

Drug Store WANTS

Where do you buy your drugs? Do you buy them at our store? If you do not patronize us, give us a trial—we are sure to please you. We are headquarters for Drugs. We carry everything to be found in a firstclass, up-to-date Drug Store. Phone us your wants. Free delivery between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m.

JNO. R. HEARNE & CO.

DRUGGISTS

PERSONAL MENTION.

Buy Your Suit at Flanagan's.
Frederick Warde tonight.
Mrs. John T. Sweetman is visiting in Galveston.
H. A. Watts came home from South Texas this afternoon.
WANTED—Rags at the Herald office. Clean, white rags.
Don't fail to hear the world's foremost tragedian tonight.
Dr. Brandon and wife came up from Crockett yesterday.
The Herald can use some clean, white rags, if you have any.
Miss Amy Brazelton returned home this afternoon from Houston.
Frederick Warde, greatest living tragedian, at City Hall tonight.
The best performance of the season—Frederick Warde—tonight.
Born, yesterday, to Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Ray, an eleven pound boy.
Everybody is coming out to hear Warde tonight. Admission 50 cents.
Mrs. Whited, nee Miss Dugoy, is here from Shreveport, the guest of her mother.
The wrecker went north early this morning to pick up some overturned cars near Jacksonville.
Mrs. W. L. Yarbrough and children left today for Franklin, to spend a few weeks with relatives.

The little daughter of Mrs. Frank Pell came home this morning from Austin, where she has been in school.

Miss Fannie Mae McLeod arrived in the city this morning from Austin, where she has been a student in the State University.

J. W. Wright and daughters arrived in the city this morning from Austin, where the young ladies have been guests of friends.

Miss Lois Broyles came home last night from Austin, where she was a guest of Mrs. Campbell and daughters, family of the governor.

A splendid rain fell here just at noon, but not enough to be of much benefit to growing crops. However, the outlook is good for more.

A number of children of the Baptist Sunday school went picnicing at Cartmell's this morning. Among the other pleasures they got rained on.

City Marshal Conrad Perry went to Marshall this morning. He is now wearing his pretty new badge of office, presented to him by his friends, and is very proud of it.

A car full of young people from the deaf and dumb institute at Austin passed through the city this morning, returning to their homes in various sections of the state. Quite a number stopped here to go to their homes in the county.

5 FOR $1.00.

Five (5) 25c Washable Ties, assorted colors, for $1.00. New stock, just received.
DOYLE BROS.,
Men's Outfitters.

Get the Habit—Cook With Gas.

Car of Watermelons.

I have just received again today a car of fresh watermelons, right from the vines. Car load of watermelons and car load of bananas and you can buy them from my store, next door to Mr. Bonds', or you can get them on the corner above J. W. Duncan's store, at the same price you can buy them at the car; 75c to $1 per bunch for bananas; watermelons, 25c each.

WM. H. SMITH,
The Original Fruit Man.

Baker's Hand Mashed.

Night before last Hiley Coleman, an employe in the American Home Bakery baking department was the victim of a very painful accident by which one of his hands was badly mashed. He was running a machine for mixing dough when his hand was caught and crushed.

EXPERT TESTIFIES IN THE SAM TUBBS CASE

(Continued from Page 1.)

ence between Tubbs' conduct and the delusions accompanying paranoia.

Mrs. S. M. Davis testified that she knew Tubbs when he was a boy and that his relatives who raised him had great difficulty in controlling him. He once bought a lot of chickens to have eggs to feed his dogs. She had always thought his mind was unbalanced.

Peter Tubbs (colored) testified that he belonged to the defendant's father, and related various peculiarities of his father. On one occasion he had an attack of some kind that left him unconscious for several hours. On cross-examination he said that Tubbs' father was fairly wealthy and was respected by his neighbors.

Dr. I. P. Poyner expressed the opinion, from the evidence in the case, that Tubbs was a paranoiac and did not realize the gravity of an offense than he might commit.

Captain W. H. Gaston testified that he formerly lived in this county, near Kickapoo. He knew that Tubbs' aunt had died insane.

H. H. Windham testified that he had known Tubbs for about fifty years. Tubbs had also visited him at very late hours of the night, and he did not think his mind was sound in

THIS BANK Wants Your Business

We confess it. On the other hand, we know we are justified in thus asking your patronage. We not only offer our depositors every facility to be found in a modern institution, together with courteous consideration and the best of service, but we also assure you of Security for your money, Strength and Stability in management and methods.

We will appreciate your business.

Palestine, Texas.

Fine Dewberries for sale. Phone H. Roedick, No. 577.

Get the Habit—Cook With Gas.

Your House Furnish- ed Complete For

$1.00 DOWN

DOBBS Furniture Company

The General House Furnishers

AVENUE A

OUR ANNUAL SUMMER SALE

BEGINS

June 13th

And Lasts For Two Weeks

The Grand Leader

The Place Most People Trade

mute the sentence. A petition bearing fifteen thousand names has been sent to the governor asking for a pardon.

TEXAS BASEBALL LEAGUE.

Results yesterday:
Galveston 8, Austin 6.
San Antonio 4, Houston 4; tie.
Dallas 2, Shreveport 1.
Fort Worth 7, Waco 1.

Mail Sack Stolen.

Special to the Herald.
Kansas City, Mo., June 11.—Post-office inspectors are here from Los Angeles, California, trying to trace a missing mail pouch containing $50,000, which disappeared here Saturday. The officers have a clue as to the thief, and expect to make arrest soon, but are maintaining the utmost secrecy.

Frederick Warde Tonight.

Frederick Warde, formerly one of the leading tragedians of the stage, but now on the Chautauqua platform, arrived in the city this afternoon, and will appear at the city hall this evening in one of his readings. He has visited here a number of times before, and has a number of personal friends in the city.

Notice to the Public.

Parties having string beans, peaches or other products suitable for canning and would prefer to have them canned on the shares, can learn particulars by inquiring of B. M. Anderson at the Board of Trade room.

Post Cards—Six local views, 10c. Ask the local dealer for them.

some respects. He thought Tubbs believed he had a right to shoot Dave Pierce.

Jim Burkett testified he had known Tubbs for eighteen years. Tubbs had often come to his house between midnight and day. Did not think his mind was good.

Sam Ayres of Dallas testified that he was a cousin of Tubbs. That both an aunt and an uncle had been insane. Tubbs was very hard to control when he was a boy. Thinks his mind is unsound and that he did not know it was wrong to kill Pierce. He was recalled to testify that Tubbs' mother was very peculiar and considered weak-minded by the rest of the family.

Ras Evans testified that he had known Tubbs for fifteen or eighteen years, and he had always been a peculiar man. He was peculiarly fond of dogs. His conversation was queer, and he thought his mind was unsound. The witness was cross-examined with reference to criminal prosecutions against him.

R. C. Ayres of Dallas testified that he was a cousin of the defendant; was raised with him. His mind has always been affected. He gave his uncle who raised him a great deal of trouble. The boys at school would select Tubbs to test new teachers. He does not think that Tubbs realized what he was doing when he shot Pierce. He never seemed to have any feelings. As a young man he had squandered an estate of several thousand dollars in a very short time.

Steve Ayres of Dallas testified that he had been raised by the same uncle that raised Tubbs. Tubbs was a very hard boy to control. He was a very peculiar boy. He liked to take people hunting and lose them.

One time he went to sleep on a big timber in what had been the second story of an old house, and slept there until dark. He could not get down then, and had to blow his horn for help. Loved to make the goats jump out of the second story of this old house when he caught them there. He was cruel and would have his dogs to kill cats. Thinks Tubbs' mind is unsound and has thought so for years. Thinks Tubbs thought he was doing right when he killed Pierce. After Tubbs was grown he spent five or six hundred dollars for fine dogs, sending to Pennsylvania for some. Bought fine articles far beyond his station in life. When Tubbs came to Dallas he would come to the house of the witness and come in without knocking. He recently wrote witness to send him two boxes of axes, because he could not get any to suit him at Frankston.

HITCHCOCK ACQUITTED.

Held For Other Charges—Will Probably Never Be Tried.

Special to the Herald.

New York, June 11.—Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian charged with wronging girls, was acquitted early today. He is still held on other indictments, but it is doubtful if the other cases against him will ever be tried. Bail was granted him today.

First Oklahoma Hanging.

Special to the Herald.
Dawton, Okla., June 11.—Oklahoma will have the first execution since statehood was adopted tomorrow, when Frank Ford, a negro, will be hanged for wife murder.

RIVER IS STILL RISING RACE TRACK BETTING

Mississippi Has Passed Thirty-One Foot Stage, and Will Reach Thirty-Three By Sunday.

Special to the Herald.
St. Louis, Mo., June 11.—The Mississippi is still rising slowly. It has already passed the thirty-one foot stage, and it is expected to go to thirty-three feet by Sunday. Hundreds of acres of crop lands have been flooded near St. Charles. The whole section at the junction of the Mississippi and Missouri is threatened. The levees are being strengthened. The crest of the Missouri flood is on the way and heavy damages are feared.

Business Suspended.

Special to the Herald.
Kansas City, Mo., June 11.—The flood has stopped business in the packing house and wholesale districts, where the streets are inundated. The river is still rising and is now the highest it has been since 1904.

Was Killed By Vote of New York Senate—A Big Victory For Governor Hughes.

Special to the Herald.
Albany, N. Y., June 11.—The senate has passed the bill forbidding betting at race tracks by a vote of twenty-six to twenty-five. Even winning by such a close vote is regarded as a victory for Governor Hughes, who called a special session for the purpose of getting this bill through. It is claimed that this bill will put an end to racing in this state.

FREE TROUSERS.

With every suit sold by us during June we will give an extra pair of pants of same grade goods as suit AT NO EXTRA COST. Every garment guaranteed satisfactory.

DOYLE BROS.,
Men's Outfitters.

Get the Habit—Cook With Gas.

QUALITY TALKS TO HOUSEWIVES

You know of course that lard is the only natural shortening.

And that no artificial substitute can take its place or equal it in sweetness and shortening value.

And you know that pure leaf lard is the very choicest of natural shortening.

"Simon Pure" Leaf Lard is 100 per cent leaf fat—the only shortening of Top-Notch Quality. Let us send you a pail.

TEMPLE THE GROCER

PALESTINE, - TEXAS

