Acorn Club.
Mrs. E. J. Ezell was hostess of the Acorn Club Saturday afternoon. Lesson: In Memoriam, second half. Report from committee on music.

Complimentary Dance.
Last Saturday afternoon from three to six o'clock the city hall was a festive place, made so by three young men complimenting their friends with a dance. Music was furnished by a popular orchestra; there were sixteen regular dances and four extras. The programs bore the names of the hosts, "Gregory Maury, Burkitt Richardson and Tom Trelford, December 8th, 1910, complimentary to the boys and girls." The chaperons were Mesdames Lev, Frederick, Leland Douthitt and Ted Bay of Dallas.

The Children's Hour.
Mrs. Roy Sewell entertained the children last Saturday afternoon with beautiful stories from Nathaniel Hawthorne. The children were delighted and interested. On Saturday afternoon next Mrs. E. W. Link will entertain the children with narratives of her late European trip. Children are all interested in steamers and crossing the great, wide ocean, so do not fail to be at the library rooms at 4 o'clock, and you will hear something you will never forget.

Complimentary.
Mrs. J. E. Copeland entertained with bridge Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Neiswanger of Kansas City, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ritner. Four tables were arranged for the players. The rain and cold without added to the delightful informality of the occasion. Mrs. Lev, Frederick was awarded a handsomely bound book, as prize of the afternoon. An elaborate two-course luncheon was enjoyed. The out-of-town guests were the honoree, Mrs. Ted Bay of Dallas and Miss Denie Hoss of Marshall.

Dinner Party.
On last Sunday Miss Ada Cuson entertained at dinner. Covers were laid for the following: Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Davis, Mr. W. R. Herron and daughter, Miss Frankie, of Lawton, Okla., Mrs. B. L. Bentley, Misses Ruby and Pearl Wynne, Lucy Carney and Gertrude Kersh, the hostess, her mother, Mrs. Cuson, and brother, Mr. Ben Cuson. The dinner was an elegant one in six courses, after which all lingered for a pleasant afternoon, enjoying the hospitality of the hostess and the beautiful Cuson home.

Palestine Ladies at Austin.
The following is taken from the Austin Tribune:

Saturday evening Miss Elizabeth Wilnot gave a lovely informal dinner at the Country Club in honor of the Misses Broyles and Dilley of Palestine. The dining room was artistically decorated with holly and other evidences of the mid-winter season. The place cards were exquisite Japanese color scenes which the hostess brought from San Francisco. Those present were: Misses Dilley, Broyles, Campbell, and Messrs. Roberdeau, Ashby, Popenoe and Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ireland Graves and the hostesses.

Miss Martha Dial entertained very informally a few friends Friday afternoon for Misses Dilley and Broyles of Palestine.

Miss Texie Finley entertained a few friends quite informally Saturday afternoon in honor of Misses Dilley and Broyles of Palestine, who are the guests of Miss Campbell.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Ireland Graves and Miss Samybell Campbell entertained very informally and with much pleasure for those present in honor of Misses Dilley and Broyles of Palestine, who are the guests of Miss Campbell. Pink sweet peas in the library and pink carnations in the parlor made a pretty floral touch. The score cards were Venetian water color scenes and the guests of honor were presented with trophies which were also brought from Venice by the hostess. Miss Dilley's gift was a trio of prettily framed scenes in Venice and Miss Broyles' a handsome Venetian vase. Two courses of daintiest refreshments were served after the games, souvenir sprays of pink sweet peas embellishing the ice plates. Among those present were Misses Dilley and Broyles, the guests of honor, and Miss Fannie Campbell. Mrs.

Graves was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Stedman.

We mothers have been scared to death of firecrackers, air guns and cap pistols, and a worse confronts us now, probably—hook worms—who knows?

ALBERT, KING OF THE BELGIANS.

All the Liberalists and even many of the Socialists in Belgium look forward to many reforms under King Albert. And that unusually democratic monarch will come nearer having the combined support of his people than any other ruler in the old world except possibly King Edward and the German emperor. Both he and his queen are loved and respected by their subjects. Their charities and their interest in the people have long been sources of friendly comment not only in Belgium, but all over the old world, and the new king's policy, it is generally believed, will have the effect of arresting the fast growing tendency toward socialism in Belgium.

FOR Prosperity

We wish to return our sincere thanks to our friends and patrons for the liberal patronage extended us during the year now closing, and to solicit a continuance of such friendship and patronage. That the New Year may be to you a prosperous and happy one is our best wish for you.

Very truly,
Tippen & Gilbreath,
