MANY NEGROES ARE ARRESTED.

Magnolia, Ala., Sends Thirty-Three to the Linden Jail.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 22.—Colonel J. E. Carter, with three officers and thirty-five men, and Sheriff Grant heading a posse, left Magnolia this morning, escorting thirty-three negroes to be lodged in jail at Linden, charged with breaches of the peace, from incendiarism to drunks and general threats.

They were arrested yesterday and guarded last night by soldiers as a result of the trouble growing out of the burning of Clint Montgomery, one of the negro murderers of Algenon Lewis, last Saturday.

Lieutenant Scott of the Selma company on duty there says the night passed without incident, and that there was no more danger of an outbreak or additional trouble between whites and blacks.

Will Montgomery, the last of the accused murderers of Lewis, is still at large, and will hardly be caught, as he seems to have left the country.

Ernest Slade, the white man so desperately wounded by Clint Montgomery, before the latter was burned to death, is assured of recovery, though with the loss of one eye.

From Linden the soldiers will return to their homes, there being no more necessity for them at Magnolia.

PRESS OF COPENHAGEN.

Regret of Cook's Failure Chief Key-note of Comment Made.

Copenhagen, Dec. 22.—The morning papers generally find comfort for the Cook affair in the thought that the only fault may be charged against the Danes is that they accepted the explorer's word as that of a gentleman. The Politiken says:

"Frankly, we regret only that an honorary degree was bestowed upon this man by the University of Copenhagen; but one member of the university council advised against the action taken."

The Bobenhaven says: "Cook's abasing of our university is his greatest shame. Fortunately the university itself tells the world of its mistake."

Other papers recall that all Scandinavian explorers who were acquainted with Cook supported him, and insist that under the circumstances any other city would have given the explorer a similar reception.

They intimate that at the time other cities envied Copenhagen its opportunity to be the first to welcome and honor him.

NO MEETING

Of the Board of Trade Until After the Holidays.

Christmas Greeting...

To One and All—

The year 1909 is closing. We take this method of thanking our friends for their liberal patronage, and trust that 1910 will be even more prosperous than 1909.

Our interests are mutual. When we prosper our aim is to make those that surround us share the same benefits.

We want to thank you for assisting us in going one step higher in our business efforts.

We wish you a Merry Christmas.

Yours truly,
