

AT THE New Furniture Store OF M. B. HARWELL & CO., MC MINNVILLE, TENN.,

Is now being shown the largest and handsomest stock of Furniture ever brought to this section. We can furnish any room from kitchen to parlor, and any kind of home from cottage to mansion.

We have beautiful bed room suits in Walnut, Ash, Maple, and 16th Century Antique Oak.

OUR PRICES are away below retail city houses. When you want any article of furniture whatever come and see us before you buy.

Magnificent New Hearses

We have one of the finest and handsomest hearses ever brought to the South, and give special attention to the direction of funerals. We carry a large line of Caskets, Metallic and Wood Cases and Coffins. Particular attention given to embalming. We invite a call from everybody.

M. B. HARWELL & CO.

Town Topics

—Breakfast Cocoa at Woodlee's.

—House to rent. Apply to J. H. Sherrill.

—Mr. W. H. Ross has been in Nashville several days of this week.

—For Christmas Toys and Holiday Goods call on A. H. Woodlee.

—Dwelling house to rent. Apply to Wm. Houchin.

—Chew Gravely & Miller's Tobaccos. A. H. Woodlee has them.

—FOR SALE.—A good gentle family horse, apply at this office.

—Holiday Goods of Bisque and China, in endless variety at Ritchey & Bostick's.

—Remember the Baptist Church mite society at the Maddux House tonight (Friday).

—If you want a plain or fancy lamp as cheap as dirt, you can get it at A. H. Woodlee's.

—Dates, Raisins, Figs, Currants, Prunes, Cocoanuts, Cranberries and Apricots at Woodlee's.

—Mr. Frank Spurlock was here last Saturday and Sunday returning to Chattanooga Monday.

—The colored brass band celebrated Thanksgiving with an open air concert in the park Thursday.

—The Methodist Sunday School will have a Christmas tree on Christmas eve, at the Opera House.

—Those who want good goods for little money will find it to their interest to call on A. A. Woodlee.

—Have you seen those handsome lamps at Ritchey & Bostick's? They make elegant Christmas presents.

—A. H. Woodlee's selection of Christmas candies is the best and cheapest in town. Don't fail to see them.

—Mr. C. G. T. Myers left one day this week for Winesap, Cumberland county, where he will spend the winter.

—"A. H. Woodlee's barrel pickles are the best I ever saw," is the universal expression of those who have tried them.

—Mrs. J. H. P. Newton and little daughter, who have been here several weeks, returned to Nashville Wednesday.

—Read Beech & Scales' advertisement on another page, and when you go to buy your Christmas fruits, give them a call.

—Anderson McGregor, a motor-man on one of the Chattanooga electric street car lines, visited his parents here this week.

—A municipal election will be held Dec. 8th for one Alderman to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. I. W. Smith.

—The ground was covered with snow to nearly an inch in depth last Monday morning, but it all disappeared during the day.

—A. H. Woodlee's selection of Christmas goods includes everything that is calculated to please, interest or benefit the children.

—Mr. Henry Powell, of Safley, in this county, was one of the parties passed on favorably by the State Pension Board this week.

—Sparta Expositor: Mrs. W. T. Murray, of McMinnville, has been on a visit to relatives and friends in Sparta for a week past.

—J. C. M. Ross & Son are offering some great bargains in their mammoth stock of Clothing, Overcoats, Shoes, and Furnishing Goods.

—A. H. Woodlee has just received and opened up a superb stock of Queensware and Glassware, and marked them at prices that defy competition.

—If you are in search of something both handsome and serviceable for holiday gifts, see the beautiful line of cutlery and silverware at L. F. Jeanmaires.

—The largest stock and greatest variety of holiday gifts books, Bibles, booklets, Christmas cards, etc., ever brought to McMinnville now being opened by Ritchey & Bostick.

—Do you keep a horse? If so, you are interested in the large stock of harness, bridles, saddles, etc., now on hand at I. J. Bass'. Anything you want in this line at satisfactory prices.

—The Methodist Church was well filled at the Thanksgiving service Thursday morning. None of the business houses were closed, however. The pupils of the City Schools had holiday.

—Mrs. D. F. Wallace, who had been visiting her daughter at South Pittsburg several weeks, returned home last Saturday, accompanied by Mr. F. P. Clute, who remained until Monday.

—L. F. Jeanmaire has some of the prettiest goods in silverware, watches, clocks and jewelry he has ever handled. You should examine his stock before making your holiday purchases.

Colville-Rice.

Mr. Frank Colville, Cashier of the Peoples National Bank of this place, and Miss Pearl Rice, of Greenville, Ky., were married at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Greenville, at noon, Thursday, Nov. 26th, Rev. — Watson, pastor of the Church, officiating. The attendants were Miss Eaves, a half-sister of the bride, and Mr. S. R. Bruster, of this place.

The wedding party reached here at noon today (Friday) and will be tendered a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Lind tonight. The bride was formerly a student at C. F. College, and no young lady ever educated there could claim more friends and admirers in McMinnville than Miss Pearl. All who knew her then will give her a warm welcome back to McMinnville. We but express the feelings of every acquaintance of both bride and groom in wishing them a bountiful fruition of life's brightest and fondest hopes.

—Bananas at Gray's Saturday.

—Fresh fish at Brown's today.

—Christmas Goods and Toys at J. W. Gray's.

—Mr. Leon Trousdale of Nashville, spent several days of this week here with his friend, Mr. J. G. McGuire.

—Do you want a wagon for your boy Christmas? See the new styles at D. L. Brown's.

—We are bound to keep up with the procession, and so we request everybody who owes the the STANDARD office anything to come and pay up right soon. Those we owe will please not call.

—J. W. Gray has the largest line of Dolls in town.

—Morford & Co have just received a large line of Clothing, including Overcoats purchased at the late bankrupt sales, which they now offer much cheaper than any goods ever offered in this market.

—Fresh Fish at Gray's Saturday.

—Sparta Expositor: Sheriff Montgomery captured Fate Meeks, col., one of the escaped convicts, at Dock Huggins', near town, on Tuesday, and left with him on Wednesday for Nashville, where he was paid the reward of $25 and expenses.

—Call and examine J. W. Gray's stock of Holiday Goods.

—The Messrs. Mead and party of hunters returned from the mountain Sunday. Owing to the very unfavorable weather their stay was shortened several days. They also failed to get any venison.

—I will sell Groceries cheap for cash until Jan. 1, 1892.

J. W. GRAY.

—The literary and musical entertainment at the C. P. Church parsonage tonight (Friday) promises to be a most interesting occasion. All who attend may be assured in advance of a good time.

—Fine Cabbage, Potatoes and Turnips at A. M. Jones.

—Miss May Gleason gave another entertainment at the C. F. College chapel last Monday night, to quite an appreciative audience, composed principally of the boarding pupils of that institution.

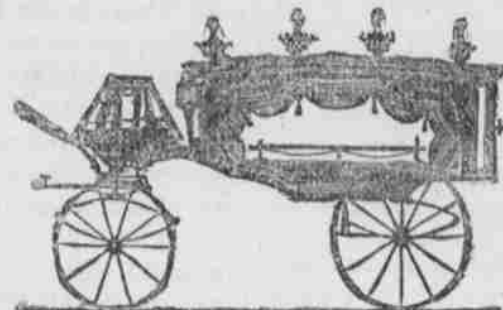

—Corporation tax payers should call on City Marshal Maxwell during next month and settle their taxes or they will become delinquent and penalties be added Jan 1st. See notice in advertising columns.

—The hog law passed second reading at the council meeting Tuesday night, and will pass third and final reading at next meeting, ten days after which it will go into effect. City Marshal Maxwell says the law will be strictly enforced.

—All persons indebted to the firm of Eastwood Bros. & Carson, are hereby notified to settle with the undersigned without further delay, or the accounts will be given to officers for collection.

EASTWOOD & CARSON.

—The handling of fireworks by merchants violates their fire insurance policies, unless permission for same is granted in the face of the policy. In some Tennessee towns the sale of fireworks is prohibited altogether by the municipal authorities.

W. S. LIVELY & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS,
WHOLESALE and RETAIL DEALERS IN

FURNITURE

OF ALL KINDS AND FOR ALL PURPOSES.

We carry large stocks of Bedsteads, Dressing Cases, Wash Stands, Tables, Chairs, etc., in the latest designs, and can furnish any article made in our line on short notice.

BUILDERS' + MATERIAL.
SASH, DOORS.
BLINDS.
CEILING, SIDING,
Flooring,
MOULDINGS,
AND FINISHING
LUMBER FOR ALL PURPOSES.

Funeral UNDERTAKERS
WE CARRY A HANDSOME LINE
OF—
Coffins, Caskets, Cases,
Burial Robes, Etc.
Special Attention
GIVEN TO EMBALMING
AND THE DIRECTION OF FUNERALS.

EAST MAIN STREET, McMINNVILLE, TENN.

NEXT WEEK BEECH & SCALES

—WILL RECEIVE—

50—BOXES FLORIDA ORANGES--50

Together with a large shipment of

BANANNAS, MALACA GRAPES,
CALIFORNIA DRIED GRAPES,
AND FRUITS OF ALL KINDS,

Also a lot of Fine Northern Potatoes. We have bought all these goods in large quantities, and will supply merchants at lowest wholesale prices. Call and see our stock.

BEECH & SCALES.

S. E. Cor. Square and Main St., McMinnville, Tenn.

The Peoples National Bank of McMinnville TENNESSEE. AUTHORIZED DEPOSITORY OF STATE FUNDS.

CAPITAL, - - $55,000.00.

DIRECTORS.		OFFICERS.
J. F. MORFORD,	S. L. COLVILLE,	J. F. MORFORD,	President.
J. C. BILES,	J. C. M. ROSS,	J. C. BILES,	Vice President.
W. C. WOMACK,	J. A. ROSS,	FRANK COLVILLE,	Cashier.
	WM. BILES.	C. M. MORFORD,	Assistant Cashier.

Does a General Banking Business, Deposits Solicited

Politely Personal.

We have accommodated many of our friends by selling them goods on 30 days time. These accounts are now due and we politely request all customers to balance their accounts with us. This is personal to all whose accounts have been running 30 days or more.

J. C. M. ROSS & SON.

The Tennessee Methodist.

We have made an arrangement by which we are enabled to club the Tennessee Methodist and the STANDARD at $2.50 per year for both papers, or $1.25 for six months. The Tennessee Methodist is the official organ of the Tennessee Conference, and is a splendid church paper.

LIST OF LETTERS.

Remaining in the Postoffice at McMinnville, for the week ending Nov. 27, which will be forwarded to the Dead Letter Office if not called for in 30 days.

Brown, D. M.	Mayers, E. J.
Foster, Miss Fannie	Tubbs, Clara
Hillman, Miss Sallie	Settles, Mrs. Jany
Hawell, J. R.	Sain, Geo. T.
King, Mrs. Ida L.

By order of the P. O. Department, One Cent must be collected on all advertised letters. Parties calling for any of these letters will please say "Advertised."

A. H. FAULKNER, P. M.

By a prolonged and severe earthquake shock which occurred in Japan on the 28th of October, 4000 people were killed, and 4000 seriously wounded, and 42,000 houses were totally destroyed.