TO BUILD WAREHOUSE.

Important Meeting Being Held at the City Hall This Afternoon.

This afternoon a very important meeting is being held at the city hall by a committee from the Farmers' Union and others interested in the project to build a farmers' warehouse in this city. Mr. Dave H. Shapira of Houston, president of the "Farmers & Bankers' Cotton Warehouse Company, Inc.," Mr. Hardy Dial of Nacogdoches, member of the same concern, are here in consultation with the farmers. The warehouse will undoubtedly be built.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Louise Stevens invited quite a number of her friends to meet her guest, Miss Garry, of Taylor on yesterday morning from ten to twelve o'clock. Progressive high five was the amusement, and after several interesting games were played. Mrs.
Eugene Fore was declared winner of the first prize, a beautiful batenburg centerpiece, and Miss Nina Brian received the consolation prize, a pretty hand-painted picture.

A dainty two-course luncheon was served, consisting of a salad course, and grape ice and cake.
