OVERCOAT WEATHER!

Had you thought about it? . . . . .

Northerly and Ice and Snow . . . . .
and so forth . . .

Will be here soon

and where will you be without an OVERCOAT?

The most complete line of Coats, Kerseys, Chinchilla, Beavers, etc.

Square yourself against the weather. . . . .

Postoffice building.

It isn't the church with the highest steeple that is nearest heaven.

There are some girls to whom engagements just get to be a habit.

There is even a happiness that that makes the heart afraid.

Probably the very best way in the world to kill time is by hard work.

The first and the last thing required of genius is the love of truth.

The dignified eaves some men carry make them look rather silly in comparison.

The Chronic Bachelor arises to remark that marriage, like caviar, is an acquired taste.

Rare and wise indeed is the instructor who does not attempt to teach more than he knows.

There are men in the world who are perfect sponges, but they are not the kind that take water.

The presidents of Yale and Harvard are for McKinley. They have decided that perhaps he is the lesser evil.

When a man has money to burn almost any mother with a marriageable daughter will supply him with a match.

The Youth's Companion's Sev- enty-Fifth Year.

The new volume of the Youth's Companion for 1901 will mark the paper's seventy-fifth year of continuous publication—seventy-five years, during which it has had the approval of three generations of readers. The constant aim of The Companion is to be carry into the home reading that shall be helpful as well as entertaining—reading that shall contribute to the pure happiness of all the family. Strong in the assurance that every reader gained is a friend won, the publishers offer to send The Companion free for the remaining weeks of 1900 to those who subscribe now for the new volume for 1901. There will not be an issue from now until 1902 that will not be crowded with good stories and articles of rare interest and value.
Diplomatists, Explorers, Sailors, Trappers, Indian Fighters, Story-Writers and Self-Made Men and Women in Many Vocations, besides the most popular writer of fiction, will write for The Companion not only next year, but during the remaining weeks of this year.

The new subscriber will also receive The Companion's new "Paritan Girl" calendar for 1901, lithographed in 12 colors.

Illustrated Announcement of the volume for 1901 will be sent free to any address, with sample copies of the paper.

The Youth's Companion,
Boston, Mass.

The Chickasha Mills Score 100.

In Competition With Pillsbury's Best the Full Cream of Chickasha is Taken.

The Chickasha Milling Company are proud over the fact that at Fort Worth, Texas, they sold a car load of their "Full Cream" in competition against "Pillsbury's Best" of Minneapolis. This sale was not effected until after a severe trial test, which resulted in the Full Cream being chosen and a car load ordered. Pillsbury's Best is regarded as the best flour in the country, and has a world wide reputation. The Milling Company has reason to be proud.

"In his lifetime that man has taken 3,621 women for better or for worse." "Who's he, the sultan?" "Naw, he's a photographer."

Paris consumes more than 2,000 tons of snails annually. Most of these are eaten by higher livers, who don't go a snail's pace either.

You ask, Beatrice, who would it be best to call a man who is cold, unfeeling and unreal. Call him an artificial ice man, but call him down first.

The meeting of the Agricultural, and Irrigation Association, which is to be held at Stillwater, Oklahoma, beginning December 4th, should be well attended by the farmers and stockmen of the territory. The Swinebreeders association will meet there at the same time and an exceptional opportunity will be afforded to examine the work of the A. M.
College and of the experiment station located there.
