for the theatre.

Seventy white shirt waists and loud plaid ties with dark skirts made a beautiful picture assembled on the lovely lawn of Mrs. Ash's home, and the jolly crowd wending their way down the street called forth many agreeable comments.

Five rows on each side of the parquet had been reserved and were tied with the plaid streamers. A jollier,

A Grass Fire.

Shortly after 1 p. m. today the fire company was called to the corner of Dallas and May streets to subdue a grass fire that was threatening fences. No damage was done.

A coated tongue, foul breath and clogged condition in the bowels suggests the use of Prickly Ash Bitters. It is just suited for such ailments.

happler crowd never assembled to enjoy a more delightful entertainment than the "Kitties" gave. It was a high-class amusement, and the applause they received from the plaid tie and shirt waist wearers must have been very gratifying.

Delicious bon-bons were passed during the intermission. After the show Misses Ash and Myers requested the crowd to follow them.

Arriving at Booth Bros. everything was found in readiness for another happy hour. The parlor had been reserved and tables were decorated and spread to accommodate the party. The place was beautifully decorated with bamboo and smilax with a touch of plaid. The refreshments were heartily enjoyed, consisting of nut ice cream and angel's food cake, coffee and chocolate with whipped cream and nabisco wafers. The photographer came in at the last minute and took a flashlight of the group. Here every one thanked their hostess time and again for an afternoon of genuine enjoyment. Miss Myers made her debut as an entertainer, and if her standard was set yesterday, she has a great deal of pleasure in store for her friends. Miss Ash has given many lovely affairs, and those who were bidden for yesterday knew what to expect. Their anticipations were realized fully, and several were heard to remark, "One need only expect a jolly good time and a swell affair when Miss Ida's mother is interested as Mrs. Ash has long held first place in the rank of en-

CONTRIBUTED.

Life's battles will soon be o'er,
Then we will reach the golden shore;
And see Him who loves us best,
Be with Him in sweeter rest.

"Till then we will work and wait;
Soon our time will be too late—
God may close the open door,
Our friends pass to the other shore.

In love and tears tell the story
Of a lovely home for us in glory;
Tell the story in that dear name
Who died for sinners, all the same.

Tell them He turns none away,
Saves the lost, both night and day,
If they to Him will only look
This He said in His good book.

When we finish our work below
Then to the Saint's rest must go.
How soon, how late we cannot say,
Here on earth we cannot stay.

Then at your work, like a man
Do all your work while you can.
Soon may come the horrid cry,
"Jesus of Nazareth has passed by."

With the Savior on the golden shore
Sighs and sorrows will be o'er,
Tears be wiped from every eye,
Loved ones sing beyond the sky.

Soon He'll sing, "Come home, my love,
Enter the home prepared above."
Then what glory that will be,
To sing his praise in eternity.

Soon will come that glorious day
When our tears will pass away;
What joy it then will be
Our Saviour's smiling face to see.

WHY KIDNEY DISEASE IS DANGEROUS.

Neglect of the First Warning Symptoms is the Prime Cause of so Many Deaths from the Dreaded Bright's Disease.

It is Easily Curable in the Early Stages.

Kidney diseases are so destructive to human life because they do not manifest alarming symptoms until the system is seriously weakened, strength exhausted. Then, too often, the remedies employed by many physicians are of indifferent or doubtful value, and the patient rapidly sinks under the disease. The wisest course is to apply a reliable kidney and liver remedy on the first appearance of the symptoms. A little uneasiness in the small of the back, digestive troubles, bowel irregularities and disorder in the urinary organs are matters of small moment in the estimation of strong men and women, yet they have a serious meaning. They show clearly that the kidneys are suffering and need help, which must be forthcoming at once to prevent serious, perhaps fatal consequences. A few doses of Prickly Ash Bitters at this time would prove of incalculable value in restoring the weakened organs to health. An investment of one dollar in a bottle of Prickly Ash Bitters when the disease is yet in the early stage will save hundreds of dollars in doctor's bills, besides the suffering that would surely follow should the disease be allowed to fasten itself in the body. The excellent curative power of Prickly Ash Bitters is not confined to the first stages of kidney disease. It is equally efficacious in severe or chronic cases. Physicians have used it as a last resort, in cases that defied their best efforts, with the most brilliant results, and it has shown its superiority over the many so-called kidney cures, now being loudly advertised, in instances innumerable.

Accept no substitute. Insist on having the genuine Prickly Ash Bitters with the large figure 2 in red on the front label.

Sold at Drug Stores, $1.00 per bottle.

The kidneys ache when they are overworked and the trouble gets serious unless promptly removed. Prickly Ash Bitters is a reliable kidney tonic and bowel regulator.
