MEDICAL ASSOCIATION MEETS IN BOSTON

AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION IN FIFTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL MEETING TODAY.

Special to the Herald.

Boston, Mass., June 5.—The fifty-seventh annual meeting of the American Medical Association was opened this morning in Mechanics' Hall, with several thousand members from every section of the country in attendance. The proceedings of the opening session included the official reception and welcome of the association by President Eliot of Harvard University, President A. T. Cabot of the Massachusetts Medical Society, Governor Fitzgerald, speaking for the state, and Mayor Fitzgerald in behalf of the city of Boston.

The meeting was called to order by retiring President Lewis S. Murtry of Louisville, and Dr. Walter Wyman of Washington, D. C., responded to the speeches of welcome. The report of the committee on arrangements was followed by the introduction of President-elect Dr. William J. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., who delivered the annual address. The second general meeting takes place this evening. Dr. F. C. Shattuck of this city delivers the oration on "Medicine," and Dr. Joseph D. Bryant of New York that on surgery. At the third general meeting tomorrow evening the address on "State Medicine" will be delivered by Dr. W. H. Saunders of Montgomery, Ala. In addition to the general sessions today twelve sectional meetings devoted to various departments in the practice of medicine and surgery were held.

The gathering will be in session through the remainder of this week. Most of the convention energy will be given up to the meetings of the various sections. The program calls for four hundred papers, which are to be presented to the various sections. Many of them are technical and will not interest the general public, while other papers will deal with subjects of deep popular interest.

The societies affiliated with the American Medical Association, and which are holding their meeting simultaneously, are the American Gastro-Enterological Association, Association of United States Pension Examining Surgeons, American Neurological Association, American Association of Life Insurance Examining Surgeons, American Urological Association and American Medical Editors' Association.

A distinguished feature of the present convention is the large number of eminent medical men in attendance from foreign countries. England, Germany and France have sent some of their foremost physicians, surgeons and scientists to the gathering. Canada is represented by a distinguished delegation that includes among many others Dr. H. H. Chown of Winnipeg. Dr. Simon W. Tunstall of Vancouver, Dr. Wesley A. Mills of McGill University, Dr. George A. Peters of Toronto, Dr. George A. Armstrong of Montreal and Dr. Murray McLaren of St. John.

A Correction.

Palestine, June 2nd, 1906.

Editors Daily Herald.

Dear Sirs:—The following paragraph in the Friday issue of your paper has just attracted my attention: "Wednesday at the Episcopal Sunday school picnic, Dee Dunk distinguished himself by bravely plunging into the lake and rescuing a small boy, who had ventured beyond his depth and was drowning before the eyes of many distressed ladies and children."

I do not know who gave you the information, nor whether it was intended as a joke, but as I accompanied the boys to the swimming pool and was with them the whole time they were there, I feel called upon to tell you the truth about it.

The only foundation for the report is this: The small boy in question, Joe Fox, following the example of the older boys, ran onto the spring-board and plunged into the deep water. Dee Dunk caught the boy as he came up and promptly conveyed him to the shore. The incident was entirely devoid of sensation. No ladies were within a mile of the spot, and the only children present were the boys themselves, who, far from being "distressed," were merrily sporting in the water unconscious, for the most part, of any untoward happening. Joe himself did not leave the water till all the boys were called out an hour after the incident. Yours truly,

E. H. J. Andrews,
Rector of St. Philip's Church.

Good Times.

There have been some very enjoyable times picnicking and social gathering this season at the Strickland Park, and as the management is first-class this makes it a very popular place.

Why not abandon your trip to Colorado or Saratoga this season and spend two or three days a week at our home park and retain your health, as some of our best people are already doing.

As a lady said the other day: "Why do you know, since I have been coming out here with my children that tired feeling is gone, and we all feel so much better." Let's build up home industry and your money will come back to you.

It might result in a street car system or a train of sight seeing autos, "who knows?" If you can't go today, send your children. They will be cared for. No malicious, sharp tricks are learned there like at your summer vacations North, but useful and strengthening exercise and amusements, such as swimming, rowing, running, swinging, skating and such.

Meet the huck or leave orders at the popular drug store of Mr. Cutter's on Avenue A. His phone number is 41. Fare, round trip, 15c adults, 10c children. Open from 8:30 a. m. to 10:30 p. m. Lunch and refreshments on the ground.

H. R. Dietz, Proprietor.

Notice to Candidates. I hereby call the attention of all county and precinct candidates to the provision of the new election law, requiring each candidate, in order to get his name upon the official ballot, to file with the county chairman, not later than the 16th day of June, a written request for his name to be placed upon the official ballot as a candidate for the office for which he seeks the nomination. In this request he must state occupation, postoffice address, and if a resident of city or town, the street and number of residence. The request must be signed and acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgements. All candidates are cautioned to attend to the matter at once, lest it be overlooked. O. C. Funderburk, County Chairman.

Farmers' Union.

Notice to all members of the Farmers' Union of Anderson County:

You are hereby requested to meet in called session at the city hall in Palestine, June the 13th, at 10:30 a. m., to transact business of great importance. Come brethren, as the business vitally concerns each and every member.

W. M. Lipscomb, V. P.

J. J. O'Neal, Chairman Ex. Com.

Good appetite and cheerfulness follows the use of Prickly Ash Bitters. It purifies the blood, liver and bowels and makes life worth living.

The pupils of Mrs. J. H. Pusch's music class will give a recital at the city hall Friday evening, June 8. Admission 10 cents. 4-5t
