

ENDEAVORERS ARE BUSY

St. Paul Gathering Largely Attended and Prominent Speakers Are Being Heard.

(Herald Special.)

St. Paul, Minn., July 9.—Again the Christian Endeavor hosts began the day with prayer and song while yet the hour was early. The usual "quiet hour" service in the Central Presbyterian church was followed by a school of methods in which the work of the society in all its branches was explained by Bishop Fallows of Chicago and other eminent leaders. From 10 to 12 o'clock denominational rallies were held in a score of churches in all parts of the city.

Eminent speakers were heard at the union workers' conference this afternoon, among them William R. Hall, field secretary for Michigan; H. Gordon Lilley, field secretary for Manitoba and Saskatchewan; Rev. J. P. Anderson, president of the South Dakota union; Miss Kirby McChesney of Texas; A. J. Shurtle, field secretary for Pennsylvania; Karl Lehman, field secretary for Colorado and New Mexico, and Rev. William Cody, president of the Kansas union.

One of the biggest rallies of the convention is scheduled for the Auditorium tonight, with "Father" Clark presiding and Senator Beveridge of Indiana and Rev. Charles R. Brown, D. D., of Oakland, Cal., as the chief speakers.

North Pacific Regatta.

(Herald Special.)

Seattle, Wash., July 9.—The placid waters of Lake Washington were ruffled early today by the darting shells of many oarsmen who have gathered here for the annual regatta of the North Pacific Amateur Oarsmen's Association, several elimination events of which were on the program for this afternoon. Tomorrow will come the finals for the championships. All indications point to the most successful regatta ever held under the auspices of the association, which includes the leading rowing clubs of Portland, Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver and Nelson, B. C. Also among the entries are the champion California four from San Diego and the Pacific coast champion sculler, Harry Vaughn, of San Diego.

THE CELEBRATION ENDS

Isle La Motte Witnesses the Closing Events of Lake Champlain Tercentenary Celebration.

(Herald Special.)

Burlington, Vt., July 9.—A large party, including official representatives of the state and others, left Burlington this morning for Isle La Motte, where the closing events of the Lake Champlain tercentenary celebration take place today. The town of Isle La Motte and the island of the same name are picturesquely situated at the upper end of Lake Champlain and it is thought that it was there that Champlain first pitched his camp after entering the lake with his Algonquin allies.

The exercises at Isle La Motte were given in charge of the Colonial Dames, Daughters of the Revolution and Daughters of 1812. The chief event of the day's program was the unveiling of a giant boulder monu-

CARDINAL SATOLLI ILL

First Papal Delegate to the United States Reported Seriously Ill. Nearly Seventy Years Old.

(Herald Special.)

Rome, July 9.—The serious illness of Cardinal Satolli is a matter of grave concern at present in Vatican circles. For several years the cardinal has been suffering from a chronic ailment, which, added to his age—he will be seventy years old this month—renders his recovery extremely doubtful.

In the history of the Catholic church Cardinal Satolli will forever be remembered as the first papal delegate to the United States. His appointment to Washington in the early '90s, as many will recollect, was hailed with mingled feelings of delight and disapproval in Catholic ecclesiastical circles in the United States, and it is a tribute to Satolli's diplomacy that the jealousies which were aroused at first were soon dissipated and long before he had concluded his mission he had won the esteem and friendship of the leading American churchmen.

Cardinal Satolli has long been famous as one of the most learned members of the Sacred College. He was educated in the diocesan seminary of Perugia, then presided over by Joachim Pecci, archbishop of Perugia, who later was to be called to the chair of St. Peter as Pope Leo XIII.

tended. The formal exercises were held in the amphitheatre this morning with E. W. Rowe, president of the Oregon commission, presiding. Addresses were delivered by Archbishop Christie and W. D. Fenson, a prominent Oregon attorney. The musical features of the program were furnished by the "Rose Festival" chorus of Portland. At the conclusion of the formal exercises adjournment was taken to the Oregon building, where open house was kept throughout the day. A grand ball tonight in the Washington state building has been arranged to complete the day's festivities.

INDIANA REMEMBERS

Morgan's Raid—Survivors of Battle of Corydon Held Their First Reunion Today.

(Herald Special.)

New Albany, Ind., July 9.—Forty-three years ago today General Morgan and his daring band of Confederate cavalrymen crossed the Ohio river and gave the people of southern Indiana the worst scare they ever had. On the outskirts of Corydon the invaders were met and defeated by the Corydon Home Guards. The fight was the only one that occurred on Indiana soil during the civil war, and many of those engaged in it are still residents of Harrison and Floyd counties. Today the survivors held their first reunion. Anniversary exercises were held and afterward the graves of those who fell in the skirmish, including those of two of Morgan's men, were decorated with flowers.

Help For Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Folsom, Iowa.

Many people with chronic throat and lung trouble have found comfort and relief in Foley's Honey and Tar as it cures stubborn coughs after other treatment has failed. L. M. It stopped the hemorrhages and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet." Bratton Drug Co.

at this theatre last night within ten minutes after the performance started. To say it was crowded would be putting it mildly; it was simply jammed. Never was there such a crowd seen at a picture show was that seen at the Majestic last night. And you can't wonder why unless you were present and saw the large and excellent program which was presented. It was certainly the best and the most that Palestine people ever got for their money. The four thousand feet of film was extra good, and especially the production of Damon and Pythias. Camplain and Bell certainly deserve the title of the golden voiced singers, as they are the best ever heard in this city. Their jokes were all new and witty and kept the big audience in an uproar of laughter from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Tonight the management assures an entire change of program, both in the vaudeville act, as well as the pictures and songs. The fact that this theatre has cut the price of all children under eight years of age to 5 cents is sure to meet with the approval of those who have several little tots to go to the show.
