TENNESSEE COLONY.

Tennessee Colony, Texas, Aug. 17.—The people of this community are giving ample time to the fishing sport. The fish are biting fine, and the people are passing away the long, hot days catching and eating them.

There are some more added to the sick list this week. Mr. J. C. Caldwell is sick. Mr. W. E. Williams and son are ill. Mr. Campbell has not as yet recovered from his spell of fever, but it is hoped that he will recover in a few days. Mr. Montgomery is up and about his business again.

Mr. C. G. Sagler and family left last week for Coleman county, where they will make their home. Messrs. Royal Kendrick, Mace Hudson and Emmett Scarborough left last week for Kerens, Navarro county, where they will pick cotton a few days, after which they will go to Coleman county.

Mr. F. Reed and family, who have been visiting Mr. Bud Rogers of this place, have returned to their home in Navarro county.

Mr. M. E. Avant is home from Palestine, where he has been serving on the grand jury.

The young people of this place attended an ice cream supper at Mr. L. J. Huffman's Saturday night. There was singing last night at the church house, led by Prof. Hogan.

Mr. Hogan is here for the purpose of teaching a singing school, if the people want him. He is a fine singer and leader, and will most likely give us good service in a ten days' school. Correspondent.

The Contented Hostess.

All sorts of ideas are advanced by writers on women's affairs as to how to make entertaining easy; how to stop worry; how to make every guest not only feel at home but that all the little niceties you offer were prepared especially for each one. These writers mean well but they don't go deep enough to get at the real facts or they would find that Nabisco Sugar Wafers, the dainty, delicious confection, are the real basis of a hostess' success and contented spirit. They're just the sort of dessert for a luncheon, ideal after dinner and delightful with a hot cup or with the tinkling glass on a moonlit porch. Ever tried them with chocolate into which a marshmallow has been dropped? Merely a suggestion!

To Palestine Men.

W. T. Keeling, representing the J. W. Losse Progressive Tailoring Co. of St. Louis, will display his full line of fall wools on August 15, 17 and 18, and you are cordially invited to call and make your selection to be delivered whenever desired. This line is complete and embraces exclusive patterns, as well as all the latest novelties of the season. The J. W. Losse Co. is an old, reliable company, of 35 years' standing. Workmanship and fit guaranteed. 10-St Wm. Branagan Co.

An Awkward Slip.

"You've made a mistake in your paper," said an indignant man, entering the editorial sanctum of a daily journal. "I was one of the competitors at that athletic match yesterday and you have called me the well-known lightweight champion."

"Well, aren't you?" inquired the editor.
"No, I'm nothing of the kind, and it's confoundedly awkward, because I am a coal merchant!"

RULES OF THE CONTEST.

1.—Announcement.—This Shetland

and Cart Popular Voting Contest will be conducted on strictly honest business principles, with perfect justice and fairness to all concerned.

2.—Prizes.—The first prize shall be a Shetland Pony and Cart. Other valuable and useful prizes will be given. Pony and Cart valued at $300.

3.—Candidates.—Any white girl or boy under Fifteen Years of Age, who lives in Palestine, is eligible to a place in the contest. The most popular girl or boy is the one who shall receive the most votes; to her or him shall be awarded the Shetland Pony and Cart.

4.—Classes of Votes.—The votes are issued in coupons of the following denominations:

New One Month Subscriptions—100 votes for 60 cents.

3-Months' Subscriptions—500 votes for $1.50.

6-Months' Subscriptions—1500 votes for $3.00.

12-Months' Subscriptions—4000 votes for $6.00.

Right is reserved to offer additional classes of votes.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

Names of Contestants will be printed in order according to standing, and the amount of their votes published regularly after first count is made.

Votes will not be allowed on subscriptions at less than regular price of the paper.

No employee of this paper shall be a candidate or work in favor of any contestant.

Votes once deposited in ballot box cannot be transferred to another.

No Contestant will be allowed to take more than one of the Extra Special Prizes that we may offer from time to time.

The publishers are not to tell whom any one votes for, except in case of alleged error or irregularity.

Each contestant is requested to send us a cabinet size photograph for publication as soon as convenient.

Make up your mind who you want to vote for before coming to the office, as the editors will positively not decide the matter for you.

All Coupons should be placed in envelopes with names of Contestants written plainly thereon.

An Awarding Committee of three of the best business men are to be appointed to make final count and award prizes.

Contest to run not less than 90 days; the date of closing will be announced about thirty days in advance.

The Contest shall close at 4 o'clock on the date to be announced later.

Each contestant will be paid 10 per cent on all business turned in.

Webster's Definition

TAILOR "One whose occupation is to cut out and make men's garments."

2nd. "To practice making men's clothes."

WE Are the only house in town that comes up, in every particular, to the above definition.

IT Is our only business, our only study. We are in touch with everything appertaining to it.

WHY Leave a matter of such import to the judgment of one who can, at the best, only give you a second hand opinion?

Let us do your tailoring. We know how.
