

Saturday, Oct. 1, 1881.

A. M. BURNEY, Editor.

We understand that the difficulty between Hon. John V. Wright and Judge McLenore was honorably and amicably adjusted to the satisfaction of all parties.

We are glad to know that the printer and writery of the Lebanon Herald office have recovered from the damage of the late fire; but how about the flat? Or was it flat?

After two months and seventeen days wrangling the Chattanooga Times and the Lebanon Herald have come to an agreement that the President was "assassinated" by Guiteau. Better late than never.

One bullet of the assassin has defeated the verdict of nine millions of ballots constitutionally cast, yet the Constitution prevails over the verdict of the bullet, and will undoubtedly vindicate itself in the extermination of him who appealed to it.

Quite a sensation was produced in Washington on the 27th by a sworn statement filed by Mr. Bayley, of the Army Museum to the effect that he had overheard a plot for the assassination of President Arthur by a Garfield Republican within one month. While Arthur and his associates affect to disbelieve it, a strong guard has been placed around his residence.

The doctors are practically through with the wounded President, and will now wage a ceaseless war of words over the blunders and foibles committed, in which the English language will quake for adjectives. The ministers, too, have had their say, and have retired to give place to the cohort of lawyers pressing heavily forward to wind up the estate and try Guiteau. The lore of Blackstone and Bentham will now be reviewed.

We venture the assertion that the coupon scalpers and high tax advocates in Warren county will never go to the tax-book again to contradict our statements.—Eva.

To "venture the assertion" is very natural with agitators, but to "contradict" a "statement" which says the State tax of Warren county this year "the tax-book" shows it is only $5,139.91 is a useless expenditure of words, for the figures not only contradict the statement, but show it to be utterly false.

The World is the name of the new morning daily soon to be started in Nashville. The stockholders are T. B. Rains, D. H. Rains, Chas. M. Haynes, A. T. McClure and Wilson Williams. The enterprise will commence operations with a capital of $25,000. Mr. T. M. Hiley, late political editor of the Clarkeville Tobacco Leaf, will be editor-in-chief. We have received the prospectus, which promises a seven day daily which will know no section nor party, but the good of the country and a decent respect for the recompense of reward. We welcome the World to our exchange list and wish it success.

President Arthur has called the Senate to meet October 10. On assembling the Democrats will have a majority of three, owing to the resignation of Messrs. Conkling and Platt, and their successors not being sworn in yet, and the recent death of Gen. Burnside, late Senator from Rhode Island, and will elect the Speaker and Secretary to fill the vacancies occasioned by the accession of Arthur to the Presidency and the death of Col. J. C. Burch, late Secretary. Geo. H. Pendleton, of Ohio, Isham G. Harris, of Tennessee, and Thos. F. Bayard, of Delaware, are the prominent candidates for Speaker.

In this day of progress and extension in every department of business, industry, science and philosophy, Webster's Unabridged Dictionary is simply indispensable, and especially to every teacher and professional man. Every head of a family should have this work side by side with the family Bible, and let it bear the marks of use rather than a covering of dust. We have recently purchased the new edition with 118,000 words, supplement, and Biographical Dictionary. It is a library in itself. Persons desiring the work will find it to their interest to apply to this office.

In 1870 the South manufactured 45,032,866 pounds of cotton, and in 1880, 101,957,286 pounds, more than doubling its manufactures in ten years. Judging from the present rapid growth of manufacturing industries in the South it is a modest estimate to say that its manufactures will consume 1,500,000 bales cotton in 1890.

Guiteau will be tried in Washington probably in this month, October.

Our City, Its Progress.

BY J. M. B.

The "spirit of progress" at last is approaching. We hear with rejoicing the noise of her wings. Her heralds of victory in voices triumphant announce the great blessings her majesty brings.

McMinnville is waking, no longer her people sleep on like old "Rip," but alive to the fact that nature has given us wonderful chances. We'll improve what we have, using wisdom and tact.

Our glorious mountains, streamlets and valleys. Rejoice that Progression's the word of the day: We'll make of our city a resting place truly. For weary-worn pilgrims who stop on the way.

Soon up from the Park shall the noise of the fountain. Come soothingly whispering of quiet and rest. While pleasure itself at the creek is exulting in laughter and frolic, in music and jest.

But we will not stop here in the list of improvements. Though we modestly start with a rink and a fountain. To all seeking pleasure, in town or in city, We gladly invite you to "come to the mountain."

From Dibrell.

Editor Standard:—We have had fine rains recently, and the people have generally been cheered up by seeing the grass put forth afresh. There is a decided difference now and ten days ago. Farmers are sowing rye for winter pastures, and making preparations for sowing wheat, which is well enough to begin in due time. Since the rains they have sown a good many turnips. Should frost be late they will make a good deal of feed for cattle, and plenty of "greens" for man.

Our clever tax collector, G. W. Parks, is around gathering up the spare change and crediting the tax-book for 1881.

We are more than gratified to learn that you intend to partially at least withdraw your columns from the heat of politics and turn your attention to things of greater interest to all. I would be glad to see the time when the whole mass of the people could be united for the general good of the entire country, when politicians would know no North, South, East or West, but be willing to labor and use their talents for the common good of all. The whole people must rise and prosper together, or all sink into a common ruin. Let every one labor for the promotion of the entire country.

Sept. 26. P. G. POTTER.

A Postal Question.

Editor Standard:—The class in Higher Arithmetic at Brookside Seminary desire to know whether foreign countries receive the additional postage charged for transmission through the "Post Office" under the "Universal Postal Union" between the United States, Great Britain, France, Germany, and most of the governments of Europe and the civilized world; and article 9 of this Union says: "Each administration (i. e., postal service) keeps the whole of the sums which it has collected in execution of the foregoing articles, 5, 6, 7, and 8. Consequently there is no necessity on this head for any accounts between the several administrations of the Union."

There are some governments that are not embraced in the Universal Postal Union, and these are under special arrangements with our government and with each other. But we would advise the "class in Higher Arithmetic" to confine their correspondence as much as possible within the Postal Union if they expect to be benefitted thereby. They can send a half ounce letter to Jerusalem, or Egypt, under the Universal Postal Union for five cents, while it will cost twenty cents to send one to Ecuador, or twenty seven cents to Uruguay, in South America, to say nothing of the probabilities that it could not be read by their correspondents in the latter countries. The international postage under this Union is twenty-five centimes on each letter of half an ounce.

The leaf of the cockle-bur is said to be an infallible antidote for snake bites. It should be chewed.

Twenty-seven per cent. worse than last year is what Bealstreet's reports of the cotton crop. This estimate is based upon answers to eight hundred and seventy-five letters.

Your Uncle Sam Tilden is still growing rich. His wealth is now estimated at $15,000,000. Besides this, he is going to be Governor of New York next time, and then President of the United States.

The Constitution invests Congress with power to make all laws necessary for carrying out its provisions and powers in order to put in execution the government of the United States.

Frost in Humphreys County.

To the American: Waverly, Sept. 17, 1881.—Squire Cowan reports frost, this morning. Mr. Briggs, on White Oak, also reports frost.

New York Democracy.

New York, Sept. 17.—The Jeffersonian Democracy of this State will issue a call for a State convention in this city Oct. 10.

A Merited Success.

One of the most successful enterprises in Nashville is the Nicholson House. Last year a three-story brick building was added to the main edifice extending from Church street to Polk Avenue. This year a four-story addition has been completed, fronting on Polk Avenue, the whole now covering an entire square, fronting on Church street and Polk Avenue respectively, forming one of the largest and best furnished hotels in the country, with all the latest and most improved hotel appliances and appointments, while the furniture, fire and table outfit constitute a model of excellence. Ventilation pipes run up from the closets, carrying all foul air out through the chimneys. The Nashville Banner says that two stories will be added to the original building next spring, and also another addition with rooms above and closets and bath-rooms below, all connected under covered galleries will be built soon. These improvements, together with the constantly increasing popularity of the house, clearly demonstrate that Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson are leading the hotel business in the South.

Habitual Costiveness.

is the bane of nearly every American woman. From it usually arises those disorders that so sorely undermine their health and strength. Every woman owes it to herself and her family to use that celebrated medicine, Kidney-Wort. It is the sure remedy for constipation, and for all disorders of the kidneys and liver. Try it in liquid or dry form. Equally efficient in either.—Boston Sunday Budget.

Bone Cave.

Farmers are gathering corn and flud the crop light. The shortage is made up by the large amount of roughness saved. Although the weather continues warm with us the health of the neighborhood is good, so say our physicians. Our community was sorry to hear of the sad death of the President, and heartily sympathizes with the family. The road force is on duty this week. Our public schools are nearly all closed. We have a fine Sunday-school at Antioch, Jas. Dillon superintendent. There will be preaching at Laurel Creek next Sunday. Married.—S. Sparkman was married to Miss M. E. Frogin some days ago. May all their troubles be little ones. Bone Cave, Sept. 27. J. J. S.

Since its introduction into use by Dr. Tabler as a permanent cure for Piles, the Buckeye, now so abundant in our native forests, has become of almost as much importance in the medical world as Cinchona, or Peruvian bark, of South America. Fortunately the medical properties are in the fruit, and not the bark; hence the trees will not be destroyed, but will stand many years to yield an abundant supply, and we may regard Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment as a permanent remedy. Price 50 cents a bottle. For sale by J. B. Ritchey.

Oil of Interest to Farmers.

White Winter Oats make the best winter pasture and the earliest harvest feed, and can be had at sixty cents a bushel. They may be had of the farmers on Hickory creek and at Viola. Farmers should look into this fact and satisfy themselves. Winter pasture and early harvest are what they want.

Oleocottinone—Vegetable Butter.

Oleocottinone is a substitute for butter, made from cotton-seed oil, and hence its name. It has been used at various hotels as butter, and is pronounced the equal of that standard staple of time-honored memory. If Job, as the Scriptures seem to indicate, did actually wash his face with butter, what what astonishment would that ancient worthy behold his favorite luxury superseded by a vegetable extract unknown in his day, after a lapse of 3400 years? At any rate this is a very opportune time to introduce it when butter is 25 cents a pound and oleocottinone only half that price.

I found also that the corn was about two weeks earlier than any of my neighbors' besides, one barrel of 200 lbs is equal to at least 60 wagon loads of the best stable manure spread upon the land, as the Burnt Bone Dust is a land food, and remains in the soil till exhausted by successive crops.
